FROM THE CLUB

Good afternoon and welcome to Lambert Park for our round 15 clash with Manly United.

I've been really pleased with the application and effort of the boys in recent weeks and in the last six rounds we've picked up 10 points from a possible 18 which shows we are maturing at this level.

Even on Monday we pushed Sydney Olympic all the way and I'm predicting we will give Manly United an equally tough challenge today.

With a strong finish to the season I believe we can push on up the table and overtake a number of those teams ahead of us.

It starts today.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will go head to head with Manly United FC at Lambert Park on Saturday with three points on the line.

The young Sky Blues will be out to capitalise on Manly's recent poor form.

Injury has taken it's toll on Sydney FC and they paid the price in their 2-0 loss to Sydney Olympic FC last round.

Coach Robbie Stanton has preached the importance of keeping mistakes to a minimum and once again that will be the mantra for Sydney FC.

Manly will be determined to bounce back from last week's loss to Wollongong Wolves and will not take this match lightly.

Both sides know how to find the back of the net so this match has the potential to be an exciting match up.

REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 2 - Sydney FC 0 at Lambert Park

A second half double from Jinya An helped Sydney Olympic to a 2-0 win against Sydney FC in their rescheduled PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's round 14 clash at Lambert Park on Monday night.

Neither side could find a way to open the scoring in a tight first half, but An was on hand early in the second to put Olympic a goal ahead after 55 minutes.

An doubled his tally late in the match to seal a fairly routine win for his side, keeping pressure up on the top two above them.

Manly United FC 1 - Wollongong Wolves 2 at Cromer Park

WOLLONGONG recovered after conceding a sloppy first half goal to beat Manly United 2-1 during their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition clash on Saturday night at Cromer Park.

Second half strikes from James Markovic and Josh McDonald helped the South Coast side to all three competition points.

An early Manly goal had the Northern Beaches side in prime position for the majority of the match before Wollongong struck twice in a little over ten minutes to revive their slim finals hopes.

MATCH PREVIEW

A shock 3-0 loss to Sydney Olympic ended a formidable eight-match unbeaten streak for fourth-placed Sydney FC and the Sky Blues will be lining up three points when they host an out of form Manly United at Lambert Park on Saturday.

David Zdrilic's side are among a cluster of premiership hopefuls needing a win to maintain pace with leaders Sutherland and will fancy their chances at bouncing back from their Olympic defeat against a Manly side who slipped into tenth position after round fourteen's 3-0 loss to Wollongong.

Last year's standout team have endured a poor season to date and have been severely handicapped by a defence which has leaked 32 goals in 14 matches. The reigning premiers will need to remedy their faltering rear-guard in order to have any hope of salvaging their season.
