FROM THE CLUB

Welcome to Bonnyrigg Sports Ground for the round 17 clash of the PlayStation 4 NPL NSW Men's competition.

The Bonnyrigg White Eagles welcome Hakoah Sydney City East to Bonnyrigg.

After a great improvement in form, Ray Miller and the boys will be looking to build on this.

It will be the last game for club legend Nikola Zonjic as he takes a long earned holiday. The White Eagles board and fans would like to thank the star for coming back and helping the club get through a tough period.

The White Eagles wish the Hakoah SCE players, staff and fans the best of luck for the remainder of the 2017 season.

The Bonnyrigg White Eagles would like to thank its 2017 club sponsors as well as the loyal supporters who stick by the club year by year.

MATCH PREVIEW

Bonnyrigg White Eagles will hope to build on their strong performance last round when they host Hakoah Sydney City East FC on Saturday.

Brian Brown's side took a point away from their torrid encounter with fierce rivals Sydney United 58 FC after the match finished 0-0.

While their clash this round against Hakoah may lack the same derby passion, don't expect the White Eagles to take the game lightly.

Bonnyrigg has been working towards a strong close to the season and last week's result was proof they have come along way from their horror opening to the campaign.

Hakoah claimed an incredible come from behind victory against Sutherland Sharks last week scoring four second half goals, including three in six minutes.

They will be high on confidence for this clash and will want to make it two wins on the trot.

Hakoah are a hard team to break down and will be favourites for this clash, however don't write off Bonnyrigg who are always tough to beat at home.

REVIEWS

Bonnyrigg White Eagles FC 0 - Sydney United 58 0 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

It was a tight local derby at Bonnyrigg Sports Ground on Sunday afternoon as the Bonnyrigg White Eagles and Sydney United 58 FC played out an entertaining 0-0 draw in the PlayStation 4 NPL NSW men's competition.

Both teams were missing influential midfielders with Mun-Soo Gil a late withdrawal for the home side while captain Nick Stavroulakis was missing for United but Mark Rudan's side did give debuts to former Central Coast Mariners defender Michael Neill while ex-Marconi Stallions player Sam Perre made an appearance off the bench.

Chances were more evident in the second half with Chris Payne hitting the post while Hassan Jalloh went close on numerous occasions with the points being shared as Kurt Ams blew his whistle for full time.

Hakoah Sydney City East FC 4 - Sutherland Sharks 1 at Hensley Athletic Field

Hakoah Sydney City East fought back from a goal down to storm to a 4-1 win over Sutherland Sharks during their PlayStation@4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Round 16 clash at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday afternoon.

Hakoah scored and incredible three goals in the last six minutes of the second half helping the home side to an outstanding win.

Sutherland's Patrick O'Shea opened the scoring early in the first half, giving the visitors the lead at the break, but Hakoah came out strong in the second half to put four on their opponents, with substitute Jablonski chipping in with a double while Andre De Jong and Anthony Frangie also found the back of the net.

MATCH PREVIEW

The competition's in-form team Bonnyrigg entertain a Hakoah Sydney City East outfit fresh from an upset win over leaders Sutherland on Saturday night in Bonnyrigg with both teams eyeing off a top five position.

The White Eagles defeated rivals Sydney United 58 in last Saturday's encounter to claim their sixth consecutive victory and move within striking distance of fifth-placed Sydney Olympic.

Hakoah Sydney City East are level on points with the resurgent Bonnyrigg team with a confidence boosting win over Sutherland last weekend sure to give the visitors belief they could pull off another shock this Saturday. Forward Connor Eldridge netted his ninth goal of the competition in round sixteen's win and will be the main outlet for Paul Hubbard's side.

The visitors may well fancy their chances against Bonnyrigg who despite their superb run of form are not imperious at the back – the White Eagles have improved significantly from their disastrous start to the year but could be at risk of slipping down against a Hakoah team capable of producing upsets.
