MATCH PREVIEW

Parramatta FC will be hoping to pull off the upset of the season when they host Blacktown City FC at Melita Stadium on Sunday.

Parramatta's campaign has gone from bad to worse in 2017 but a win against an all conquering Blacktown team would give Marshall Soper's team something to look back on fondly at seasons end.

Blacktown has lost only one game all season and are only getting better at the tail end of the season.

Joey Gibbs, Mitch Mallia and James Andrew have been three of the league's best attacking players and will be out to continue their run of form.

Blacktown will be favourites but anything can happen in football.

REVIEWS

Manly United FC 2 - Parramatta FC 0 at Cromer Park

It wasn't pretty, but it was job done for Manly United in Saturday night's 2-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition victory against Parramatta FC at Cromer Park.

Dejan Pandurevic's 23rd minute strike and a 85th minute goal to veteran striker Dylan Macallister was the difference as Manly kept its finals hopes alive with a much needed win.

The away side toiled from start to finish, but at times were chasing shadows with the gulf in class between the two squads obvious.

In the end Manly were just too good as the visitors slumped to a 15th straight game without a win.

Blacktown City FC 3 - Sydney FC 1 at Lily's Football Centre

A Joey Gibbs double helped Blacktown City maintain their lead at the top after the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition with a 3-1 win against Sydney FC at Lily's Football Centre on Sunday afternoon.

Gibbs opened the scoring early on after steering home a simple tap in and claimed his brace and Blacktown's third five minutes into the second half with a similarly easy finish at the back post.

Sydney FC had earlier restored parity midway through the first half thanks to a superb Charles Lokolingoy effort but a Mitch Mallia strike on the cusp of half time proved a crucial blow to the Sky Blues who were unable to prevent the hosts from a fifth consecutive win.

Robert Stanton's side enjoyed decent spells throughout the match against a heavily rotated Blacktown City outfit but were undone by the ruthlessness of City's forwards with Mallia and Gibbs in particularly lethal form.

MATCH PREVIEW

It's looking lonely at the bottom for Parramatta who are ten points adrift of eleventh placed Manly as a result of their 2-0 defeat to the reigning premiers last Saturday, a match that saw the Melita Stadium outfit lose their tenth consecutive match.

The Eagles will have it all to do in order to reverse their fortunes with in-form Blacktown City arriving on Sunday afternoon. John Carnevale's side are two points behind first-placed Sutherland coming into the encounter and with the Sharks pitted against a dangerous Hakoah side on the same afternoon City could go top with three points.

Blacktown midfielder Mason Ireland continued his fine season in last week's draw against Sydney in scoring his ninth goal of the season – the Parramatta rear-guard will need to marshal to elusive attacker carefully while front man Samuel Hamilton also remains a threat.

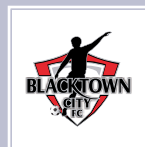

Opponents Parramatta have endured a tough campaign and appear destined to finish bottom of the competition table. The Eagles have scored just 13 goals and if City opt to continue recent Southern Districts arrival Tomislav Romic between the posts it could be another disappointing day for the embattled club.
