FROM THE CLUB

Today we welcome the players and officials of the Wollongong Wolves.

Special mention to their Goalkeeper, Justin Pasfield, who spent very successful times at our club, helping us win a championship and Waratah Cup.

Wollongong always come to play and we expect a strong, tight encounter.

Last week saw Mark Rudan return, and he engineered a derby win over Bonnyrigg.

We are hoping we can continue our resurgence over the next few weeks.

COME ON UNITED!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 FC has returned to the winners circle and a familiar face in Mark Rudan is back coaching the club.

All is turning for the Edensor Park based side and Monday's clash against Wollongong Wolves will be a test to see if the Reds have truly turned a corner.

Panny Nikas has been in inspired form in recent weeks and will be the man United 58 will turn to against the Wolves.

Patrick Antelmi helped the Wolves end APIA's winning run with an upset victory against the Tigers at Wollongong last round.

Antelmi will once again pair up with former Japan international Yuzo Tashiro when the South Coast team travels up to Sydney United Sports Centre.

Both teams are hard to beat on their day, but have also suffered their fair share of lapses in concentration throughout the opening rounds.

If either side can keep it together for 90 minutes they will be on the right track to take home all three competition points.

REVIEWS

Sydney United 58 FC 3 - Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Mark Rudan enjoyed a fairy tale return to the Sydney United 58 bench as his side defeated Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3-1 in their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition clash at Sydney United Sports Centre.

Panny Nikas showed why he's one of the league's best as he grabbed a brace in a scintillating display, while substitute Adrian Vranic got the other for the home side.

Bonnyrigg youngster Hassan Jalloh continues to find the back of the net but it was in vain on Sunday afternoon.

Wollongong Wolves 1- APIA Leichhardt Tigers 0 at WIN Stadium

A Patrick Antelmi goal has secured a shock 1-0 Playstation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's win for Wollongong Wolves to end APIA Leichhardt's unbeaten start to the season.

Antelmi's goal in front of the Wolves WIN Stadium faithful proved to be enough in an exciting encounter.

It was a tough day at the office for APIA who couldn't hit the back of the net despite having their fair share of chances.

The result is sure to give the Wolves a new lease on life after a run of frustrating results.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 host Wollongong Wolves at Sydney United Sports Centre in the final match of round six on Monday afternoon, where they will look to get their season back on track after a series of indifferent results in recent weeks. A 4-0 win over Bonnyrigg White Eagles last weekend was preceded by losses to Sutherland Shark and Rockdale City Suns, though the home side will be hopeful of achieving a positive result against a Wollongong Wolves team that has failed to register a point since the first round of matches. Wollongong suffered their fourth consecutive loss by three or more goals when they were defeated 3-0 at home by APIA Leichhardt. A surprise win for Wollongong could see them move up two places to ninth, while a victory for Sydney United 58 could move them into second behind Sutherland Sharks.
