FROM THE CLUB

Good evening and welcome to our Round 13 PS4 NPL NSW Men's clash at Lambert Park against Parramatta FC.

Our squad are developing week in week out into the next generation of Hyundai A-League footballers and I'm proud of their continued determination and effort that they display each game day.

It's a welcome return to Lambert Park against Parramatta, a team we collected three points from last round, and another match in which I expect us to excel.

We're pushing teams all the way in this competition already and I'm excited by the playing group at my disposal.

We're looking forward to the challenge of Parramatta tonight, and I'm looking forward to seeing all our fantastic Members and fans in the stands for another great night of football.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be determined to replicate it's five goal haul against Parramatta FC from Round 2 when they host the bottom of the table side on Saturday.

They young Sky Blues fought back from 2-0 down in that match to run away convincing winners and coach Robbie Stanton will have his sights set on a much improved performance this time around.

Coming into the match on the back of a 2-0 defeat to Rockdale City Suns, Sydney FC will need to rediscover their winning ways with midfielders Chris Zuvela, Christian Gonzales and Nikola Kuleski all expected to be key contributors.

For Parramatta the match is a chance to rebuild morale after what has been a difficult season to date.

A win on Saturday night would do wonders for the confidence of Parramatta FC's players as they battle to avoid relegation.

REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns FC 2 - Sydney FC 0 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns cruised to a 2-0 win over Sydney FC in their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Heritage Round match at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday afternoon.

Goals from Brayden Sorge and Aleksander Canak either side of halftime ended a run of three straight losses for the home side.

Sydney FC might have pulled a goal or two back after an improved second half performance, but Rockdale were well worth their win, and held their opponents out for a clean sheet and three crucial points.

The result consolidates Rockdale's position in the top five as they finish the round in fourth position on 24 points.

Wollongong Wolves FC 3 - Parramatta FC 0 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves gave their finals aspirations a much needed boost with a 3-0 win over Parramatta FC in their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's heritage round clash at WIN Stadium on Sunday.

It was one way traffic for the home side as star signing Nick Montgomery opened his account for the Wolves while Christopher Price and Patrick Antelmi also hit the back of the net

The visitors disappointed again in a performance not to be remembered on the road.

The victory kept finals football in range for Jacob Timpano's Wollongong side with 10 weeks left to play.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be hot favourites when they host a Parramatta side hoping to avoid a seventh consecutive defeat when they arrive at Lambert Park for Saturday's final fixture.

The Sky Blues' 2-0 defeat of Rockdale last weekend maintained what has been a remarkable defensive record for David Zdrilic's men who have conceded just eight goals all season. The goals are also starting to flow with more regularity with John Iredale the key man up front for Sydney with five.

Although Parramatta have sunk to the bottom of the table as a result of their horrid run the Melita Stadium outfit have not been comprehensively outplayed by their opponents throughout the run and have only been beaten narrowly by the likes of Sutherland and Sydney United 58.

They'll hope something will finally give this weekend as they look to drag themselves back off the foot of the table.
