FROM THE CLUB

Welcome to the 2017 season. After a hugely successful season in 2016, where we swept all before us, winning the premiership convincingly, Waratah Cup and NPL Australia playoff, we look forward to the 2017 season.

This season sees a new coach in charge in Davor Bajsic replacing the highly successful Mark Rudan. Davor has coached in the club junior ranks for the last 8 years.

The club has made some exciting signings in Nick Olsen, Matt Sim and Riley Woodcock while welcoming back some old faces in Petar Markovic and Ante Tomic.

Hope you enjoy the 2017 season

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 were one game away from an incredible four trophy haul in 2016. Unfortunately for the Edensor Park based side they were upset by Blacktown City in last season's PS4 NPL NSW Men's Competition Grand Final.

With the pain of defeat still fresh in their minds, Sydney United 58 will be more determined than ever with new coach in charge Davor Bajsic in going one step further.

That man again, Panny Nikas will be one to look out for in this match but it will be Nic Olsen, a former APIA Leichhardt Tigers that will want to shake the headlines after his summer move away from Lambert Park to Sydney's West that will be the talking point.

Round 1 has United 58 taking on APIA in a game sure to feature plenty of quality attacking football.

APIA were one of last season's biggest disappointments and coach Danial Cummins will hope to have his team back to its best.

The Tigers will be buoyed on by new skipper David D'Appuzo as he and his troops hope to surprise the current NPL Champions in round 1.

It is a match with the potential to be one of the round's most entertaining.

FOOTBALL NSW LAUNCHES PLAYSTATION 4 NPL 2017 SEASON

The PlayStation®4 (PS4™) National Premier Leagues NSW 2017 Season was launched by Football NSW at Waterview in Bicentennial Park on Wednesday where media and representatives from the NPL community attended.

A cocktail function for 150 guests with Master of Ceremonies and Fox Sports' very own Simon Hill took control of proceedings which also included representatives from all Football NSW National Premier League Clubs, FFA, Hyundai A-League and W-League clubs, Major Sponsors, and Managing Director of Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia, Michael Ephraim, celebrated the fifth year of the National Premier Leagues in NSW.

There were also cameo appearances from a couple of ex-Socceroos with Paul Okon, Ante Covic, David Zdrilic and Gerry Gomez on hand to support the competition as well as former Socceroos coach from the famous 1974 World Cup squad, Rale Rasic.

The 2017 season will again see the National Premier Leagues benefit from the association with PlayStation4 with the powerhouse sponsor throwing its full support behind grassroots football in Australia.

"I've often been quoted as stating PlayStation's passion for football has always lived both on and off the field and it is true – whether it be literally by strapping on a pair of boots, or picking up a controller," commented Michael Ephraim, Managing Director, Sony Interactive Entertainment Australia.

"This year, we are celebrating three years of partnership with FFA and we're incredibly proud to see how the strength of our collaboration has contributed to the growth of the PS4 NPL into a true breeding ground of Australian football talent," Ephraim concluded.

Two special panels took place on the evening as the first took centre stage from all five NPL competitions with Rockdale City Suns' prized new signing Ante Covic, Sydney University inspirational captain Elizabeth Grey, Marconi Stallions' master midfielder Peter Triantis, Nepean FC's talented skipper Desiree Vassallo and charismatic Gladesville Ryde Magic's Kiriakos Tohouroglou all promoted the key role the NPL has played with the continual development of the world game in NSW.

The second panel saw the Central Coast Mariners' Blake Powell, a former Sutherland Sharks and APIA Leichhardt Tigers product, Sydney FC's Westfield W-League star and current Macarthur Rams player Leena Khamis as well as Western Sydney Wanderers' Lachlan Scott, a former Wollongong Wolves and APIA Leichhardt product, chat about their involvements with the NPL.

Football NSW interim Chief Executive Officer Stefan Kamasz stated that the event accomplished its intention in celebrating the launch of all PlayStation 4 National Premier Leagues NSW competitions.

"I'm thrilled to be able to enjoy the launch of this season with so many of those that champion this competition. The PS4 NPL in New South Wales is a very important part of the football landscape and player pathway in Australia, and in the room tonight are the heroes of our game that ensure it continues to be so.

"Season launches are wonderful occasions to come together socially and catch up with old friends, and even adversaries, but in football terms they are a time for optimism, for positivity, for anticipation, for expectation and hopefulness for the coming season.

"I would like to thank the league sponsors PlayStation4, especially Micahel Ephraim, who is not just a sponsor but a wonderful friend of football. Michael's enthusiasm for PlayStation4 and football is infectious and it is a delight having such an individual involved with our wonderful sport.

"I would like to wish all the clubs the best of luck and we look forward to seeing another NSW club being honoured as the National Premier League Champions following in the footsteps of Sydney United 58 FC (2013, 2016) and Blacktown City FC (2015)."

The PS4 NPL NSW Men's commences on Saturday the 11th of March as Sutherland Sharks host Manly United, Bonnyrigg White Eagles take on Sydney Olympic, Parramatta FC tackle Wollongong Wolves and the new kids on the block Sydney FC battle Rockdale City Suns. Two matches will then take shape on Sunday to conclude Round 1.

The PS4 National Premier Leagues 2 NSW Men's competition kicks off this Saturday the 4th of March while the PS4 National Premier Leagues Women's (Sunday 2nd April), Women's 2 (Sunday 9th April), and Men's 3 (Saturday 11th March) conclude the PS4 NPL competition openers in NSW.

Don't forget to tune in each and every Thursday's at 6pm, kicking off on Thursday 9th of March as a brand new show the PS4 NPL Live Show takes off hosted by Srine Demachkie.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 may have been crowned PS4 NPL Champions of Australia last season but it was a different story for a vastly youthful U20 side who failed to mount a finals challenge despite claiming several big scalps throughout the year.

After finishing in eleventh position the Reds usher in the new season against an APIA Leichhardt side set on another top four finish after completing the 2016 season in third position. APIA matched it with the competitions finest at their best last year, spurred on by a sterling campaign from golden boot winner Duncan Stewart, but were eventually eliminated by Sydney Olympic in the semi-finals.

Sydney United Sports Centre was the scene of that heart-breaking 2-1 semi-final defeat to Olympic last year – the Tigers will hope this visit to Edensor Park will yield a more positive result.
