FROM THE CLUB

Dear players, sponsors, parents and fans,
It's been an exciting couple of weeks for Hakoah FC!

The SAP boys have been on fire this year, putting in wonderful team performances, improving weekly and scoring some cracking goals! Even the gruelling trip to the South Coast was not enough to deter their enthusiasm, with the 11s putting in their best performance of the season, led by Sacks and Mezei running the show in the middle and releasing the attacking threats of Farhy, Von Jonquires and Rubinstein. The other SAP teams also performed strongly on the long trip down to the South Coast!

The Juniors continue to perform admirably, with the 13s and 16s remaining focused and dedicated and with the results sure to follow, while the 14s have only been beaten once this season and have put in incredible defensive showings week after week. The 15s continue to play scintillating football and ran away 3-1 winners away to Sydney FC in one of best performances from a Hakoah FC junior team. Plenty of boys across the juniors to watch for the future!

In the seniors the 18s have been unable to recapture the consistency of 2016, but still show promise to return to their championship form, and will continue to work hard to get there. The 20s were very unlucky to lose against Wollongong and remain one of the teams to beat in their competition, with a few of the boys stepping up to the First Grade for the Cup matches and showing they are up to the challenge.

The First Grade have put in a couple of amazing comebacks recently, clawing back from 3-0 down to draw 3-3 versus Bonnyrigg and running away 6-1 winners in extra time in the Cup match versus Inter Lions after trailing 1-0. However, despite a strong second half showing they were however unable to come back from 2-0 down to Wollongong and will be looking to return to the winners circle this weekend, particularly following the strong Cup win on ANZAC Day versus Manly United.

Today's match is our first competitive seniors match against the promoted Sydney FC team, and we welcome coach Robbie Stanton and his team to Hensley for the first time. With our SAP boys playing beforehand we hope that it will be a wonderful day for Hakoah FC as a club, and that the juniors will join our first Grade players in singing the team song at the end of the match!

MATCH PREVIEW

A return to the familiar surrounds of Hensley Athletic field could spur Hakoah Sydney City East to another win when they host Sydney FC.

Player coach Gavin Rae's Hakoah team will be reeling after a difficult trip to Wollongong and a 2-0 loss to the Wollongong Wolves. A win against Sydney FC will put the eastern suburbs boys back on track for a shot at the top five.

Andre De Jong's return to the Hakoah line-up has boosted the side's attack while Aleks Lekoski has also impressed.

Sydney FC conceded four goals in a one sided affair at Lambert park last round as they were defeated 4-0 by Sydney United 58.

The young Sky Blues need a morale booster and nothing is more effective than a win. It will be a tight affair with both teams evenly matched.

REVIEWS

Wollongong Wolves 2 - Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves has returned to the winners circle with a 2-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win against Hakoah Sydney City East at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

First half goals to Peter Simonoski and former Japan international Yuzo Tashiro were the difference as Wollongong claimed their third win of the season.

The result was a crash back to reality for Hakoah after a run of strong results.

Wollongong move to seventh on the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition ladder after the win, two spots out of finals contention.

Sydney FC 0 - Sydney United 58 4 at Lambert Park

Sydney United 58 FC has recorded a commanding 4-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win against Sydney FC at Lambert Park on Saturday night.

A double in each half helped the visitors to another three competition points with Peter Markovic and Matt Sim finding the back of the net as well as Nick Olsen who scored a brace.

The win is the fourth straight for Sydney United 58 who have rediscovered their mojo after the return of Mark Rudan as head coach.

MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East sit just outside of the top six place on goal difference ahead of their round 8 matchup with Sydney FC; level with sixth-placed APIA Leichhardt Tigers on ten points. Sydney FC, meanwhile, come into round 8 after a 1-1 draw with Sydney United 58 at Lambert Park, a result which stretched the visitors' winless run to three games but moved them up a spot to fourth, eight points off the top spot.

This will be the first time these two sides have faced each other in the Playstation®4 NPL NSW Men's U20s competition; a match which would see the winner head into the next round of fixtures above the loser on the league table.
