MATCH PREVIEW

Brian Brown's Bonnyrigg White Eagles have slowly started to find their feet in recent weeks and will be out to build on their recent form when they host strugglers Parramatta FC.

Hasan Jalloh has been a revelation for the White Eagles and the young gun striker will be relied upon once again to be the primary source of goals for Bonnyrigg while look for the defensive efforts of Sam Gallaway who has been impressive in the last couple of weeks.

The return of veteran goalkeeper James Chronopoulos from injury has given the White Eagles a much needed boost and they will only get stronger as their other stars are removed from the injured list.

Parramatta FC on the other hand is in desperate need of a win with relegation fears starting to creep in around the club.

With twelve weeks left to play this season, the time is now to make a stand and they will rely heavily on the combination of the Sama brothers Gosue and Marco who will do what they can to grab their club the three precious points.

Huge match across all grades for Club Championship points as well, rest assured, Bonnyrigg Sports Club will be a tense atmosphere on Saturday evening.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3 - Sydney FC 3 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

Hasan Jalloh has helped Bonnyrigg White Eagles snatch a last gasp 3-3 draw in their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash against Sydney FC at Bonnyrigg Sports Centre on Saturday.

Jalloh's 88th minute strike was the final twist in a see-sawing game which featured Bonnyrigg fighting back after trailing Sydney FC on three separate occasions.

The young Sky Blues would've felt they'd done enough when Charles Lokolingoy put his side ahead in the 82nd minute to make it 3-2 after earlier goals from Will Mutch and Bai Antoniou.

However it wasn't to be as the White Eagles rallied through goals from Martin Lo and Jalloh's incredible second half double.

Sutherland Sharks FC 3 - Parramatta FC 1 at Seymour Shaw

Grant Lee has notched his first PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win as Sutherland Sharks coach with a dominant 3-1 victory over Parramatta FC at Seymour Shaw on Saturday night.

A double to Tomohiro Kajiyama and a sublime header from Jeremy Cox was enough for the Sharks.

While a late consolation goal from Parramatta's Gio Cerasoli ruined the home side's clean sheet, the result was enough to secure a second win in three games for Sutherland.

MATCH PREVIEW

A crucial match at the bottom of the table will see Bonnyrigg White Eagles host Parramatta on Saturday evening with both sides needing a win to kick-start their campaign.

Visitors Parramatta are hoping to avoid a sixth consecutive defeat and one that would see Bonnyrigg leapfrog them on the competition ladder, while the White Eagles are coming off the back of a 6-0 defeat at home to Sydney FC.

With ten rounds already complete both sides have work to do to get their season back on track and will no doubt be keenly eyeing off a big three points on offer in the context of the club championship race.

The chance to leapfrog the opposition off the bottom of the competition ladder should give the White Eagles plenty of motivation as Hamish Brown's side aim for just their second win of the season, but Parramatta put in an improved display against competition leaders Sutherland in round ten and will arrive at Bonnyrigg Sports Club desperate to arrest their run of form.

JALLOH BREAKING HEADLINES AT WHITE EAGLES

Amongst a tough start to 2017 for the Bonnyrigg White Eagles Football Club, young talisman Hassan Jalloh is becoming arguably the find of the season.

After a stellar start to his career within the PlayStation4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition, Jalloh, currently eighteen, has already notched up seven goals in his first ten appearances.

After spending the last three seasons with both Blacktown Spartans Football Club and Bankstown City Lions Football Club, Jalloh received an offer that was too good to knock back for the aspiring striker.

"At the end of last year I had a few offers from clubs in Sydney but it was Bonnyrigg that offered me a first grade contract. To be eighteen and offered that was something special, so I knew I had to sign there.

"At the start of the season I played in the under 20's but was soon given my chance in the first grade squad.

"It was a chance I took with both hands."

After making his first appearance off the bench against Sydney Olympic, Jalloh has been one of the first names on Brian Brown's team sheet each week.

With his quick turn of speed and keen eye for goal, seeing Jalloh's name on the score sheet is becoming something of a sure thing of late for a club who has struggled in the early stages of the season.

A pressure Jalloh believes has had a positive impact on his game after taking over from club legend and all-time leading goalscorer Robbie Younis as well as the recent long term injury loss of striker Aaron Peterson.

"I feel the pressure every week.

"I have heard and know about what Robbie did here but I'm just focusing on being me and scoring goals each week.

"I think the pressure to perform and pick up points makes me hungrier to score goals and help the team out."

For Jalloh, football means absolutely everything as his aims to make it his full-time profession in the future.

With this he understands he must perform each week and credits his set habits that have been putting him in great stead so far this season.

"I've been focusing a lot on looking after my body.

"I have started taking care of it before and after every training session and game.

"Eating the right foods as well focusing on my upcoming matches has allowed me to be in great shape come kick off.

"Every game is a grand final for me. I never know who could be watching so I'll be looking to continue my form.

"As a team I don't think we've been playing badly at all. We have had a few injuries and at times been unlucky which has cost us some points.

"We have continued to train and play hard each week and I think in time we will start to get the results.

"We just have to be patient and take it one week at a time."
