FROM THE CLUB

On behalf of the Club, we would like to welcome to Lambert Park, the Manly United FC players, supporters, sponsors and administration staff, to what is a crucial match, Round 20 of the PS4 NPL NSW Men's competition.

As you are all fully aware, our Club's position in 2017 is very simple and crystal clear. If we manage to win today's encounter and the next two competition matches against Blacktown City away, and Rockdale City Suns at home in the last round of the competition, then APIA will be the 2017 League Champions.

It has been a solid and exhilarating season for the Club in 2017, with our Women and Girls' section on target to be crowned Club Champions, and being deservedly promoted to the second tier Women and Girls' League in 2018.

Our Skill Acquisition Program teams are without a doubt, and by far, the strongest in the State. In the 6, 7 and 8 age groups, we also have the strongest nursery and juniors in the State.

At the time of writing, we are running second in the NSW Club championships, in regards to senior football.

We are in the last 32 of the prestigious FFA Cup, with our pending FFA Cup clash against Olympia FC in Hobart Tasmania this coming Tuesday, 1st August of massive and significant importance to the Club.

We are also now pleased to have finalised the playing surface rejuvenation of the synthetic pitch at Lambert Park, at a cost of $85K.

Our 365 Soccer Sixes is once again on target to having a staggering 300 teams, and again playing numbers for our summer competition commencing on 4th September, 2017, here at Lambert Park. As such, an exciting few weeks awaits us.

In closing, we thank you our 43 alliance partners and sponsors for your greatly valued financial backing of the Club and, in acknowledgement of their generosity, we invite you to support their company, and services. Their websites are listed below:

MATCH PREVIEW

The chance at stealing the premiership title from Blacktown City seemed all but pipe dream for APIA Leichhardt Tigers as little as seven days ago.

However, Danial Cummins side are back in the race for the title thanks to their opponents on Saturday, Manly United FC.

While APIA will still need results to go their way for the impossible to become reality, a win against Manly is the first step.

Manly won't be easy opposition for APIA, a lesson learnt by Blacktown last round, but the Lambert Park side has the pieces to collect victory.

Jordan Murray found his scoring touch against Parramatta and a resilient performance against Sydney Olympic last week helped APIA clinch a vital three points.

Manly on the other hand is in peak form and racing up the table after a string of big wins.

Warren Grieve's side has found their mojo and have the confidence to take on any team and win.

It is a match with high stakes and both teams will give nothing less than huge performance.

REVIEWS

Sydney Olympic FC 1 - APIA Leichhardt Tigers 2 at Belmore Sports Centre

APIA Leichhardt Tigers have sent a message to league leaders Blacktown City after a 2-1 win against Sydney Olympic FC at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday, a loss that saw the Blues exit the top five for now.

APIA raced to an early lead through a David D'Apuzzo penalty before doubling their advantage early in the second half thanks to a Sean Symons goal.

A late to Jinya An strike gave the Tigers some heart palpitations late in the game, but in reality it was too little too late from the home side.

The win moves APIA only three points behind Blacktown City and busts the race for the Premiership title open with three weeks to play.

Manly United FC 2- Blacktown City FC 1 at Cromer Park

MANLY United showed they are a genuine PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition title contender after beating league leaders Blacktown City FC 2-1 on Saturday night at Cromer Park.

A brace from Dejan Pandurevic ended Blacktown's incredible undefeated run and boosted his Manly side's finals hopes.

Joey Gibbs had put Blacktown in the lead after only five minutes before Pandurevic levelled the scores just after the halftime break.

With ten minutes left on the clock, Pandurevic struck again to clinch a vital three points and keep the Premiership race wide open for at least another week.

MATCH PREVIEW

APIA Leichhardt Tigers will be targeting a win to sure up their position the top five when reigning premiers Manly United arrive at Lambert Park in Saturday's final match.

Franco Consentino's side come into the encounter level on 30 points with fifth-placed Rockdale City Suns and must be wary of Sydney United 58 side lurking one point behind in sixth.

The Tigers have looked potential challengers for the majority of the season but will need to see off Manly with minimum fuss considering two huge fixtures against Blacktown City and Rockdale are to follow in the final fortnight of competition.

It makes three points against the Cromer Park outfit essential for APIA who will bank on the likes of Aedon Kyra (14 goals in 19 appearances) and Jordan Morfitis (seven goals in 17 appearances) to keep their top five credentials in check.
