FROM THE CLUB

On behalf of Sydney Olympic Football Club, we would like to welcome our family of supporters, partners and players to the 2017 NPL season.

Our season kicked off to a great start last week against Bonnyrigg White Eagles and we hope to continue achieving such a high standard of football and great results throughout the season.

Our new Head Coach and Technical Director, Jaime Monroy, along with a highly skilled and hard-working team of coaching staff, have set a new standard for Sydney Olympic in 2017. In the recruitment phase of our pre-season preparation, we have brought in an excellent group of young, talented players with great ambition and experience, despite their age.

We've also brought in several imports who have shown great skill and composure in the pre-season and are sure to demonstrate this throughout the year. We've blended these new recruits with some familiar faces who's experience and commitment to Sydney Olympic FC will not go unnoticed. The team shares the commitment to work as hard as possible to win and the desire to play an impressive, enjoyable and exciting style of football at every game.

We're focusing on development this season and this will surely be reflected in our Under 18's and Under 20's teams as they work towards becoming the next generation of First Grade footballers at Sydney Olympic.

Sydney Olympic has created some great partnerships this year that have allowed us to progress and move forward with our new philosophy this year. The JASO Group have come on board as our major partner for 2017, along with Northern Managed Finance, Hewlett Packard and Mega Travel as our apparel partners and many others that will undoubtedly be recognised in many ways throughout the year.

Welcome to our first home game of 2017 and we look forward to sharing a spectacular season with you all.

Once again, thank you for your loyal support to Sydney Olympic Football Club.

MATCH PREVIEW

Jamie Monroy enjoyed a perfect start to life as Sydney Olympic coach with a 2-0 win against Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

This week he must continue his strong start in front of the passionate Olympic faithful at Belmore Sports Ground when his side hosts fellow Round 1 winners Wollongong.

Japanese attacker Yu Kubuki was a revelation for Olympic last week scoring both his team's goals. Wollongong's defenders are sure to be more prepared for Kubuki this time around.

Patrick Antelmi will be the man leading the charge for the Wolves, but also keep an eye out for former Japan international Tashiro Yuzo in what will be his second match for the South Coast club.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1-3 Sydney Olympic, 5.00pm at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

A Nikita Andricopoulos brace has given Sydney Olympic the perfect start to their title defence after defeating Bonnyrigg 3-1 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club.

Andricopoulos struck twice for the reigning champions alongside a Sebastian Malfara effort to dispose of the White Eagles, who netted in consolation through Jayden Whittle.

Bonnyrigg will look to pick themselves up next round in a tough visit to Cromer Park to face fellow competition heavyweights Manly United, while Olympic will target another three points when they face Wollongong Wolves in Belmore.

Match abandoned: Parramatta v Wollongong Wolves, 5.00pm at Melita Stadium

Match was abandoned during the second half with scores at 1-1 due to an injury suffered by a Parramatta FC player.

FOOTBALL NSW LAUNCHES PLAYSTATION 4 NPL 2017 SEASON

The PlayStation®4 (PS4™) National Premier Leagues NSW 2017 Season was launched by Football NSW at Waterview in Bicentennial Park on Wednesday where media and representatives from the NPL community attended.

A cocktail function for 150 guests with Master of Ceremonies and Fox Sports' very own Simon Hill took control of proceedings which also included representatives from all Football NSW National Premier League Clubs, FFA, Hyundai A-League and W-League clubs, Major Sponsors, and Managing Director of Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia, Michael Ephraim, celebrated the fifth year of the National Premier Leagues in NSW.

There were also cameo appearances from a couple of ex-Socceroos with Paul Okon, Ante Covic, David Zdrilic and Gerry Gomez on hand to support the competition as well as former Socceroos coach from the famous 1974 World Cup squad, Rale Rasic.

The 2017 season will again see the National Premier Leagues benefit from the association with PlayStation4 with the powerhouse sponsor throwing its full support behind grassroots football in Australia.

"I've often been quoted as stating PlayStation's passion for football has always lived both on and off the field and it is true – whether it be literally by strapping on a pair of boots, or picking up a controller," commented Michael Ephraim, Managing Director, Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia.

"This year, we are celebrating three years of partnership with FFA and we're incredibly proud to see how the strength of our collaboration has contributed to the growth of the PS4 NPL into a true breeding ground of Australian football talent," Ephraim concluded.

Two special panels took place on the evening as the first took centre stage from all five NPL competitions with Rockdale City Suns' prized new signing Ante Covic, Sydney University inspirational captain Elizabeth Grey, Marconi Stallions' master midfielder Peter Triantis, Nepean FC's talented skipper Desiree Vassallo and charismatic Gladesville Ryde Magic's Kiriakos Tohouroglou all promoted the key role the NPL has played with the continual development of the world game in NSW.

The second panel saw the Central Coast Mariners' Blake Powell, a former Sutherland Sharks and APIA Leichhardt Tigers product, Sydney FC's Westfield W-League star and current Macarthur Rams player Leena Khamis as well as Western Sydney Wanderers' Lachlan Scott, a former Wollongong Wolves and APIA Leichhardt product, chat about their involvements with the NPL.

Football NSW interim Chief Executive Officer Stefan Kamasz stated that the event accomplished its intention in celebrating the launch of all PlayStation 4 National Premier Leagues NSW competitions.

"I'm thrilled to be able to enjoy the launch of this season with so many of those that champion this competition. The PS4 NPL in New South Wales is a very important part of the football landscape and player pathway in Australia, and in the room tonight are the heroes of our game that ensure it continues to be so.

"Season launches are wonderful occasions to come together socially and catch up with old friends, and even adversaries, but in football terms they are a time for optimism, for positivity, for anticipation, for expectation and hopefulness for the coming season.

"I would like to thank the league sponsors PlayStation4, especially Micahel Ephraim, who is not just a sponsor but a wonderful friend of football. Michael's enthusiasm for PlayStation4 and football is infectious and it is a delight having such an individual involved with our wonderful sport.

"I would like to wish all the clubs the best of luck and we look forward to seeing another NSW club being honoured as the National Premier League Champions following in the footsteps of Sydney United 58 FC (2013, 2016) and Blacktown City FC (2015)."

The PS4 NPL NSW Men's commences on Saturday the 11th of March as Sutherland Sharks host Manly United, Bonnyrigg White Eagles take on Sydney Olympic, Parramatta FC tackle Wollongong Wolves and the new kids on the block Sydney FC battle Rockdale City Suns. Two matches will then take shape on Sunday to conclude Round 1.

The PS4 National Premier Leagues 2 NSW Men's competition kicks off this Saturday the 4th of March while the PS4 National Premier Leagues Women's (Sunday 2nd April), Women's 2 (Sunday 9th April), and Men's 3 (Saturday 11th March) conclude the PS4 NPL competition openers in NSW.

Don't forget to tune in each and every Thursday's at 6pm, kicking off on Thursday 9th of March as a brand new show the PS4 NPL Live Show takes off hosted by Srine Demachkie.

MATCH PREVIEW

Reigning champions Sydney Olympic got their campaign off to a flying start with a 3-1 victory at Bonnyrigg Sports Club and the Blues will look to make it two on the bounce when they welcome Wollongong Wolves to Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday.

Nikita Andricopoulos netted a brace in Olympic's triumph in Bonnyrigg and alongside Sebastian Malfara the Blues possess two of the competitions most dangerous attackers.

Wollongong will need to negate the threat of an Olympic frontline that can prove to be destructive on their day, but the South Coast outfit possess significant firepower in the form of young forward Jake Trew who was a perpetual menace in the NPLNSW U18's competition in 2016.

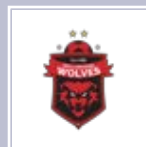

A canny defensive unit on their day, Wollongong will be looking to take all three points back home after having their opening day fixture with Parramatta abandoned.
