FROM THE CLUB

Welcome back to Belmore Sports Ground for another PS4 NPL NSW match up as we take on Parramatta FC in Round 15 of the 2017 season.

We had some great performances last week against Sydney FC with a 2-0 win in First Grade and a 3-0 win in Under 20s. Our Under 18s unfortunately suffered a loss against a very strong Sydney FC side but we're still very pleased with their recent progress.

With the transfer window now closed you'll notice we've added some exceptional players to our roster throughout the Senior Men's program. Welcome to the new players and their families, we hope you enjoy being part of the Olympic family.

This year we set out with a strong philosophy focusing on youth development and promoting and developing next generation footballers from our SAP right through to First Grade. We are very proud to announce that two of our Under 15s Youth Men's players have been selected for their second Joeys camp this year. Noah Botic and James Paneras have shown excellent development and skill and have had their hard work rewarded, spending the week at the AIS with the best of their age in Australia. Congratulations to both boys and their coach Milan Blagojevic. We hope to see them, along with other Olympic players, continue to make such impressive achievements in the future.

A big thank you goes out to our sponsors who are the backbone of our club and have shown a huge amount of support for Olympic throughout the season.

Our next home game is next Sunday against Rockdale City Suns FC at 3pm.

We hope you enjoy the fixtures today and we thank you for your continued support of Sydney Olympic FC.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic will be determined to cut the gap between them and the top two sides in the competition when they host Parramatta FC.

Olympic will be very confident of securing the three points against the competition's bottom side.

Victory last round against Sydney FC was another strong performance by the Peter Zorbas coached team.

For Parramatta the season has gone from bad to worse with struggles both on and off the pitch.

A victory on Sunday would provide a much needed morale booster for the team and its fans.

Olympic will be favourites for this match but anything can happen during the 90 minutes.

REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 2 - Sydney FC 0 at Lambert Park

A second half double from Jinya An helped Sydney Olympic to a 2-0 win against Sydney FC in their rescheduled PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's round 14 clash at Lambert Park on Monday night.

Neither side could find a way to open the scoring in a tight first half, but An was on hand early in the second to put Olympic a goal ahead after 55 minutes.

An doubled his tally late in the match to seal a fairly routine win for his side, keeping pressure up on the top two above them.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic re-entered the top five last weekend thanks to an excellent 3-0 victory over Sydney FC and will no doubt be eyeing another three points when Parramatta arrive at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday.

The Melita Stadium side come into the encounter on the back of a seven-match losing streak which has left Parramatta rooted to the bottom of the table, six points adrift of eleventh-placed Bonnyrigg.

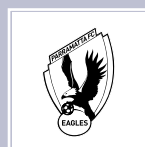

The visitors have struggled for attacking returns throughout the campaign having scored just 12 in total and will need to correct that record against an Olympic team brimming with confidence following a morale-boosting victory over the Sky Blues.
