FROM THE CLUB

Tonight the Sutherland Sharks welcome our southern neighbours Wollongong Wolves to Seymour Shaw Park for the second time in 4 weeks. The earlier FFA cup clash resulted in a 3-0 win to the Sharks on a night when the sharks were "on fire" creating many chances. However we will have to be at our best tonight against a team that won their last encounter against Hakoah.

The Sharks also had a win last week, defeating last year's Premiers Bonnyrigg 3-2. Local product Jeremy Cox scored a brace, with Nathan Elasi, also a Sutherland junior scoring the other. An injury to goalkeeper Nathan Denham saw his very capable offsider Niki Loe come back into the starting line-up and do a great job.

The under 20's continued their great start to the season with a resounding 6-1 win over the Bonnyrigg white Eagles. It was good to see Jack Press make an impressive return from injury. They are a talented squad who are determined to their best for their club and improve themselves. Congratulations to Angelo Parashis on his last minute call up as goalkeeper. It was a great debut.

The under 18's have continued to develop their game and recorded a comfortable 4-1 win against the White Eagles. The team is playing some good football and will no doubt continue to climb the ladder.

Our youth teams are developing nicely with all the teams being on top or near the top of the competition table and playing attractive possession based football. This extends down to all our SAP teams who are great to watch as they learn and develop their skills.

Tonight we have the Under 9's Como/Jannali, Barden Ridge, Grays Point and Heathcote to entertain us between games. The children really enjoy being part of these nights of the Sharks home games and it is great to see our grass roots children enjoying our great game.

We hope everyone enjoy the night and we see some scintillating football.

Go the Sharks!!!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks notched their first win of the year last week and will be pumped up to make it two from two against southern rivals Wollongong Wolves.

A 3-1 win against Bonnyrigg pushed the Sharks off the bottom of the table and coach Carlos Villazon is sure to build on the quality performance.

Wollongong returned to the winners circle in round seven with the returning Peter Simonovski and former Japan international Yuzo Tashiro finding the back of the net.

Tashiro has been an inspired addition to Wollongong's team this season and will once again be the man to watch this week.

REVIEWS

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2 - Sutherland Sharks 3 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

Sutherland Sharks have climbed off the bottom of the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition ladder with a convincing 3-2 victory over Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Bonnyrigg Sports Centre on Saturday.

A brace from Jeremy Cox and a flicked header from Nathan Elasi was the difference as the Sharks proved triumphant in the battle of the competition cellar dwellers.

Bonnyrigg gave Sutherland a scare with goals to youngsters Hassan Jalloh and Luke Ivanovic, but it was the visitors who took all the points.

Wollongong Wolves 2 - Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves has returned to the winners circle with a 2-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win against Hakoah Sydney City East at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

First half goals to Peter Simonoski and former Japan international Yuzo Tashiro were the difference as Wollongong claimed their third win of the season.

The result was a crash back to reality for Hakoah after a run of strong results.

Wollongong move to seventh on the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition ladder after the win, two spots out of finals contention.

MATCH PREVIEW

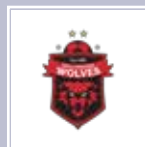

Competition leaders Sutherland Sharks host Wollongong Wolves at Seymour Shaw on Saturday afternoon, likely with the expectation of a straightforward three points from their round 8 fixture. The visitors sit just three points ahead of last-placed Bonnyrigg White Eagles after starting the 2017 season with five losses from their first seven games, though come into this match a week after picking up a 3-1 win at home to Hakoah Sydney City East. This fixture ended in a 1-1 draw in 2016, but having scored three times as many goals as Wollongong in the 2017 season to date, while conceding less than half as many, Sutherland should be confident of picking up a result to hold their lead at the top of the 20s table for at least another week.
