FROM THE CLUB

Good afternoon and welcome to Lambert Park for our round 17 clash with APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

This will be another chance for our young squad to prove their worth against one of the divisions leading teams.

We've had a lot of strong periods in our games of late but the challenge for our boys is to maintain that consistency throughout the entire 90 minutes.

We have the talent in our squad to beat any side on any day and we will certainly make life tough for our opponents this evening.

Big games for our under 20s and under 18s as well today who remain in the Championship hunt.

Best of luck to all of our teams today.

MATCH PREVIEW

Saturday night will see the second Lambert Park derby as Sydney FC host APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

APIA took out the round six clash between the two sides in emphatic style scoring three goals against the young Sky Blues.

Sitting in second spot, three points behind league leaders Blacktown City FC, APIA will be looking for no less than a win as they battle to reclaim their position at the top of the ladder.

It has been a tough but respectable season from Sydney FC and they will be wanting to make some noise throughout the final weeks.

While Robbie Stanton's side has won only four matches, they have rarely looked out of place at this level.

An expansive gameplay with athletically gifted players has Sydney FC in with a shot of winning every game they play.

APIA will be favourites for this match but as Danial Cummins side experienced against Bonnyrigg a few weeks ago, nothing is assured in football.

Blacktown City FC 3 - Sydney FC 1 at Lily's Football Centre

A Joey Gibbs double helped Blacktown City maintain their lead at the top after the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition with a 3-1 win against Sydney FC at Lily's Football Centre on Sunday afternoon.

Gibbs opened the scoring early on after steering home a simple tap in and claimed his brace and Blacktown's third five minutes into the second half with a similarly easy finish at the back post.

Sydney FC had earlier restored parity midway through the first half thanks to a superb Charles Lokolingoy effort but a Mitch Mallia strike on the cusp of half time proved a crucial blow to the Sky Blues who were unable to prevent the hosts from a fifth consecutive win.

Robert Stanton's side enjoyed decent spells throughout the match against a heavily rotated Blacktown City outfit but were undone by the ruthlessness of City's forwards with Mallia and Gibbs in particularly lethal form.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC 2 - Wollongong Wolves FC 1 at Lambert Park

A Nathan Millgate goal in the closing stages has helped APIA Leichhardt to a 2-1 win against Wollongong Wolves during their round 16 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Lambert Park.

Millgate's 85th minute strike wrapped up the result for APIA after the match was locked at 1-1 for more than an hour of play.

Wollongong will rue not taking advantage of their early lead after Patrick Antelmi struck in the 34th minute.

However moments later the scores were tied when Jordan Murray headed home and after a red card to Nicolas Bernal in the 66th minute the Wolves were forced to battle on with 10 men.

Wollongong fought hard but it wasn't to be with only five minutes left the home side secured a hard earned three points.

MATCH PREVIEW

Two premiership hopefuls collide on Saturday evening when third-placed Sydney FC host fourth-placed APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Lambert Park.

The Sky Blues come into the match on the back of a 1-1 draw with fellow heavyweights Blacktown City last Sunday and find themselves three points behind leaders Sutherland Sharks at the start of round seventeen.

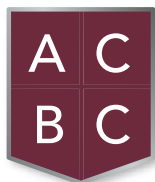

Golden boot leader John Iredale netted the equalizer in last week's stalemate and will be looking to add to his tally of 13 against an APIA side who are beginning to slip away from the forefront of the premiership race.

Since their 5-1 thrashing of Sydney United 58 in late May the Tigers have won just one match of their last four with a six point gap to Sutherland threatening to widen should their shaky form continue.

However the APIA side have shown great potential throughout the campaign and boast one of the best offensive records in the competition second only to Sutherland.

Forwards Aedon Kyra (11) and Jordan Morfitis (7) have proven significant dangers for opposition defences while Cameron Stephan has also been productive for the Tigers with five goals in eight matches.

They may get less joy against a defensive organised and flexible Sydney FC side who have won five of their last seven fixtures.
