FROM THE CLUB

We're back at Belmore again for another week of what should be quality football as we take on Rockdale City Suns in Round 16 of the PS4 National Premier Leagues NSW Competition.

It's been an exciting season so far with some excellent results coming from our First Grade squad, with another win against Parramatta last week keeping us well in contention for finals and sitting in a pleasing third position heading into this round.

We're seeing excellent development throughout the entire club with our SAP, Youth, Women and Senior Men's programs progressing well through the season, so a big thank you and congratulations goes to all players, coaches, parents and volunteers for helping the club run smoothly.

We've been working on strengthening our relationships with the community so you may have seen some mascots and ball boys from local clubs during our home games. Today we have Concord Junior Soccer Club with us, we thank them for getting involved and helping out.

A big thank you goes out to our sponsors who have supported us throughout the season and make days like this possible.

Another thank you goes to our loyal supporters and members of the SOFC family who show their support and love for Olympic each week.

We hope you enjoy this afternoon's football and we hope to see you here again next week when we take on Manly United FC at 5pm.

Thanks to Concord Junior Soccer Club for participating in our Match Day:

MATCH PREVIEW

Third position on the ladder goes on the line when Sydney Olympic FC hosts rivals Rockdale City Suns at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday.

Both teams have returned to form in recent weeks after a lean spell at the end of the first half of the season.

Olympic has quietly kept pace with league leaders Blacktown City FC and APIA Leichhardt Tigers to sit only two games behind the top of the table.

A win against new look Parramatta FC outfit kept their winning run alive and victory on Sunday would make it three in a row for Peter Zorbas side.

Both imports, Jinya An and Yu Kuboki have been in terrific form for the Blues and will once again be the go to players on Sunday.

Rockdale easily accounted for Hakoah last week and showed signs of the early season form which had them flying high at the top of the table.

Jordan Figon found his shooting boots last week to score a double and will once again be a player to watch as will former Sydney Olympic skipper Harris Gaitatzis who will be returning to his old stomping ground at Belmore since his move this season.

There won't be many better chances for either side to flex their premiership credentials than on Sunday so expect a thrilling contest.

Sydney Olympic FC 2 - Parramatta FC 0 at Belmore Sports Ground

Sydney Olympic eased to a 2-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win over Parramatta FC at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday afternoon.

Goals in each half for Olympic secured a crucial victory to keep up pressure on the top two after a slip from APIA Leichhardt Tigers earlier in the round.

The hosts were dominant throughout, and will consider themselves unfortunate not to have scored more than their two goals.

Mohamed Rahimi opened the scoring early in the first half before Yu Kuboki added a second for Olympic ten minutes after the break, sealing what was ultimately a comfortable win for one of the Premiership hopefuls.

Rockdale City Suns 2 - Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns have cruised to a 2-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's victory against Hakoah Sydney City East at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

A first half double from Jordan Figon was all that it took for the home side as they got one back against Hakoah after their FFA Cup loss early in the season.

Despite holding a 2-0 lead after only 30 minutes, Rockdale had to do it tough for the remaining hour after losing Idriss El Hafiane who was sent off after 33 minutes.

Hakoah pushed forward for a winner but even with an extra man advantage they couldn't breakdown the Suns dogged defence.

FOOTBALL APPLAUDS NSW GOVERNMENT SPORTS REBATE

The CEO's of the governing bodies for the State's largest club based sport, Northern NSW Football (NNSWF) and Football NSW (FNSW) who collectively represent 400,000 participants, have applauded today's announcement by the State Government in the NSW Budget to establish a 'sports rebate' and provide additional investment in regional infrastructure.

Parents of school aged children across the State will benefit from the 'Active Kids Rebate', a new $100 rebate for sporting and fitness related costs announced today by Treasurer Dominic Perrottet with $207 million set aside over four years from 2017-2018 for families with children in school from early next year.

Northern NSW CEO David Eland and newly appointed Football NSW CEO

Stuart Hodge acknowledged the initiative would encourage more young children to participate in the world's most popular sport across NSW.

"The health and lifestyle benefits of participation in sport are well known, both for individuals and for communities, so any initiative that makes more children participate in the sport is welcomed by everyone," Eland said.

"The state bodies applaud the State Government's initiative in establishing the Active Kids Rebate, which will greatly assist parents to encourage their children to adopt active lifestyles.

"The rebate will make the State's largest sport even more accessible as a direct result and we anticipate incremental growth to continue in 2018 and beyond,” NNSWF CEO David Eland concluded.

As well as acknowledging the benefits of the ‘Active Kids Rebate’, Football NSW CEO Stuart Hodge also recognised the valuable commitment by the NSW Government to community sports facilities in the Budget, with $1.3 billion allocated to regional infrastructure.

“Football is well positioned to take advantage of the $1.3 billion Regional Growth Fund,” Hodge said.

“The NSW Football Facilities and Advocacy Unit has identified facility enhancement and development projects totalling $330m through the Future Needs of Football Blueprint. Improving lighting, drainage and amenities are priorities, particularly in response to the boom in female participation. Football is committed to partnering the State Government to ensure community football facilities are welcoming, inclusive and safe. Good facilities are crucial to building better communities by improving the quality of life in our regional towns and cities.

“Ironically, the Active Kids Rebate has the potential to place further stress on football facilities, which in many cases are already bursting at the seams. The $1.3b Regional Growth Fund will facilitate much needed investment in football facilities throughout Regional NSW. Football has the unique ability to break down social and cultural barriers. The game’s 1000 plus clubs are committed to serving their communities and facilitating opportunities for their members to meet, interact and develop enduring friendships,” Hodge concluded.

The Active Kids Initiative follows on from the announcement last week of the $4 million-dollar rollout of defibrillators at sports clubs to address the risk of cardiac arrest whilst attending sporting events.

Furthermore, football will most likely benefit from the $2 million dollar ‘Modernise and Optimise Regional Sport’ Initiative in conjunction with other regional initiatives.

This shows yet another major win for the ‘world game’ following the overall sport participation figures eclipsing 397,000 including Northern NSW, as the code continues to dominate as being the number one played sport in not only NSW but the country.

The direct beneficiaries of the newly announced ‘active kids rebate’ will be the 116,290 ALDI MiniRoos youngsters aged 5 to 11 years and the 74, 548 Youth footballers aged 12 to 17 years.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney Olympic can consolidate their position in the top five with a win over Rockdale City Suns in their Sunday lunchtime clash in Belmore.

The Blues have won two in a row including a fantastic 3-0 win over Sydney FC in round fourteen to open up a four point gap to sixth-placed Hakoah Sydney City East.

However it won't be easy against a Rockdale side who have won back to back games for the first time this campaign following a pair of narrow losses to competition heavyweights Sydney FC and APIA Leichhardt.

The Suns have struggled for goals throughout the campaign having scored a competition low of 13 but with Jonathan Grozdanovski netting a brace in last Sunday's victory over Hakoah Sydney City East the Illinden side will hope to continue their upward trajectory in Belmore.
