FROM THE CLUB

Firstly, on behalf of the club, I would like to welcome to Lambert Park, players, supporters, coaches, managers, sponsors, and the Board of Management of the Bonnyrigg White Eagles, to Lambert Park.

Today the Club is launching the Robert Younis Annual Challenge Trophy in honour of a player who has been the leading and most prolific goal scorer in the history of the Competition.

To this extent I would like to thank, on behalf of the Club, also our magnificent sponsors whose companies and services are clearly displayed within this magnificently illustrated Match Day Program.

It has been an incredibly hectic off season for the Club, and the fruits of that work and proactive structure and organisation is fully on display today at Lambert Park.

We have an exciting squad this season inclusive of the new signings, Shevin Adeli, Josh Symons, Luke Turnbull and Matthew West.

Obviously, there are a few gremlins to iron out, as the game against Sutherland highlighted (from 4 nil to 4-3), 3 wins in a row however is a great result thus far and we look forward to continued passion and success from our playing squad. The third successive win was a great morale booster.

As you are all fully aware, the Club is strongly focused on gaining entry into a B League or a Second Division Competition in the near future.

What is obvious for all to see, as the Club in my humble opinion, is without a doubt the market leader and, as far as a football club and branding, in the PS4 NPL NSW Men's Competition.

I am personally proud of the fact that a number of clubs are monitoring our initiatives and extremely proactive mind-set, on and off the park, and are following in some instance, our lead.

The Club, I repeat, is humble, despite the fact, that we are now seen as the benchmark for a football club in this League.

It is also interesting to note, and it is simply amazing, that the PS4 NPL NSW Men's Competition has twelve incredibly strong clubs, all of which have an excellent playing group, which undoubtedly has propelled NSW into the Number 1 Competition in the Second-Tier League from within Australia.

To have a competition where all teams are virtually equal in standard is amazing to say the least.

We are all looking forward to the historical clash with Bonnyrigg White Eagles today, as in years past, all games between such giant clubs always produce drama, rivalry and great football.

I hope you enjoy today's match and activities and we are looking forward to seeing you all at our next home match on Sunday 14th April when we play Sydney FC.

Best wishes
Tony Raciti

MATCH PREVIEW

The season couldn't have started much better for competition leaders APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Three wins from three games has Danial Cummins side tied for first place with Sydney Olympic and has helped their fans forget about their disappointing 2016 season.

APIA will be determined to make it four wins from four on Sunday afternoon against Bonnyrigg White Eagles with the first leg of the Robbie Younis Cup also to take shape as the now retired star attacker had the pleasure of playing for both clubs during his time in the PS4 NPL NSW Men's competition.

Bonnyrigg has been a valiant performer this season but an early season injury crisis at the club and postponed matches has conspired against Brian Brown's men.

While they are still without a win this season, the White Eagles are building in confidence and will be difficult opposition for APIA.

Jordan Murray and Tasuku Sekiya are expected to lead the line once again for the home side.

They will need to be in good form for APIA to maintain its winning start.

REVIEWS

Sutherland Sharks 3 - APIA Leichhardt Tigers 4 at Seymour Shaw

APIA Leichhardt Tigers has clung on to a narrow 4-3 win against a fast finishing Sutherland Sharks during their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Seymour Shaw.

A Sean Symons free-kick, Tasuku Sekiya strike and Corey Biczo double gave the Tigers a 4-0 lead with a little over 20 minutes to play. However, it proved to be a nervy finish for the visitors with a Jeremy Cox goal and a brace to Tomohiro Kajiyama giving Sutherland a sniff of victory late on.

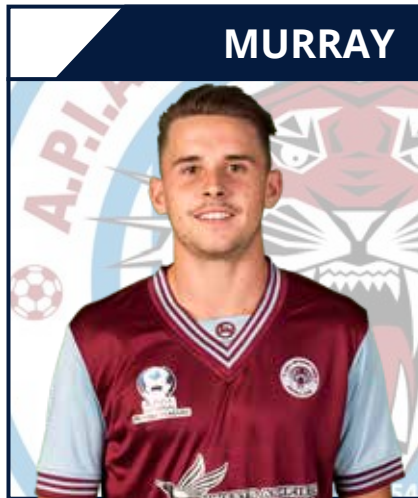

It proved to not be the perfect ending to Sutherland Sharks' keeper Nathan Denham's match as APIA held on to win in the shot stoppers' 200th match.

The Tigers now have three wins on the trot and are looking like the team to beat in this season's competition.

PS4 NPL NSW WOMEN'S SEASON PREVIEW

After months of hard work on the training pitch, the PlayStation® 4 National Premier Leagues NSW Women's competition finally kicks off this Sunday.

Heather Garriock's Sydney University swept all before them last season, taking out the treble in the Preseason Cup, Premiership and Championship.

It's started much the same way for the 'Yellow and Blues', taking the first piece of silverware in 2017, winning the Preseason Cup for the second consecutive year.

Many teams look set to challenge them this year and one team that will be looking for revenge will be the North West Sydney Koalas, who played the 'bridesmaid' to the Champions last year.

The Northern Tigers are the new girls on the block and they'll have something to prove as they attempt to consolidate themselves in the state's top league.

Round 1 Preview

Charles Bean Sportsground will see the new girls on the block Northern Tigers entertain the Blacktown Spartans, JJ Kelly Park will play host to the Illawarra Stingrays taking on Sydney University. Lake Macquarie Regional Facility will feature the Emerging Jets clash with the Football NSW Institute, Macarthur Rams face Manly United at Lynwood Park while Northbridge Oval will see the North Shore Mariners take on the North West Sydney Womens Koalas.

The coverage kicks off this Thursday as Football NSW's Facebook LIVE show, commencing at 6pm, will feature two stars of the female game with Sydney University's Evelyn Chronis and North West Sydney Womens Koalas' Nat Tobin in the studio talking about their up and coming year amongst a whole host of other topics - Don't miss this and be sure to log onto the PS4 NPL NSW Facebook page on Thursday at 6pm to view the special feature.

MATCH PREVIEW

Two sides who have yet to claim a point so far this season will face off at Lambert Park on Sunday afternoon with APIA Leichhardt hosting Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

It might only be round four but it looms as a big clash for both sides who boast talented rosters and will no doubt have finals ambitions come the pointy end of the season.

APIA Leichhardt put up a commendable fight in their 2-0 loss to competition leaders Sutherland last weekend and will be desperate to avoid a fourth straight defeat, while Bonnyrigg come into the match on the back of a 3-1 defeat to Sydney Olympic in round one and a 4-0 defeat to Manly United in round two.
