MATCH PREVIEW

It took four weeks but Sydney United 58 has finally broken through for their first win of the season. Whether it took the resignation of coach Davor Bajsic to kick the Reds into action only the players will know.

This round United 58 will be out to make it two straight wins when they take on heated rivals Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Arguably the biggest rivalry in the competition, this match never disappoints no matter the form going into the clash.

Bonnyrigg has paid the price for a preseason injury crisis which gutted the team of a number of its existing and newly acquired stars.

Without a win so far this season, the White Eagles will likely mark this match as a potential turning point.

Sydney United 58 has looked disjointed and out of sync at times. The mercurial Panny Nikas will once again have to carry the load if his teammates fail to fire.

Adding extra spice to the clash is the return of Mark Rudan as Sydney United 58 coach. Rudan has stepped in as Bajsic's replacement for the rest of the season and will be on a mission to return his team back to their ruthless best.

It is a match not lacking in passion and that is sure to continue on Sunday.

REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 FC 2 - Sutherland Sharks 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A magical strike from Panny Nikas helped Sydney United 58 FC to their first win of the 2017 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's season with a 2-1 victory against Sutherland Sharks 2-1.

Goals in either half from Nikas were the difference as Sydney United 58 FC looked more like the side that dominated the 2016 season.

Josh Da Silva gave Sutherland hope in the 62nd minute when he tied the scores up at 1-1, but it was always going to be hard to stop United 58 in front of the vocal home support from the BOKA Stand.

The victory capped off a turbulent week for the Reds on a good note and should hopefully set the tone for a return to winning ways for the remainder of the season.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC 4 - Bonnyrigg White Eagles 0 at Lambert Park

The APIA Leichhardt Tigers continued their flawless start to the season in the first leg of the Robbie Younis Annual Challenge Cup, defeating the Bonnyrigg White Eagles 4-0 in their Round 4 fixture of the PlayStation®4 National Premier League NSW Men's competition.

Celebrating the most prolific goal scorer in the history of the competition, and a former player of both clubs, APIA Leichhardt earned the honour of being the first to etch their name in the trophy with an emphatic victory at Lambert Park on Sunday night.

First-half goals from Themba Muata-Marlow (31') and Sean Symons (45') got the home side off to a strong start, before new signing Joshua Symons (51') joined his brother on the score sheet with a classy second-half effort. Japanese playmaker Tasuku Sekiya (66') put the cherry on top of a decisive win.

The Tigers dominated from start to finish as the White Eagles struggled to maintain possession through the midfield, and rued missed opportunities in front of goal.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 will look to regain their form after back to back defeats when bottom-placed rivals Bonnyrigg White Eagles arrive at Edensor Park on Sunday.

The White Eagles have failed to claim a single point so far this campaign and are coming off the back of a 7-0 hounding from APIA Leichhardt Tigers in round four.

However, with Bonnyrigg starting the 2016 campaign in similarly poor fashion before finishing the regular season in third place, Sydney United 58 need to be wary of a White Eagles side capable of matching anyone on their day.
