FROM THE CLUB

Blacktown City FC (BCFC) welcomes its members, supporters, families and players to our first home game of the 2017 season. We would also like to welcome Sutherland Sharks FC to our home ground Lily's Homes Stadium for today's 2nd round match.

There has been plenty of change on and off the field at BCFC during the off-season but one thing remains constant is our commitment to football with quality.

1st Grade Coach Mark Crittenden and his team have worked hard to assemble a strong squad again this year. Returning to the club is former 1st grade player Ken Chun and it is great to see Danny Choi 'back in black' from his recent A-League stint with Adelaide United. We also welcome James Andrew, Yuta Konagaya, Grant Lynch, Matt Symes and former junior Daniel Araujo to the 1st grade squad.

BCFC would like to pay special mention to our 2017 corporate partners:

- LBF Concrete
- Millars Doors & Timber
- Kennards Hire
- Astro Electrical

The club would like to invite you all to the Cocktail Lounge at Lilys Restaurant, Bar & Function Centre at the conclusion of the 1st grade match where we will be presenting our player of the match awards as well as an informal chat to the coaches on today's game.

Finally, best wishes to all our Senior, Youth and SAP teams that have been working hard during the off season.

MATCH PREVIEW

Blacktown City's 1-1 draw to Hakoah Sydney City East was the one of the biggest shocks of Round 1.

The PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's champions were caught off guard by a determined Hakoah side and were lucky defender Shayne D'Cunha scored in the final moments to rescue a last gasp draw.

Sutherland shouldn't expect the same early season jitters from City. Tomohiro Kajiyama was a standout performer for the Sharks last week in a losing side and will lead the charge against Blacktown.

Both teams like to play exciting football and feature players who can break a game open with a moment of brilliance.

Expect plenty of goals.

Hakoah Sydney City East 1-3 Blacktown City, 1.00pm at Hensley Athletic Field

Blacktown City began the season with a convincing 3-1 victory over Hakoah Sydney City East at Hensley Athletic Field.

City cruised to a three goal advantage courtesy of strikes from Lachlan Rose, Dan Machara and a Mason Ireland penalty before Hakoah's Satchel Kolt forced a consolation late on.

Hakoah will search for their first points of the campaign when they face APIA Leichhardt at Lambert Park next week while Blacktown head to Sutherland in an enticing encounter at Seymour Shaw.

Sutherland Sharks 5-2 Manly United, 4.30pm at Seymour Shaw

Sutherland Sharks 5-2 Manly United, 4.30pm at Seymour Shaw

Sutherland Sharks opened their 2017 account in style by putting five past Manly United at Seymour Shaw.

There were debut goals for Matthew Stewart, Jake Borromeo and Lachlan Everett as Sutherland put Manly to the sword with Patrick O'Shea and Matias Da Silva Santos completing the 5-2 rout.

Manly's Sipan Berti and Hamish Galbraith forced replies for the 2016 Premiers but it was a day to forget for United who begin the campaign at the foot of the table.

Sutherland will aim to build on their big victory when they host Blacktown City at Seymour Shaw next weekend while Manly United welcome Bonnyrigg to Cromer Park

FOOTBALL NSW LAUNCHES PLAYSTATION 4 NPL 2017 SEASON

The PlayStation®4 (PS4™) National Premier Leagues NSW 2017 Season was launched by Football NSW at Waterview in Bicentennial Park on Wednesday where media and representatives from the NPL community attended.

A cocktail function for 150 guests with Master of Ceremonies and Fox Sports' very own Simon Hill took control of proceedings which also included representatives from all Football NSW National Premier League Clubs, FFA, Hyundai A-League and W-League clubs, Major Sponsors, and Managing Director of Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia, Michael Ephraim, celebrated the fifth year of the National Premier Leagues in NSW.

There were also cameo appearances from a couple of ex-Socceroos with Paul Okon, Ante Covic, David Zdrilic and Gerry Gomez on hand to support the competition as well as former Socceroos coach from the famous 1974 World Cup squad, Rale Rasic.

The 2017 season will again see the National Premier Leagues benefit from the association with PlayStation4 with the powerhouse sponsor throwing its full support behind grassroots football in Australia.

"I've often been quoted as stating PlayStation's passion for football has always lived both on and off the field and it is true – whether it be literally by strapping on a pair of boots, or picking up a controller," commented Michael Ephraim, Managing Director, Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia.

"This year, we are celebrating three years of partnership with FFA and we're incredibly proud to see how the strength of our collaboration has contributed to the growth of the PS4 NPL into a true breeding ground of Australian football talent," Ephraim concluded.

Two special panels took place on the evening as the first took centre stage from all five NPL competitions with Rockdale City Suns' prized new signing Ante Covic, Sydney University inspirational captain Elizabeth Grey, Marconi Stallions' master midfielder Peter Triantis, Nepean FC's talented skipper Desiree Vassallo and charismatic Gladesville Ryde Magic's Kiriakos Tohouroglou all promoted the key role the NPL has played with the continual development of the world game in NSW.

The second panel saw the Central Coast Mariners' Blake Powell, a former Sutherland Sharks and APIA Leichhardt Tigers product, Sydney FC's Westfield W-League star and current Macarthur Rams player Leena Khamis as well as Western Sydney Wanderers' Lachlan Scott, a former Wollongong Wolves and APIA Leichhardt product, chat about their involvements with the NPL.

Football NSW interim Chief Executive Officer Stefan Kamasz stated that the event accomplished its intention in celebrating the launch of all PlayStation 4 National Premier Leagues NSW competitions.

"I'm thrilled to be able to enjoy the launch of this season with so many of those that champion this competition. The PS4 NPL in New South Wales is a very important part of the football landscape and player pathway in Australia, and in the room tonight are the heroes of our game that ensure it continues to be so.

"Season launches are wonderful occasions to come together socially and catch up with old friends, and even adversaries, but in football terms they are a time for optimism, for positivity, for anticipation, for expectation and hopefulness for the coming season.

"I would like to thank the league sponsors PlayStation4, especially Micahel Ephraim, who is not just a sponsor but a wonderful friend of football. Michael's enthusiasm for PlayStation4 and football is infectious and it is a delight having such an individual involved with our wonderful sport.

"I would like to wish all the clubs the best of luck and we look forward to seeing another NSW club being honoured as the National Premier League Champions following in the footsteps of Sydney United 58 FC (2013, 2016) and Blacktown City FC (2015)."

The PS4 NPL NSW Men's commences on Saturday the 11th of March as Sutherland Sharks host Manly United, Bonnyrigg White Eagles take on Sydney Olympic, Parramatta FC tackle Wollongong Wolves and the new kids on the block Sydney FC battle Rockdale City Suns. Two matches will then take shape on Sunday to conclude Round 1.

The PS4 National Premier Leagues 2 NSW Men's competition kicks off this Saturday the 4th of March while the PS4 National Premier Leagues Women's (Sunday 2nd April), Women's 2 (Sunday 9th April), and Men's 3 (Saturday 11th March) conclude the PS4 NPL competition openers in NSW.

Don't forget to tune in each and every Thursday's at 6pm, kicking off on Thursday 9th of March as a brand new show the PS4 NPL Live Show takes off hosted by Srine Demachkie.

MATCH PREVIEW

Two of the competition heavyweights face off at Lilys Football Centre on Saturday where second-placed Blacktown hosts leaders Sutherland in what is unquestionably the match of the round.

Nick Dimovski's Sutherland were the big victors from the opening round after hammering reigning Premiers Manly United 5-2 at Seymour Shaw and they will enter Saturday's match up full of confidence.

Blacktown City will relish being back at home after easily accounting for Hakoah Sydney City

East 3-1 at Hensley Athletic Field in their round one fixture. The 2015 champions have made sweeping changes to their roster with the likes of former Spirit FC attacker Lachlan Rose and talented forward Adolph Koudakpo sure to rest the resolve of the Sutherland defence.

The visitors boasted the steadiest defensive record last season, while Patrick O'Shea and Thomas Papa are consistent standouts in the Sutherland midfield. It's sure to be an entertaining contest in Saturday's lone fixture, one that could determine an early competition leader.
