FROM THE CLUB

Hello and welcome to Cromer Park, players and supporters from APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

In what promises to be an enticing Saturday evening clash on the Northern Beaches, both teams will be desperate to secure three points.

Warren Grieve's Manly United squad need to bounce back following their 3-2 defeat last Saturday versus Blacktown City FC.

APIA also tasted defeat, with Sydney Olympic snaring three points in a 2-1 triumph at Lambert Park.

Sasa Macura is United's player to watch today.

The defensive midfielder never has a bad game, and has started 2017 in vintage form.

Also look for Nikola Taneski to have a big 90 minutes.

He was impressive last start at Lilys Football Centre in Seven Hills, and has added some real quality in the final third after joining the club in the off-season.

See you at the game, with kick-off at 7pm.

Go you mighty Manly United FC!

MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United's premiership credentials go on the line this week when APIA Leichhardt Tigers come to Cromer Park.

The boys from the Northern Beaches have dropped out of the top five for the first time this season after a loss to Blacktown City FC and anything less than a win could see them fall dangerously behind in a tight race for a spot in the finals.

Warren Grieve's team has been one of the most dangerous in attack scoring 20 goals from their eight matches. However, they will be up against the league's second best defence in APIA Leichhardt who have shipped only eight goals in eight games.

APIA will also be out for a bounce back performance after falling to Sydney Olympic FC last round.

The defeat allowed Rockdale City Suns and Blacktown to leapfrog them on the table.

With so much on the line in this match, neither side will give anything less than their best.

REVIEWS

Blacktown City FC 3 - Manly United FC 2 at Lily's Football Stadium

Blacktown City survived a late scare against Manly United to edge fellow championship hopefuls Manly United FC 3-2 at Lily's Football Centre on Saturday evening.

It was one way traffic after 80 minutes for the hosts with a brace from star Danny Choi and a goal from substitute James Andrew sending Mark Crittenden's side heading toward a comfortable victory.

But late consolation goals from Nikola Taneski and Travis Oughtred sliced Blacktown City's advantage and added a sheen of respectability to the score line the visitors had scarcely merited prior to their fightback.

Although the visitors were handicapped by the unfortunate late withdrawal of Matthew Fletcher, who was replaced by Taneski in the matches opening moments after a nasty collision with the fence, Warren Grieve's side could only manage a handful of shots en route to their consecutive third match without a win.

The win means Blacktown City remain undefeated this season after eight rounds and now sit in second position on the ladder behind only on goal difference with leaders Rockdale City Suns.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 - Sydney Olympic FC 2 at Lambert Park

Sydney Olympic has bounced back from the sudden resignation of coach to deliver an inspired 2-1 win against PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition leaders APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park on Sunday.

The sudden departure of Portuguese head coach Jaime Monroy proved no distraction for the visitors as they notched their fifth win of the season in impressive style.

Olympic gave their travelling fans a performance to be proud of as they raced out of the block with Yu Kuboki and Radovan Pavicevic finding the net during the first half.

APIA struggled to find their way into the way during what was a lethargic performance from Danial Cummins' top of the table side. A late goal from tricky winger Corey Bizco proved to be a mere consolation for the home side as they suffered only their second defeat of the season.

MATCH PREVIEW

Reigning premiers Manly United have picked up just two points from an available fifteen in their last five matches and a 1-0 loss against Blacktown City last weekend sees the Cromer Park side enter round nine in ninth position.

It's a run of form the competition heavyweights will need to overturn sooner rather than later – but they will need to muster their best performance of the season when they go toe to toe with a flying APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Michael Urukalo's side started the 2017 campaign with three straight losses but since then, APIA have been in sensational goalscoring form, netting a total of twenty one in their last five encounters. Competition golden boot leader Aedon Kyra and former Western Sydney youth Jordan Morfitis have eight and five goals to their name respectively and will be hoping to fill their boots yet again against a struggling Manly side to lift themselves further up the table.
