FROM THE CLUB

Welcome to Bonnyrigg Sports Ground for the round three clash of the PlayStation 4 NPL NSW Men's competition.

The Bonnyrigg White Eagles welcome long time rivals and opponents Blacktown City in what will be a fantastic match.

The boys were unlucky not to come away with anything from last Sunday's match, going down to Manly United in an eight goal thriller. Bomber's boys will be raring to go in this one and get the first win on the board for 2017.

The White Eagles wish the Blacktown City players, staff and fans the best of luck in the 2017 season.

The Bonnyrigg White Eagles would like to thank its 2017 club sponsors as well as the loyal supporters who stick by the club year by year.

MATCH PREVIEW

It has been a tough start to the year for Bonnyrigg White Eagles. Brian Brown's squad has been faced with an injury crisis and two defeats from their first two games.

However, it's not all fire and brimstone for the White Eagles with the side displaying plenty of promise in last week's 3-5 loss to Manly.

This week they take on a Blacktown City side still finding its feet after an offseason exodus of players.

Mark Crittenden's side has a draw and a win from the opening rounds but has failed to truly impress.

Could Bonnyrigg finally find its feet against last season's Grand Final winners?

Manly United 5 - Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3 at Cromer Park

MANLY United is flying high in the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition, this time beating Bonnyrigg 5-3 on Sunday afternoon at Cromer Park.

In what was a pulsating encounter on the northern beaches, Warren Grieve's men had to come from behind early in the second half to secure back to back victories in a great start to their 2017 campaign.

Brendan Cholakian scored a double for Manly while Nikola Taneski, Dylan Macallister and Jamie Lobb also hit the back of the net for the home side.

Bonnyrigg's Greg Kondek opened the scoring and Troy Danaskos and Sam Gallaway also scored for the White Eagles, but it wasn't enough in a game with plenty of goals to keep the crowd entertained.

Blacktown City 2 - Sutherland Sharks 1 at Lily's Football Stadium

Daniel Araujo's brace has helped Blacktown City notch their first PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win of 2017 with a gritty 2-1 victory against Sutherland Sharks.

The former Sydney FC man struck shortly before the interval at Lily's Football Stadium, and then again fifteen minutes before full-time, to claim the three points for the reigning champions who overpowered Sutherland in a dominant second-half.

Although Carlos Villazon's side forced an excellent equaliser through Tomihiro Kajiyama, Blacktown's failure to capitalise on there chances held back the home side. Sharks goalkeeper Nathan Denham was in fine form with a string of fine saves to hold City at bay.

Instead, Sutherland were made to pay for allowing Araujo, who had earlier opened the scoring by hammering home a loose ball in the area, to drift into the penalty box unmarked late in the second half and guide Danny Choi's cross into the ground and over Denham for the winner.

DEBUT RISING STAR

Debuting at the age of 16 in any league across the world is a massive deal and achievement for both player and club.

On Saturday night, Luke Ivanovic had that honour, taking the field for the Bonnyrigg White Eagles' round 1 against Sydney Olympic.

The call to warm up didn't disrupt his preparations, or raise any nerves for the youngster who just focused on the job at hand.

"When the coaches told me to warm up, they said I was going on in the second half", Ivanovic said.

"Throughout the warm up I was just focusing on the roll I was going to play and how I could benefit the team."

Ivanovic, currently a year 11 at Westfields Sports High, indeed had his number called at half time as he took to the field at the Bonnyrigg Sports Ground with the home side trailing two goals to nil.

With possibly the two most experienced coaches in the PS4 NPL NSW Men's competition, Brian Brown and Cliff Pointer, possibly one of the youngest players to ever take the field in the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition had all the support he needed.

"Before I went on, Cliff just told me to play the game I usually play and to go and enjoy it.

"Debuting for the first team was a great feeling, I've been working hard for this opportunity to come and I'll continue to keep working harder to try and fight for a spot in the team.

"I'm just really glad the coaches gave me an opportunity."

Coming through the youth program at the White Eagles, it was only a matter of time the potent attacker would be given his chance at first grade football.

Last season the youngster was registered in the under 16's squad but saw him back up for the under 20's team for most games throughout the season, scoring prolifically in both grades.

"I started performing well for the 16's under Ray Mandic before the 20's coach Steve Sigmund called me halfway through the year and asked me to play 20s.

"I was stoked, missing the 18's to play 20s was a big step up. I was glad to be a part of the 20's team for the rest of the year but now training and playing with first grade is an even better feeling."

With various injuries in the White Eagles' first team squad, it was Ivanovic's opportunity to take.

"Training with the first-grade team requires a lot of quicker decisions and it's been great for my football development."

Brian 'Bomber' Brown praised the youngster in the past and spoke of his remarkable talent and that even a possible Socceroos call up looms for him in the future if he continues to work hard.

The belief from the coaching staff at the club has helped Ivanovic grow as a footballer and he is grateful for the opportunity.

"I couldn't thank the coaches enough for the opportunity they have given me through out last year and this year."

Ivanovic's future goals are much centred around this season and the most important thing for him is to continue his development at the White Eagles.

"I want to help my under 20's team go as far as possible into the finals and to also play the best football for my school Westfields Sports High School.

"Also, to be a big part of the first-grade team when given the opportunity."

The club has seen the likes of Martin Lo, Asmir Kadric, Taylor McDonald and Leon Farrier come through the ranks with Ivanovic joining the latest batch of rising youngsters at the club.

MATCH PREVIEW

These two traditional heavyweights have started the 2017 campaign in indifferent fashion with Blacktown suffering one loss and one win, while Bonnyrigg have been defeated twice, conceding seven goals and scoring one in the process.

It therefore shapes up as a big game for two sides aiming for top five finishes. Blacktown City were beaten 8-0 by Bonnyrigg White Eagles last season in what was one of the standout fixtures of last campaign, and remaining members of the Blacktown squad will no doubt be fixed on banishing those memories when they arrive at Bonnyrigg Sports Club on Saturday evening.

The hosts will be without suspended key arrival Alex Mooy after the former Spartans midfielder picked up a red card against Manly United last week.
