FROM THE CLUB

The Sutherland Sharks are excited and ready for the season ahead. The 1st grade squad has worked hard in order to pick up where they left off last season. Supporters would remember we got off to a poor start in round 1 last year but came home in the second round like a whirlwind to just miss the semis. Coach Villazon has committed his team to playing an entertaining high intensity game. He will be looking to some of the younger players of last year to further fulfil their potential as accomplished first grade players. Blair Brown, Chris McStay, Jack Press, Pat O'shea, Jeremy Cox and Callum Fitzpatrick all add class and energy to the Sutherland outfit. New signing Kevin Lopes is showing all the right signs that he is ready to make his mark as one of the leading strikers in the NPL.

Our two Japanese players Taku and Kaji cover many kilometers in a game from different positions on the park. Taku plays an overlapping right fullback role while Kaji is a constant threat to opposition defences. Wade Oostendorp and Nick Littler are a formidable combination in the middle of a very experienced defence backed by club stalwart Nathan Denham. Steve Kayes adds experience.

I would like to welcome the players, officials and supporters of Manly United to Seymour Shaw tonight. This rivalry has seen many exciting clashes over the years and tonight should be no different. Manly suffered a blow when coach Paul Dee announced he would be moving to Melbourne this year due to work commitments.

The under 20's have also shown good early form leading into the competition proper. Some of these boys will be putting plenty of pressure on the 1st graders for a position in the top grade.

Our major sponsor Pipe King are on board again and I'm sure spectators will be grateful to the company once again when they see our new electronic scoreboard.

The half time entertainment is provided courtesy of the Sutherland Sharks SAP Under 9's. These boys are having their first season in our highly successful academy program. We thank them for entertaining us tonight.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sharks fans will be determined to see their side start the season on the right note when Manly United comes to Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

Carlos Villazon's Sutherland team possessed one of the competition's most potent attacks on its day but also suffered from inconsistency and lazy defence. With a full off season under their belt can the Sharks find a new level of performance in 2017.

Manly were delivered a curve ball weeks out from the start of the season with long-time coach Paul Dee stepping down. Interim coach Warren Grieve will be looking at a quality result in round one to prove his side shouldn't be written off which boost several stars including new signings Dylan Macallister and Sasa Macura joining the familiar faces of Dylan Mitchell and Brendan Cholakian at the squad.

FOOTBALL NSW LAUNCHES PLAYSTATION 4 NPL 2017 SEASON

The PlayStation®4 (PS4™) National Premier Leagues NSW 2017 Season was launched by Football NSW at Waterview in Bicentennial Park on Wednesday where media and representatives from the NPL community attended.

A cocktail function for 150 guests with Master of Ceremonies and Fox Sports' very own Simon Hill took control of proceedings which also included representatives from all Football NSW National Premier League Clubs, FFA, Hyundai A-League and W-League clubs, Major Sponsors, and Managing Director of Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia, Michael Ephraim, celebrated the fifth year of the National Premier Leagues in NSW.

There were also cameo appearances from a couple of ex-Socceroos with Paul Okon, Ante Covic, David Zdrilic and Gerry Gomez on hand to support the competition as well as former Socceroos coach from the famous 1974 World Cup squad, Rale Rasic.

The 2017 season will again see the National Premier Leagues benefit from the association with PlayStation4 with the powerhouse sponsor throwing its full support behind grassroots football in Australia.

"I've often been quoted as stating PlayStation's passion for football has always lived both on and off the field and it is true – whether it be literally by strapping on a pair of boots, or picking up a controller," commented Michael Ephraim, Managing Director, Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia.

"This year, we are celebrating three years of partnership with FFA and we're incredibly proud to see how the strength of our collaboration has contributed to the growth of the PS4 NPL into a true breeding ground of Australian football talent," Ephraim concluded.

Two special panels took place on the evening as the first took centre stage from all five NPL competitions with Rockdale City Suns' prized new signing Ante Covic, Sydney University inspirational captain Elizabeth Grey, Marconi Stallions' master midfielder Peter Triantis, Nepean FC's talented skipper Desiree Vassallo and charismatic Gladesville Ryde Magic's Kiriakos Tohouroglou all promoted the key role the NPL has played with the continual development of the world game in NSW.

The second panel saw the Central Coast Mariners' Blake Powell, a former Sutherland Sharks and APIA Leichhardt Tigers product, Sydney FC's Westfield W-League star and current Macarthur Rams player Leena Khamis as well as Western Sydney Wanderers' Lachlan Scott, a former Wollongong Wolves and APIA Leichhardt product, chat about their involvements with the NPL.

Football NSW interim Chief Executive Officer Stefan Kamasz stated that the event accomplished its intention in celebrating the launch of all PlayStation 4 National Premier Leagues NSW competitions.

"I'm thrilled to be able to enjoy the launch of this season with so many of those that champion this competition. The PS4 NPL in New South Wales is a very important part of the football landscape and player pathway in Australia, and in the room tonight are the heroes of our game that ensure it continues to be so.

"Season launches are wonderful occasions to come together socially and catch up with old friends, and even adversaries, but in football terms they are a time for optimism, for positivity, for anticipation, for expectation and hopefulness for the coming season.

"I would like to thank the league sponsors PlayStation4, especially Micahel Ephraim, who is not just a sponsor but a wonderful friend of football. Michael's enthusiasm for PlayStation4 and football is infectious and it is a delight having such an individual involved with our wonderful sport.

"I would like to wish all the clubs the best of luck and we look forward to seeing another NSW club being honoured as the National Premier League Champions following in the footsteps of Sydney United 58 FC (2013, 2016) and Blacktown City FC (2015)."

The PS4 NPL NSW Men's commences on Saturday the 11th of March as Sutherland Sharks host Manly United, Bonnyrigg White Eagles take on Sydney Olympic, Parramatta FC tackle Wollongong Wolves and the new kids on the block Sydney FC battle Rockdale City Suns. Two matches will then take shape on Sunday to conclude Round 1.

The PS4 National Premier Leagues 2 NSW Men's competition kicks off this Saturday the 4th of March while the PS4 National Premier Leagues Women's (Sunday 2nd April), Women's 2 (Sunday 9th April), and Men's 3 (Saturday 11th March) conclude the PS4 NPL competition openers in NSW.

Don't forget to tune in each and every Thursday's at 6pm, kicking off on Thursday 9th of March as a brand new show the PS4 NPL Live Show takes off hosted by Srine Demachkie.

MATCH PREVIEW

The U20's competition officially begins on Saturday at Seymour Shaw with Sutherland Sharks hosting Manly United and if clashes between the two in recent memory are anything to go by it should be an unmissable season curtain-raiser.

Manly United were well worth their Premiership victory after pipping Bonnyrigg, APIA and Sutherland to the post last season under the tutelage of Andrew Christiansen and the Cromer Park outfit will no doubt hold similarly lofty targets for 2017.

They'll come up against the best defensive side from 2016 in a canny Sutherland outfit who saw the likes of Patrick O'Shea and Jack Press become first team members last season. Be sure to keep a keen eye out for youngsters of similar potential when the campaign begins at Seymour Shaw.
