FROM THE CLUB

Dear players, sponsors, parents and fans,

We're still on a high after last week's epic win versus Sydney United in the First Grade! But the action wasn't all in the seniors, with the 14s continuing their unbeaten start to the year, drawing 1-1 against a very strong Sutherland Sharks side, and the big story there was stand in goalkeeper Ethan Corrick saving two penalties! The 15s also continued their incredible form with a very impressive 2-1 win, with the future bright for these boys. The 13s and 16s had a tough day but will bounce back we're sure!

In the seniors, the 18s drew 1-1 and continue to show signs of the team that took out the Grand Final last year, while the 20s were extremely unlucky to lose 1-0 with a late goal, having dominated proceedings and with two gilt edged chances to take the lead.

The First Grade team put in the performance of the season so far, winning 3-2 in a free flowing and entertaining match. Andre De Jong was pulling the strings in midfield and opened the scoring after a phenomenal assist from Jack Green on his starting debut. Sharp shooter Alek Lekoski put us 2-1 in front at half time and then at 2-2 home grown talent Robbie Ezekiel scored the winner from a wide free kick. As always, the highlight was an overflowing change room as the juniors joined in singing the famous Hakoah FC team song.

It doesn't get any easier, with the Seniors hosting unbeaten Rockdale City Suns at Hensley Athletic Field tonight, and the Juniors hosting Bonnyrigg White Eagles, while we wish SAP all the best as they look to get underway after a rain-delayed start. We look forward to another successful and enjoyable weekend of football!

Also please remember that our home match versus Sydney FC at 5pm on Sunday 30 April is Fan Day, so make sure you plan to get along and more info to come!

MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East supporters have plenty to smile about going from the performance of their side so far this season.

A win against reigning PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues national champion Sydney United 58 and a draw against PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's champions Blacktown City has given Gavin Rae's side plenty of confidence.

This week they hope to claim the scalp of the undefeated Rockdale City Suns when they host Paul Reid's side on Saturday night.

So far this season Rockdale City Suns has given little reason to doubt them as competition favourites despite a number of hurdles, including postponed matches and injuries to key players, getting in their way.

The Suns has the upper hand going into the match but as they have shown so far this season, Hakoah will be determined to spring an upset.

Hakoah Sydney City East 3 - Sydney United 58 2 at Hensley Athletic Field

Hakoah Sydney City East has inflicted more misery on reigning PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues Premiers Sydney United 58 defeating the 10-man Reds 3-2 in a feisty encounter at Hensley Athletic Field.

Robert Ezekiel's free-kick proved to be the winner for Gavin Rae's side, who had twice seen their lead pegged back by goals from Yutaro Shin and Panny Nikas.

Hakoah had earlier opened the scoring through Andre De Jong and cancelled out Shin's equaliser late in the first half when Alexander Lekoski pounced expertly and finished with aplomb.

Sydney United 58 skipper Nick Stavroulakis, who was making his first appearance of the campaign after struggling with a calf injury, received his marching orders midway through the second half for his second bookable offence and the hosts took immediate advantage.

The defeat is United 58's third consecutive and second in four days having been defeated 2-1 by Rockdale City Suns on Wednesday evening.

PS4 NPL NSW WOMEN'S SEASON PREVIEW

After months of hard work on the training pitch, the PlayStation® 4 National Premier Leagues NSW Women's competition finally kicks off this Sunday.

Heather Garriock's Sydney University swept all before them last season, taking out the treble in the Preseason Cup, Premiership and Championship.

It's started much the same way for the 'Yellow and Blues', taking the first piece of silverware in 2017, winning the Preseason Cup for the second consecutive year.

Many teams look set to challenge them this year and one team that will be looking for revenge will be the North West Sydney Koalas, who played the 'bridesmaid' to the Champions last year.

The Northern Tigers are the new girls on the block and they'll have something to prove as they attempt to consolidate themselves in the state's top league.

Round 1 Preview

Charles Bean Sportsground will see the new girls on the block Northern Tigers entertain the Blacktown Spartans, JJ Kelly Park will play host to the Illawarra Stingrays taking on Sydney University. Lake Macquarie Regional Facility will feature the Emerging Jets clash with the Football NSW Institute, Macarthur Rams face Manly United at Lynwood Park while Northbridge Oval will see the North Shore Mariners take on the North West Sydney Womens Koalas.

The coverage kicks off this Thursday as Football NSW's Facebook LIVE show, commencing at 6pm, will feature two stars of the female game with Sydney University's Evelyn Chronis and North West Sydney Womens Koalas' Nat Tobin in the studio talking about their up and coming year amongst a whole host of other topics - Don't miss this and be sure to log onto the PS4 NPL NSW Facebook page on Thursday at 6pm to view the special feature.

MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East are hoping to bounce back from their 1-0 defeat at the hands of Sydney United 58 in round three when they host Rockdale City Suns at Hensley Athletic Field in Saturday's other fixture.

Hakoah struggled to test to the Reds in their scrappy 1-0 defeat and will be hoping for a response at home against Rockdale, which presents an excellent opportunity to get back amongst the winners circle.

After a disruptive start to the 2017 campaign, which has seen two fixtures against Parramatta and Sydney United 58 postponed, the Suns are yet to get up and running and lie in tenth position on the competition ladder.

But the Ilinden Sports Centre outfit will take plenty of heart from their round one display against Sydney FC in which they were more than competitive, and with Hakoah themselves showing signs of vulnerability, Rockdale will hope to leave Hensley Athletic Field with their first points of the season.
