FROM THE CLUB

Firstly, on behalf of the club, I would like to welcome to Lambert Park, players, supporters, coaches, managers, sponsors, and the Board of Management of the Hakoah Sydney City East FC, to Lambert Park.

To this extent, I would like to thank, on behalf of the Club, also our magnificent sponsors, whose companies and services are clearly displayed within this beautifully illustrated, first home match of the season, Match Day Program.

It has been an incredibly hectic off season for the Club, and the fruits of that work and proactive structure and organisation, is fully on display today, at Lambert Park.

We would like to take this opportunity to welcome the Club's new signings for 2017, that being Shevin Adeli, Josh Symons, Luke Turnbull and Matthew West.

I am sure, once you watch these players in action this season, you will form the same view as mine, and that is that they are the real deal.

They join our exciting squad, in what promises to be an exciting, and successful 2017 Season.

As you are all fully aware, the Club is strongly focused on gaining entry into a B League or a Second Division Competition, in the near future.

That is obvious for all to see, as the Club in my humble opinion, is without a doubt, the market leader and, as far as a football club and branding, in the PS4 NPL 1 Competition.

I am personally proud, of the fact, that a number of clubs are monitoring our initiatives, and extremely proactive mind-set, on and off the park, and are following, in some instance, our lead.

The Club, I repeat, is humble, despite the fact, that we are now seen as the benchmark for a football club, in this League.

It is also interesting to note, and it is simply amazing, that the NPL 1 Competition has twelve incredibly strong clubs, all of which have an excellent playing group, which undoubtedly has propelled NSW into the Number 1 Competition, in the Second-Tier League from within Australia.

To have a competition where all teams are virtually equal in standard, is amazing to say the least.

Hakoah, last year, at home here at Lambert Park, were the deserved winners of this clash, and as such, we are fully respectful of their playing group, and certainly would not dare to underestimate our opponent, and for that matter, any opponent in this League.

To do so would only end in misery and failure.

In closing, thank you to all the various sections of the Club for your attendance today; Juniors from 3 years to O45 Men, Skill Acquisition Program players aged from U9s to U12s, the NSW NPL Youth Boys aged from Under 13s to U16s, and Men's 1 Under 18s, 20s and First Grade and lastly but certainly not least the Club's State League Women and Girls players.

But, hopefully your attendance will be present throughout the remaining 10 home games of the season, as a strong supporter base is an absolute, key ingredient to having a successful competitive team, on a week to week basis.

Today's match will again be screened live on APIA TV via our Facebook page.

I hope you enjoy today's festivities and activities and we are looking forward to seeing you all at our next home match on Sunday, 2nd April 2017, whereby we will be launching the Robert Younis Annual Challenge Trophy between APIA and Bonnyrigg.

This will be in honour of a player, who has been the leading, and most prolific goal scorer in the history of the PS4 NPL 1 Competition.

Also, greatly appreciated thanks are extended to Australia's greatest ever goalkeeper, Mike Bosnich, for his attendance here as our guest, today.

Best wishes, Tony Raciti

MATCH PREVIEW

After a disappointing 2016 season, APIA kicked off the new year with a bang. A 2-1 win against last season's PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Premiers Sydney United 58.

Jordan Murray was outstanding for the Tigers and stands to carry much of the goal scoring burden for Danial Cummins' side. Tasuku Sekiya also returned for Leichhardt and continued to build on his strong form from 12 months ago.

Their opposition this round is Hakoah Sydney City East who are riding high after an impressive 1-1 draw against Blacktown City.

Hakoah were minutes away from claiming the win against Blacktown and will use the great result as inspiration to spur them on for the rest of the season.

Now in their second season in the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition, Hakoah are developing a reputation for disrupting the bigger teams and are always a good chance of pulling off an upset.

REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 v APIA Leichhardt Tigers, 4.00pm at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 cruised to a comfortable 2-0 victory over 10-man APIA Leichhardt at Sydney United Sports Centre in the opening round of the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's U20 campaign.

Reds striker Luke Ivancic opened the scoring and later missed a penalty in a first half that saw APIA captain Stephan Adattini dismissed for a handball after blocking Anthony Vrlc's goalbound effort on the line. Jack Stewart doubled the advantage early in the second half for Sydney United who could've increased the deficit further but for some wayward finishing inside the final third.

While it was far from one way traffic and a generally spirited performance from the visiting ten men, APIA were starved of possession and chances in the second half and unable to force an way back into the contest. The visitors will lament not making more of a promising start that saw a slew of opportunities missed inside the opening fifteen minutes. APIA marksman Matthew Barko created the first chance of the game early on after chasing his own flick on but could only steer his shot wide one on one with Sydney United goalkeeper Lucas Pervan.

Barko then turned provider for Samuel Gulisano who sent a shot dribbling wide of the far post after breaking free inside the penalty area, before a superb counter attack was wasted at the death when winger Samuel Paslis spooned his effort over the bar. APIA were punished for their profligacy when Ivancic nodded home Anthony Poljak's cross from point blank range to put the Reds 1-0 up. The visitors were placed firmly on the back foot soon after with Adattini's dismissal, who was deemed to have illegally obstructed Vrlc's goalbound effort inside the area.

The APIA defender was given his marching orders but Ivancic's penalty was weak and comfortably gathered by Blake Tuxford low to the keeper's left. Tuxford's penalty save had restored some hope for the Tigers but Sydney United 58 ensured it would be a mountain to climb for their opponents in the second half when Jack Stewart doubled the advantage early on.

A delightful piece of close control and shot from Reds midfielder Andre Schroeder saw the ball rebound off the foot of the post and straight into the path of Stewart, who made no mistake with the goal gaping. The hosts created several changes to add a third with Schroeder himself unfortunate not to find the back of the net after seeing a sweetly-struck drive from close range blocked by Joshua Symons, but a combination of stoic APIA defending and several fine saves from Tuxford kept the scoreline at 2-0 and gave the Reds a dream start to the 2017 season.

Hakoah Sydney City East 1-3 Blacktown City, 1.00pm at Hensley Athletic Field

Blacktown City began the season with a convincing 3-1 victory over Hakoah Sydney City East at Hensley Athletic Field.

City cruised to a three goal advantage courtesy of strikes from Lachlan Rose, Dan Machara and a Mason Ireland penalty before Hakoah's Satchel Kolt forced a consolation late on.

Hakoah will search for their first points of the campaign when they face APIA Leichhardt at Lambert Park next week while Blacktown head to Sutherland in an enticing encounter at Seymour Shaw.

ROBBIE YOUNIS RETIRES

The Robert Younis Annual Challenge Trophy APIA Leichhardt Tigers v Bonnyrigg White Honouring the PS4 NPL 1 NSW leading goal scorer in history.

Robbie Younis retires and praises our very own president with an amazing and stunning testimonial.

Former APIA great Robbie Younis after 26 years as both a professional and semi-professional footballer - has retired. Younis is without a doubt the greatest ever goal scorer and striker to have graced the Play Station 4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's football competition.

Having spent a year in the Hyundai A-League representing Adelaide United, Younis commenced his climb up the senior ranks with the APIA Leichhardt first grade set up.....before even turning the age of 18.

'APIA as a Club will always hold a special place in my heart. They gave me my NPL debut at the age of seventeen. Tony Raciti personally scouted me at the age of 16, whilst I was at Bankstown. After playing one season with Tony in the Under 17s as my coach, the following season, I was promoted to the 20s. After two consecutive games in the 20s, Tony was instrumental and personally promoted me to the 1st grade squad the age of 17. I made my debut against Penrith, with the score 1-all at half-time, of course he would have been fuming, and I knew that behind the scenes he was encouraging the coach to make a substitution. Within 20 minutes it paid dividends, as I scored a hat trick and the team went on to win 4-1.

As I said Tony personally coached me in my first year at APIA and personally oversaw my development into the 20s and first grade. Having Tony as a youth coach gave me the belief of reaching my potential and getting the best possible results. He is knowledgeable, wise, cunning and extremely meticulous as a coach. He is inspirational and a strong motivator in the dressing room. He is very direct and managed to produce the best results, on and off the pitch, and the absolute driving force for me to secure a contract at Adelaide United. And I can go as far as saying, that if it was not for Tony, I would not have been contracted at Adelaide United.' Robbie spearheaded the attack for APIA from 2006 to 2008, notching up an incredible 39 goals in 43 matches, taking out the NPL 1 competitions' Golden Boot Award on his way to signing a professional contract with Adelaide United as a 22-year-old.

After making the move back to APIA, Robbie spent a further three seasons, scoring 29 goals, in 49 matches. In all Robbie made 206 appearances in the NPL 1 competition, notching an incredible 150 goals.

Robbie said today that he had dedicated 26 years of his life to football. 'At the age of 31, the time I believe is right for me to move forward. I have a beautiful family, with two little boys. My family has been there for me throughout my career. Now it is time for me to be there for them. I am madly in love with football, but it is now time for me to move on. I owe a debt to football, and it really has given me a lot. It has without a doubt made me the man that I am today. I am very proud and thankful to the game, and what I have achieved. It has taught me discipline, commitment and responsibility.

A sincere and extremely big thanks to all who influenced my career. I wish all my ex-team mates at APIA and the Club especially, the best of luck for the 2017 season. Football fans throughout NSW will certainly miss Robbie and we wish him and his family the very best in the future. And it is very very doubtful, if the NSW Premier League competition will ever witness such a prolific goal scorer in our life-time.

FOOTBALL NSW LAUNCHES PLAYSTATION 4 NPL 2017 SEASON

The PlayStation®4 (PS4™) National Premier Leagues NSW 2017 Season was launched by Football NSW at Waterview in Bicentennial Park on Wednesday where media and representatives from the NPL community attended.

A cocktail function for 150 guests with Master of Ceremonies and Fox Sports' very own Simon Hill took control of proceedings which also included representatives from all Football NSW National Premier League Clubs, FFA, Hyundai A-League and W-League clubs, Major Sponsors, and Managing Director of Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia, Michael Ephraim, celebrated the fifth year of the National Premier Leagues in NSW.

There were also cameo appearances from a couple of ex-Socceroos with Paul Okon, Ante Covic, David Zdrilic and Gerry Gomez on hand to support the competition as well as former Socceroos coach from the famous 1974 World Cup squad, Rale Rasic.

The 2017 season will again see the National Premier Leagues benefit from the association with PlayStation4 with the powerhouse sponsor throwing its full support behind grassroots football in Australia.

"I've often been quoted as stating PlayStation's passion for football has always lived both on and off the field and it is true – whether it be literally by strapping on a pair of boots, or picking up a controller," commented Michael Ephraim, Managing Director, Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia.

"This year, we are celebrating three years of partnership with FFA and we're incredibly proud to see how the strength of our collaboration has contributed to the growth of the PS4 NPL into a true breeding ground of Australian football talent," Ephraim concluded.

Two special panels took place on the evening as the first took centre stage from all five NPL competitions with Rockdale City Suns' prized new signing Ante Covic, Sydney University inspirational captain Elizabeth Grey, Marconi Stallions' master midfielder Peter Triantis, Nepean FC's talented skipper Desiree Vassallo and charismatic Gladesville Ryde Magic's Kiriakos Tohouroglou all promoted the key role the NPL has played with the continual development of the world game in NSW.

The second panel saw the Central Coast Mariners' Blake Powell, a former Sutherland Sharks and APIA Leichhardt Tigers product, Sydney FC's Westfield W-League star and current Macarthur Rams player Leena Khamis as well as Western Sydney Wanderers' Lachlan Scott, a former Wollongong Wolves and APIA Leichhardt product, chat about their involvements with the NPL.

Football NSW interim Chief Executive Officer Stefan Kamasz stated that the event accomplished its intention in celebrating the launch of all PlayStation 4 National Premier Leagues NSW competitions.

"I'm thrilled to be able to enjoy the launch of this season with so many of those that champion this competition. The PS4 NPL in New South Wales is a very important part of the football landscape and player pathway in Australia, and in the room tonight are the heroes of our game that ensure it continues to be so.

"Season launches are wonderful occasions to come together socially and catch up with old friends, and even adversaries, but in football terms they are a time for optimism, for positivity, for anticipation, for expectation and hopefulness for the coming season.

"I would like to thank the league sponsors PlayStation4, especially Micahel Ephraim, who is not just a sponsor but a wonderful friend of football. Michael's enthusiasm for PlayStation4 and football is infectious and it is a delight having such an individual involved with our wonderful sport.

"I would like to wish all the clubs the best of luck and we look forward to seeing another NSW club being honoured as the National Premier League Champions following in the footsteps of Sydney United 58 FC (2013, 2016) and Blacktown City FC (2015)."

The PS4 NPL NSW Men's commences on Saturday the 11th of March as Sutherland Sharks host Manly United, Bonnyrigg White Eagles take on Sydney Olympic, Parramatta FC tackle Wollongong Wolves and the new kids on the block Sydney FC battle Rockdale City Suns. Two matches will then take shape on Sunday to conclude Round 1.

The PS4 National Premier Leagues 2 NSW Men's competition kicks off this Saturday the 4th of March while the PS4 National Premier Leagues Women's (Sunday 2nd April), Women's 2 (Sunday 9th April), and Men's 3 (Saturday 11th March) conclude the PS4 NPL competition openers in NSW.

Don't forget to tune in each and every Thursday's at 6pm, kicking off on Thursday 9th of March as a brand new show the PS4 NPL Live Show takes off hosted by Srine Demachkie.

MATCH PREVIEW

After suffering defeats in round one both APIA Leichhardt and Hakoah Sydney City East will be searching for their first points of the season when they meet at Lambert Park on Sunday afternoon.

A first half red card to Stephan Adattini saw APIA on the back foot in their 2-0 defeat to Sydney United 58 in round one but the Tigers were generally impressive prior to their captain's sending off with Samuel Gulisano and Matthew Barko enjoying several fine moments of attacking play in the final third.

Hakoah Sydney City East were comfortably second-best against Blacktown City in their 3-1 defeat with Satche Kolt netting a late consolation. They'll need a stronger performance against an APIA stocked with attacking potential.
