FROM THE CLUB

Welcome everyone to the Ilinden Sports Centre for this Round 15 match against Hakoah.

It seems like only yesterday that we played Hakoah in a FFA Cup qualifying game. That night it didn't go according to plan and so our boys will be keen to get one back on our visitors who have done very well in their second season back in the top flight.

Unfortunately our last game against Parramatta was washed out meaning we now have a catch up game. That said, the break has come at a good time given our run of injuries and suspensions which have affected our squad. On the injured front, we are pleased that initial reports confirm Nicholas Petrillo's surgery went well and whilst it will be a long road to recovery, the first steps have been positive. We are also pleased that following a serious head knock, Trent McLenahan is back on his feet with no long term damage. Our player coach Paul Reid has recovered well from his injury.

As seen from our last two encounters against Hakoah, these games are never easy. That said, we can be very proud of the way the team responded last time round following our Cup exit away against Sydney United in a game that saw us battle injuries and some unfortunate calls that didn't go our way. If the boys perform that way again, we are confident that we will return to the winners circle. Given how congested the ladder is right now, it will be a much needed 3 points as there is nothing separating 3rd right through to 8th.

Away from first grade, our under 20's will be looking to make it back to back wins whilst our under 18's will be looking to return to the winner's circle.

In our youth, our under 13's continue to lead the way and are now up to 8th with games in hand. Last Monday saw our youth win 3 of their 4 grades and they continue to improve.

Our SAP teams didn't play last weekend due to the weather. They face a long trip down the south coast this Sunday for their fixtures.

Away from football, we were delighted last week to relay the news that Bayside Council had awarded the contract for the synthetic project to one of the bidders. The project is on track and we continue our discussions with Council with respect to the detail for the project in preparation for the scheduled commencement date. It is a massive project for the club, and one that we will be investing in to secure our future. We cannot wait for the day when the weather is no longer an issue when it comes to our home fixtures.

As always, we would like to thank and acknowledge our wonderful sponsors:

MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns will be determined to rediscover the ruthless winning form they displayed in the early weeks of the season when they host Hakoah Sydney City East on Sunday.

Paul Reid's side was given an enforced week off last round after wet conditions meant their game with Parramatta FC was rescheduled. With the extra time to rest their legs, Rockdale have no excuses for anything less than a complete performance against Hakoah.

The visitors come into the match desperate for a reversal in fortunes after losing their last three matches and conceding nine goals in the process.

Rockdale's attack, lead by Jordan Figon, Aleks Canak and Alec Urosevski, is one of the competition's most potent so it could be a hard day at the office for Hakoah.

The Suns will go into this clash as favourites but with Hakoah's penchant for frustrating teams above them on the table an upset could be on the table.

Sydney United 58 3 - Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 returned to winning ways under the Friday night lights with a slick 3-1 victory during their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash with Hakoah Sydney City East at a drenched Sydney United Sports Centre.

Matthew Sim did the damage in the absence of Panny Nikas with a second half double including a cheeky effort from a corner alongside a 7th minute strike from the returning Chris Payne.

Hakoah tested United 58 shot stopper Thomas Manos late in the contest but the Red's gloveman was more than up to the challenge as his side secured all three points and third spot on the ladder.

MATCH PREVIEW

Hakoah Sydney City East will be shooting for three wins in a row when they travel to Rockdale City Suns in round fifteen's final encounter.

Paul Hubbard's side are one point away from fifth-placed Sydney Olympic and have improved their finals chances in recent weeks with wins over APIA Leichhardt and Sydney United 58. Top scorer Connor Eldridge notched a brace in their 2-0 win over United 58 in last Friday's encounter and has proven to be a handful for defences throughout the campaign.

The Rockdale defence will need to marshal a Hakoah side capable of matching it with the best on their day when they meet on Sunday, with the Suns needing a victory to drag themselves out of mid-table.
