FROM THE CLUB

Today we welcome Parramatta FC to Edensor.

The return of Mark Rudan has seen our mojo return with four straight victories.

Today we aim to extended to five against an extremely well coached and organised Parramatta outfit.

We are looking forward to an exciting afternoon of football.

COME ON UNITED!

MATCH PREVIEW

The horror start to the season has been forgotten and a winning mentality has been restored at Sydney United 58.

This week the Reds host Parramatta FC and will have nothing other than continuing their winning streak when Franco Cosentino's team come to Sydney United Sports Centre.

Gosue Sama found the back of the net from the penalty spot for Parramatta in a disappointing performance against APIA Leichhardt Tigers last round.

The boys from Melita Stadium will need to lift their game to avoid suffering a third consecutive loss.

REVIEWS

Sydney FC 0 - Sydney United 58 4 at Lambert Park

Sydney United 58 FC has recorded a commanding 4-0 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win against of Sydney FC at Lambert Park on Saturday night.

A double in each half helped the visitors to another three competition points with Peter Markovic and Matt Sim finding the back of the net as well as Nick Olsen who scored a brace.

The win is the fourth straight for Sydney United 58 who have rediscovered their mojo after the return of Mark Rudan as head coach.

Parramatta FC 1 - APIA Leichhardt Tigers 3 at Melita Stadium

Two late goals from super sub Matthew West has helped APIA Leichhardt Tigers clinch a 3-1 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition win against Parramatta FC at Melita Stadium on Saturday night.

It was a magical final ten minutes to the match for West who gave APIA the lead in the 82nd minute before wrapping up the result with a strike in the 92nd.

It was a tough result for Parramatta, who would've felt they were on the cusp of securing another hard fought competition point against one of the leagues front runners when they levelled the scores through Gosue Sama in the 54th minute.

In truth the home side probably deserved something out of the game too: a series of injured players and a couple of calamitous missed chances late in the game, however ensured that it wasn't their night.

The win elevates APIA back to the top of the table ahead of second placed Rockdale City Suns.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 were held to a draw against Sydney FC at Lambert Park last weekend, and now turn their attentions to their round 8 matchup with Parramatta FC on Sunday afternoon, where they will need a result to keep from slipping too far behind first-placed Sutherland Sharks. Parramatta FC, for their part, arrive at Sydney United Sports Centre a week after their 4-1 loss to APIA Leichhardt at Melita Stadium, a result the visitors will be looking to forget as they look for three points to reboot their hopes of finishing in the top six spots. This fixture ended in a 1-1 draw last season, but Sydney United won't settle for a point on Sunday as they look to keep pressure on the competition leaders.
