FROM THE CLUB

Time flies fast and there's no time to rest in the NPL as we welcome Sydney Olympic for Round 3 tonight in another match sure to test our squad.

The washout at the weekend has given the players time to rest and re-charge ahead of tonight's match against one of the league's favourites.

I was thoroughly impressed with the football we displayed in Round 1 against Rockdale and I'll be expecting a performance of similar quality tonight.

I'm looking forward to seeing the players grow as the season progresses and I'm expecting us to challenge each team we face as our next generation of Hyundai A-League footballers develop in 2017.

The level of support we received in Round 1 was pleasing and I'm looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands again tonight. Your support pushes our boys to be their best, you're our 12th man and are the reason we play.

MATCH PREVIEW

Competition new boys Sydney FC appear to have settled in to the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition with ease and will have their heart set on a maiden win when they host Sydney Olympic.

The young side boasts dynamic attacking threats including prolific striker Charles Lokolingoy.

Sydney Olympic will need to be on high alert if they are to make it three wins from three starts on Saturday night.

New coach Jamie Monroy has Olympic playing quality football and more of the same is expected this weekend.

REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic 3 - Wollongong Wolves 1 at Belmore Sports Ground

Sydney Olympic has maintained their winning start to the 2017 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition with a comfortable 3-1 win over Wollongong Wolves on Sunday.

A first half strike from William Angel and second half finishes from Nikolas Tsattalios and Jason Madonis clinched the three points for Olympic at Belmore Sports Ground.

Wolves were rarely an attacking threat throughout the match but found a late consolation goal through former Japan international Yuzo Tashiro.

It was one way traffic for the majority of the game with Olympic in control of the match from the opening whistle. Olympic could have scored even more goals such was their dominance.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will face a real test of their quality when they host reigning champions Sydney Olympic at Lambert Park this Saturday. Olympic are on a ten-match winning run that dates back to round 17 of last season and have scored seven goals in their opening two fixtures whilst conceding just the solitary goal.

With Olympic attackers Nikita Andricopoulos and Sebastian Malfara in sensational form, the Sky Blues will have to be at their best to get a result. David Zdrilic's side had their round two fixture with Parramatta postponed – an extra week of preparation might be just what Sydney need to scupper Olympic's run and assert themselves as the competition's team to beat.

WE'RE THE REAL DEAL SAYS ANTONIOU

Sydney FC PlayStation 4 NPL NSW Men's winger Bai Antoniou says the Sky Blues are out to prove they're the real deal this season.

Freshly promoted to the top division this year, the Sky Blues pushed title contenders Rockdale City all the way in round one at Lambert Park, and Antoniou believes with the football on show the Sky Blues won't be easy beats in 2017.

"It's always disappointing not to get the win but some of the football we showed is definitely going to surprise a lot of teams out there," Antoniou said.

"They know that we're not here to be a laughing stock, we're here to be the real deal of the competition.

"The quality of football was a bit better compared to NPL 2 and the shape and experience of the team was a lot better as well too," he continued.

"It was good to be back playing against men, a faster pace and better quality football and it was a good start to the season as well.

"It always helps when you've got a squad that's known each other for the last few years, the chemistry and togetherness, and it's easy to play in a team when you're all friends together."

The Sky Blues received special praise from Rockdale player/manager and former Soccerroo Paul Reid, and Antoniou said it was pleasing to receive plaudits from someone of his stature.
