FROM THE CLUB

Good afternoon and welcome to Cromer Park, players and supporters from Sydney Olympic FC.

In what promises to be an enticing Good Friday clash on the northern beaches, both teams will be desperate to secure three points.

Warren Grieve's Manly United squad are flying high at the top of the PS4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition after five rounds.

Last Sunday they impressed again, outclassing Parramatta FC 3-1 at Melita Stadium.

Scott Balderson is United's player to watch today.

He has started 2017 in vintage form, with cracking goals against Sutherland and Parramatta FC already season highlights.

The fact he played for Olympic a couple of years ago will ensure he has an extra spring in his step, as will defender Leigh Egger.

Sydney Olympic FC are a class outfit, and also remain unbeaten this year following their entertaining 2-2 draw with Rockdale last round.

See you at the game, with kick-off at 5pm.

MATCH PREVIEW

The departure of longtime coach Paul Dee has failed to slow Manly United down this season with interim boss Wayne Grieve and his boys from the Northern Beaches flying high at the top of the table after five rounds.

This week Grieve's unbeaten Manly team returns home to take on Sydney Olympic who are also yet to suffer defeat.

Manly has been an attacking powerhouse scoring a league leading 15 goals and will be out to add to that tally in front of their Cromer Park home crowd on Good Friday.

Sydney Olympic FC, under the tutelage of new gaffer Jamie Monroy, has adopted a slick passing style this season and they should pose solid opposition to the competition leaders.

Olympic like to starve the opposition of possession by linking long passing moves, but if Manly can break their opposition's momentum early it could be a tough day at the office for the visitors.

REVIEWS

Parramatta FC 1 - Manly United FC 3 at Melita Stadium

Manly United FC continued their unbeaten run to start the season with a 3-1 PlayStation 4 National Premier League NSW Men's victory against Parramatta FC at Melita Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

A first half goal from Scott Balderson along with second half strikes from Dejan Pandurevic and Brendan Cholakian was the difference as Manly secured all three points.

Daniel Rezo found the back of the net for Parramatta but it wasn't enough for the home side to build on their draw against Sydney Olympic last round.

Rockdale City Suns 2 - Sydney Olympic 2 at Ilinden Sports Centre

An 82nd minute goal from Yu Kuboki has helped Sydney Olympic FC clinch a 2-2 draw with Rockdale City Suns at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

The result ensured both team's maintain their unbeaten start to the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition after five rounds.

Young midfielder Max Burgess' first minute goal was the perfect start for Olympic but goals to Jordan Figon and Alec Urosevski had Rockdale with the upper hand going into the final stages of the match.

However, Kuboki was able to make up for an earlier missed penalty to ensure the Jamie Monroy coached side snagged a vital competition point during what was an entertaining clash.

MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United and Sydney Olympic clash at Cromer Park on Saturday afternoon in a replay of last season's grand final, a match won on penalties by Olympic after the two sides played out a 1-1 draw. Olympic travel to Cromer Park three points ahead of their hosts after round five, in which they were held to a 0-0 draw away to Rockdale City Suns. Manly, meanwhile, return home after a 2-2 draw against Parramatta saw them remain in ninth place coming into the sixth round of matches. A tight encounter seems an inevitability.
