FROM THE CLUB

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park, players and supporters from Sydney FC.

In what promises to be an enticing round four Sunday afternoon clash on the northern beaches, both teams will be desperate to secure three points.

Warren Grieve's Manly United have started their 2017 campaign in red hot form.

Last Sunday they drew 1-1 with Wollongong at WIN Stadium, in what was a quality team performance.

Sydney FC have endured a tough start to the year following their promotion, but it seems to be a matter of time before they click into gear.

Any team coached by Robbie Stanton is always tough to beat.

Brendan Cholakian is United's player to watch this week.

He was on the score sheet against the Wolves, and is a constant attacking menace with the ball at his feet.

Also look for Dylan Macallister to razzle up front.

He has fit in well after joining the club in the off-season from Rockdale, and would love to add to his growing goal tally following early efforts versus Sutherland and Bonnyrigg.

See you at the game, with kick-off at 3pm.

Go you mighty Manly United FC!

MATCH PREVIEW

The departure of head coach and club favourite Paul Dee has failed to break Manly United's stride so far this season and the Northern Beaches club will set out to continue its impressive start with a win against competition young guns Sydney FC.

A 1-1 draw with Wollongong Wolves last round at WIN Stadium ensured Manly remained undefeated with captain Brendan Cholakian a shining light for the visitors.

Sydney FC is sure to present an interesting challenge for United with the pacy sky blues likely to stretch the manly defence.

Expect plenty of goals to be on offer with both teams able to find the back of the net with ease.

REVIEWS

Wollongong Wolves 1 - Manly United FC 1 at Win Stadium

Brendan Cholakian snatched a point for Manly United in a hard fought 1-1 draw with Wollongong Wolves during their PlayStation4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

Cholakian's well-placed header at the 60-minute mark capped an industrious fightback from Manly after former Japanese international Yuzo Tashiro gave the hosts the lead only ten minutes earlier.

The result maintained Manly United's unbeaten start to the season with two wins and a draw from their opening three matches.

It wasn't the homecoming Wolves fans were looking for in their side's first game at WIN Stadium for the season but Tashiro's goal at least gave them something to smile about.

Sydney FC 0 - Sydney Olympic 1 at Lambert Park

A late Max Burgess goal helped Sydney Olympic to a 1-0 win all three points against Sydney FC and his old club at Lambert Park on Saturday.

Burgess' 85th minute strike provided the visitors with a hard-earned breakthrough and their third win from as many matches.

For Sydney FC it was another case of close but not close enough as Robbie Stanton's side fell narrowly short of a maiden PlayStation@4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win.

PS4 NPL NSW WOMEN'S SEASON PREVIEW

After months of hard work on the training pitch, the PlayStation® 4 National Premier Leagues NSW Women's competition finally kicks off this Sunday.

Heather Garriock's Sydney University swept all before them last season, taking out the treble in the Preseason Cup, Premiership and Championship.

It's started much the same way for the 'Yellow and Blues', taking the first piece of silverware in 2017, winning the Preseason Cup for the second consecutive year.

Many teams look set to challenge them this year and one team that will be looking for revenge will be the North West Sydney Koalas, who played the 'bridesmaid' to the Champions last year.

The Northern Tigers are the new girls on the block and they'll have something to prove as they attempt to consolidate themselves in the state's top league.

Round 1 Preview

Charles Bean Sportsground will see the new girls on the block Northern Tigers entertain the Blacktown Spartans, JJ Kelly Park will play host to the Illawarra Stingrays taking on Sydney University. Lake Macquarie Regional Facility will feature the Emerging Jets clash with the Football NSW Institute, Macarthur Rams face Manly United at Lynwood Park while Northbridge Oval will see the North Shore Mariners take on the North West Sydney Womens Koalas.

The coverage kicks off this Thursday as Football NSW's Facebook LIVE show, commencing at 6pm, will feature two stars of the female game with Sydney University's Evelyn Chronis and North West Sydney Womens Koalas' Nat Tobin in the studio talking about their up and coming year amongst a whole host of other topics - Don't miss this and be sure to log onto the PS4 NPL NSW Facebook page on Thursday at 6pm to view the special feature.

MATCH PREVIEW

The Sky Blues were given their first taste of defeat this season after going down 2-1 to Sydney Olympic last weekend and David Zdrilic's side face another tricky assignment on Sunday when they travel to Cromer Park to take on a resurgent Manly United side.

Last year's Premiers have looked impressive after their opening day defeat to Sutherland with a 4-0 win over Bonnyrigg and 3-1 victory over Wollongong Wolves bringing Manly up to third on the competition ladder.

George Firth, Sipan Berti and Sheldon Tweedie have all been in fine goal scoring touch for United over the past fortnight with the former grabbing a brace in last weekend's triumph over Wollongong and with the side netting seven in their past two appearances Sydney FC will have to be wary.
