FROM THE CLUB

Good evening and welcome to our Round 5 PS4 NPL NSW Men's clash at Lambert Park against Blacktown City FC.

Only at Round 5 in the competition and already I'm seeing signs of development and improvement within my playing group which thoroughly pleases me.

The players are rising to the challenge of facing grown men, and as the season progresses expect to see results improve each week.

We're pushing teams all the way in this competition already and I'm excited by the playing group at my disposal.

We're looking forward to the challenge of Blacktown tonight, and I'm looking forward to seeing all our fantastic Members and fans in the stands for another great night of football.

MATCH PREVIEW

It has been a rollercoaster week for Sydney FC in the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

A dramatic come from behind win against Parramatta on Wednesday, which featured five unanswered goals in the second half after trailing 2-0 at the break, marked the baby Sky Blues maiden win in the competition.

However, reality struck at Cromer Park on Sunday with Manly overcoming the competition new boys 3-2.

Coach Rob Stanton has admitted this season will be a learning curve for many of his players, but the rapid attack and mercurial talent displayed by Sydney FC has made them anything but easy beats.

It will be an interesting challenge for reigning PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW

Men's Champions Blacktown City FC. Mark Crittenden's side has remained undefeated so far this season despite rarely displaying the dominating form they are renowned for.

Both teams know how to hit the back of the net so there could be plenty of goals in this match-up.

REVIEWS

Manly United FC 3 - Sydney FC 2 at Cromer Park

Manly United's unbeaten status after four rounds remains intact following Sunday's thrilling 3-2 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win over Sydney FC at Cromer Park.

In what was a high tempo encounter, a second half goal from evergreen striker Dylan Macallister proved to be the difference.

Manly set the tempo with Scott Balderson claiming a double inside the first ten minutes

However, Sydney FC weren't going to be easy beats and levelled the scores thanks to strikes from Chris Zuvela and Cristian Gonzalez.

Macallister wasn't going to let his team leave with anything less than three competition points, scoring the winner in the 54th minute.

Blacktown City FC 2 - Wollongong Wolves 0 at Lily's Football Stadium

A late Joey Gibbs penalty has helped Blacktown City edge 10-man Wollongong Wolves 2-0 in their Round 4 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Lily's Football Centre.

The lively encounter appeared destined for stalemate until City substitute James Andrew won a penalty with fifteen minutes remaining under the challenge of Wolves skipper Christopher Price.

The Wolves defender saw red and Joey Gibbs made no mistake from the spot to put Blacktown in front.

Andrew secured the three points 10 minutes later after slotting past Justin Pasfield with a tidy finish at the near post for his second goal in as many weeks to ensure Blacktown City remained undefeated after their first four matches.

MATCH PREVIEW

Both these sides will be expecting nothing less than a finals finish from the 2017 campaign and with Sydney FC and Blacktown City coming into this round five clash in third and fifth position respectively it's sure to be an exciting encounter between two potential championship winners at Lambert Park.

Having defeated reigning premiers Manly United 3-1 last Sunday, Sydney FC come into the match with back to back victories and will be aiming for their third win in a row when they host Blacktown.

Sky Blues forward John Iredale leads the golden boot race so far with four to his name and the striker will fancy his chances at extending that tally against a City defence that has been far from convincing in their matches so far.

Blacktown managed to claw their way to a 3-2 victory over Wollongong last weekend after some defensive mishaps but John Carnevale's side may be punished more ruthlessly should they continue to lapse in concentration against Sydney.
