FROM THE CLUB

MATCH OF THE DECADE!

We would like to welcome to Lambert Park today, Rockdale City Suns FC, the players, officials, sponsors and administrative staff, to what will be the last exhilarating round of the PS4 NPL NSW Men's Competition.

Today's match of the decade, will be a 90 minute nail biter, with so much at stake ensuring we all sit on the edge of our seats, for both teams!

A victory for APIA will deliver, for the first time in 14 long years, the coveted 2017 PS4 NPL NSW Men's Championship.

If the club is able to win the League Championship, APIA will qualify for the 2017 National Premier Leagues Finals Series playoff versus all the other League Champions from the other States within Australia.

The Winner of this national title will be rewarded with automatic entry into the Final 32 of the 2018 Westfield FFA Cup.

As such, we are grateful to our supporters, we thank you for your presence here today, strongly supporting your team.

Your support is extremely appreciated and we are proud of the strong representation from every section of our Club especially our junior players, our Elite Development Program, Skill Acquisition Program players and our NSW Youth Boys, our State League Women and Girls, who due to a BYE today, have turned up to support the Men's First Grade in what, for the Club, is a momentous occasion.

It is within our grasp and all of us are with the team in mind and spirit and we wish them well. The players have worked hard to reach this pinnacle and will, today, play their hearts out again, such is their mind set, to achieve what the Club has been striving for, for well over a decade.

As well, a fervent thank you to all our Sponsors, without whom as you all know by now, the Club would simply not be viable.

A big thank you to all our supporters who follow APIA through thick and thin, under rain, storm, lightning and hail, you all know who you are, a big thank you, your support is invaluable.

MATCH PREVIEW

It all comes down to this one game for APIA Leichhardt Tigers as they host Rockdale City Suns,

A draw is enough for APIA to claim the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Premiership but Rockdale will be looking to land an early salvo before a likely finals clash by ruining the Lambert Park party.

APIA has performed well in big games this season and coach Danial Cummins will be banking on another star showing from his players in arguably their biggest game of the season.

For Rockdale this match proves a tantalising chance to end their rival's premiership dreams.

Paul Reid will have his players up for this match and with so much on the line for their opponents they will need to be at their best to keep in the match.

The equation is simple for APIA, but anything can happen in football.

REVIEWS

Blacktown City FC 0 - APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC 1 at Lily's Football Centre

APIA Leichhardt Tigers are only one game away from clinching the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's Premiership after defeating league leaders Blacktown City 1-0 at Lily's Football Centre on Sunday.

A 68th minute Jordan Murray goal was the difference as the visitors took advantage of a rare Blacktown defensive lapse.

Both sides appeared fatigued from midweek FFA Cup matches, but Danial Cummins APIA team found a way to secure the three points during a physical and relentless 90 minutes.

APIA now leads the competition by two points ahead of Blacktown City with the Lambert Park side in pole position to secure the title with only a draw against Rockdale City Suns in the final round required.

Rockdale City Suns 2 - Wollongong Wolves 1 at Ilinden Sports Centre

An Aleks Canak double has all but put an end to the finals hopes of Wollongong Wolves as Rockdale City Suns secured a 2-1 win at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Canak's strikes in the 15th and 65th minutes helped Rockdale to secure a vital three competition points despite a fast finish from Wollongong.

The visitors thought they may have enough momentum to snatch a draw in the final moments of the match after Patrick Antelmi scored in the 81st minute.

"However, it wasn't to be for Wollongong whose slim finals hopes rest on claiming a comprehensive win against Sydney FC next week and hope Sydney Olympic FC lose by an even bigger margin on the road against Sutherland Sharks."

THE RACE TOWARDS THE PS4 NPL NSW MEN'S FINALS SERIES

What your club needs to do to make the finals of the PlayStation 4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

1. APIA LEICHHARDT TIGERS FC

Best Finish: 1st

Worst Finish: 2nd

With the best defence in the league and the best attack, APIA's rise to the summit of the competition table after a vital victory over Blacktown City had an air of inevitability and vindication about it.

The Tigers have one hand on the Premiership trophy heading into the final round of the regular season, and only need a draw against Rockdale at Lambert Park on Sunday afternoon to be officially crowned premiers for 2017.

The incentives for finishing top don't stop there.

APIA will enjoy a week off - a much needed reward after a hectic schedule in the Waratah and Westfield FFA Cup - as well as an all-important second chance in the finals if they can secure victory over Rockdale City Suns in the final round of the season.

Can APIA take out the Premiership something they last won fourteen long seasons ago? The Suns stand in their way of that fate.

2. BLACKTOWN CITY FC

Best Finish: 1st

Worst Finish: 2nd

Having spent a total of 58 days on top of the competition table, more than any other team in the league, Blacktown City's demoralising defeat to APIA on Sunday afternoon may prove to be a defining moment in not just the race for the Premiership trophy, but also the Club Championship.

After Round 21's results, Blacktown City hold a narrow 8-point lead over APIA Leichhardt Tigers in the Club Championship.

Worryingly for Mark Crittenden's men, their form looks to have plummeted at the worst possible time (excluding their 3-2 heroics in the Westfield FFA Cup Round of 32 knocking off the Central Coast Mariners).

A dismal run of just one point in three games has Blacktown in alarming decline on the eve of the finals.

And it doesn't get any easier in their final match of the season; when they travel to the home of familiar foe, Sydney United 58. The Reds suffered a heart-breaking defeat at the hands of Manly United last round, effectively ending their season, but would undoubtedly love to drive another dagger into the heart of Blacktown City's Premiership aspirations after they lost out to them in the 2016 Grand Final.

In saying that, if there's one team that you should never count out of any calculations on doing the unthinkable its Blacktown City who carry a strong never say die attitude that may well get them across that line once more.

3. ROCKDALE CITY SUNS FC

Best Finish: 3rd

Worst Finish: 4th

Rockdale City Suns hold all the cards in the race for the Premiership trophy.

If they manage to defeat APIA in the final game of the season, it opens the door for Blacktown City to perform a Stephen Bradbury-esque come from behind victory - sealing their second Premiership in just three seasons.

Knowing a victory will secure a third place finish and a vital second chance in the first round of the finals, Rockdale City Suns will not be short of motivation in this fixture at Lambert Park.

Whilst the comfort of a second chance in the finals is on offer for Rockdale if they can beat APIA on the weekend, the perils of a straight knockout fixture looms large if they lose and Manly United beat Hakoah.

Rockdale's final game of the season against APIA appears to be a match of almost innumerable consequences and huge significance as an enthralling race for both the premiership and top five qualification reaches its climax.

4. MANLY UNITED FC

Best Finish: 3rd

Worst Finish: 5th

If you don't believe in miracles, watch the highlights from Manly United's incredible 3-2-comeback victory against Sydney United 58 on Sunday afternoon.

A victory that not only ensures Manly's qualification for this year's finals, but also brings an end to the top five ambitions of Mark Rudan's team.

Erratic at best in recent weeks, with a deserved win over Blacktown City followed up with a crushing 5-0 defeat at the hands of APIA Leichhardt Tigers, Manly United will be hoping to head into their do or die finals match against either Sydney Olympic or Wollongong Wolves full of confidence.

With Dejan Pandurevic firing on all cylinders and the experienced head of Dylan Macallister leading the line, Manly will be tricky customers in the finals series and could make a run all the way to the Grand Final if they produce their best football.

5. SYDNEY OLYMPIC FC

Best Finish: 4th

Worst Finish: 6th

When Sergio Aguero scored that classic goal to win Manchester City the Premier League title in 2012, he ultimately had goal difference to thank, as his side finished level on points with Sir Alex Ferguson's

Manchester United team.

Sydney Olympic, sitting just three points above sixth placed Wollongong Wolves, may be equally thankful for the invention of goal difference come full-time in their match against Sutherland Sharks on the weekend.

Olympic will be short-priced favourites to take all three points against Sutherland, and their 9 point buffer in goal difference over the Wolves may prove a mountain too tall to climb for a desperate Wollongong side.

Having already secured victories over APIA and Manly United this season, Olympic will fancy their chances if they can secure qualification in the finals. Apart from their inexplicable hoodoo against Blacktown City, Olympic have no reason to fear any side in the top five and with Jinya An and Yu Kuboki mercilessly leading their attack, they could prove a real dark horse in this year's finals series.

6. WOLLONGONG WOLVES FC

Best Finish: 5th

Worst Finish: 6th

Clinging to a belief in an unlikely top five qualification like an adolescent child stubbornly refusing to concede the fiction of Santa, Wollongong host Sydney FC in the final round of the competition, needing to overturn a whopping 9 goal differential to have any hope of qualifying for this year's finals series.

Patrick Antelmi has demonstrated his appetite for goals this season and Peter Simonoski has been scoring goals for fun in recent weeks.

But their efforts may not be enough as Wollongong are still reliant on Sutherland snatching an unlikely victory over Olympic for the south-coast team to have any chance of qualification.

MATCH PREVIEW

APIA Leichhardt Tigers host Rockdale City Suns at Lambert Park in the weekend's pivotal fixture in regards to the shaping of the top five.

Both sides must avoid a defeat at all costs – a loss for third-placed APIA will see the visitors overtake Franco Consentino's side on the ladder and the Tigers will fall out of the finals completely should Sydney FC and Sydney United 58 also win.

The maths is far simpler for Rockdale who will scrape a position in the top five should they continue their excellent run of late season form and beat the Tigers at Lambert Park. James Temelkovski has spurred the visitors to seven wins in their last nine and has contributed a remarkable eight goals in his last four appearances.

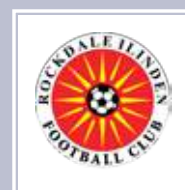

Although APIA may have more to lose the Tigers have struck a fine run of results in recent matches and appeared near their best in last Sunday's demolition of Blacktown City. If dynamic pairing Aedon Kyra and Jordan Morfitis continue their outstanding seasons the writing may be on the wall for Rockdale who will need to muster a strong defensive performance in order to play finals football.
