FROM THE CLUB

Sutherland Sharks today welcome the officials, players & supporters of our long time rivals in Sydney United 58 FC. The rivalry between the two clubs dates back to the late 1970's when Sydney United dominated the premiership & Sutherland won a replayed grand final against them in 1978. More recently Sutherland are keen to build on their improved form following on from a great win against Manly. The two recent losses to competition leaders APIA and Blacktown were full of promise despite a heavy injury toll.

Local boy, Robbie Watson has been promoted to the first team and has adapted quickly to first team football, putting in another superb performance against a classy APIA attack last week. Others to impress last week were Pat O'Shea, Nathan Elasi, Josh Da Silva and Matthew Gordon who all worked tirelessly throughout the game and will be keen to do similar this week.

The under 20s last week suffered only their 3rd loss of the season going down 2-1 in an exciting encounter. However, they still remain at the top of the competition ladder 3 points ahead of Blacktown. Lachlan Everett, Harrison Quirk, Matthew Stewart and Jake Borromeo have been performing consistently and are knocking on the door of first team football.

The under 18s drew 1-1 last week against APIA, temporarily slowing their run to the finals. They are one point behind today's opponents in fourth position. Tom Woerndl and Charlie Jones have been in fine form and have impressed in recent performances in the 18s and 20s. Sam Amey from the 16s has helped add "punch" to the 18s attack on the occasions he has been called upon.

The half time entertainment today is provided by Caringbah Redbacks, Cronulla RSL, Miranda & Marton. These clubs are all part of the Sutherland Association which has over 18,000 participants in their football competitions.

We hope everyone has an enjoyable night and we can cheer on some Shark's Victories!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will be hoping to spring an upset when they host Sydney United 58 on Saturday.

The Grant Lee coached side has shown glimpses of what they are capable of since the former Sydney Olympic manager took over the squad.

However, results have failed to materialise for the Sharks and they remain rooted to the bottom third of the table.

Against Sydney United 58 they will need to take advantage of their strengths, striker Nathan Elasi and midfielder Tomohiro Kajiya.

United 58 ended a three game run without a win last week and will be out to make it two from two.

With the return of striker Chris Payne, Sydney United 58 have become a more well rounded team.

Sutherland will have their hands full but with the right performance have what it takes to snatch three points.

REVIEWS

APIA Leichhardt Tigers 2 - Sutherland Sharks 0 at Lambert Park

APIA Leichhardt Tigers have continued their stellar season with a solid 2-0 win against Sutherland Sharks during their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition clash at Lambert Park.

A first half penalty to Jordan Murray and a fantastic late strike to Brendan Lundy were enough to get the full three points for the Tigers.

It was a tough night for Sutherland who struggled to break down APIA's dominance at both ends of the pitch.

The victory was APIA's fifth straight as they retained their position at the top of the table.

Sydney United 58 3 - Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Sydney United 58 returned to winning ways under the Friday night lights with a slick 3-1 victory during their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash with Hakoah Sydney City East at a drenched Sydney United Sports Centre.

Matthew Sim did the damage in the absence of Panny Nikas with a second half double including a cheeky effort from a corner alongside a 7th minute strike from the returning Chris Payne.

Hakoah tested United 58 shot stopper Thomas Manos late in the contest but the Red's gloveman was more than up to the challenge as his side secured all three points and third spot on the ladder.

MATCH PREVIEW

Competition leaders Sutherland Sharks suffered back to back losses for the first time this campaign following last Saturday's 2-1 defeat to APIA and will be looking to get their title tilt back on track against a struggling Sydney United 58 side on Saturday.

The Reds have lost three of their last matches heading into the weekend's contest while scoring just two in their last four in a loss of form that has seen United 58 slide into seventh position. The visitors are in danger of slipping further this weekend with eighth-placed Wollongong Wolves gathering momentum.

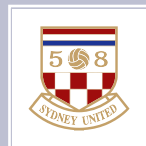

With the likes of Blacktown City, APIA Leichhardt Tigers and Sydney FC all making up ground on Sutherland the Sharks will need to reassert status as the team to beat with a victory over Saturday's opponents.
