FROM THE CLUB

Welcome to the final home game for the Bonnyrigg White Eagles of the PlayStation 4 NPL NSW Men's season.

The Bonnyrigg White Eagles welcome the Wollongong Wolves to Bonnyrigg Sports Ground in the round twenty clash.

The boys have been fantastic in the second half of the season and would like to end the 2017 campaign at home on the best possible note.

We wish the Wollongong Wolves players, staff and fans the best of luck for the remainder of the 2017 season.

The Bonnyrigg White Eagles would like to thank its 2017 club sponsors as well as the loyal supporters who have stuck by the club during some tough times throughout the 2017 season.

MATCH PREVIEW

Bonnyrigg White Eagles will be out to play the role of party pooper when they host Wollongong Wolves on Saturday.

A win for the White Eagles would break Wollongong's winning streak and all but end any hope of playing in the finals for Jacob Timpano's team.

Bonnyrigg did everything but win last week against Rockdale City Suns, dominating Paul Reid's side for the majority of the match but failed to put their opponents away.

They will not make the same mistake against a Wolves team with so much riding on the result at Bonnyrigg Sports Club.

The Wolves have been in incredible form to close the season and have closed the gap to only two points between them and fifth placed Sydney Olympic.

Nothing less than victory will really be enough for Wollongong and with Bonnyrigg out of playoff contention they will be determined to flip the script.

REVIEWS

Rockdale City Suns 2 - Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 at Ilinden Sports Centre

A brace from Alec Urosevski has helped Rockdale City Suns snatch a 2-1 PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's victory against Bonnyrigg at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

A goal in each half from Urosevski helped the home team claim an unlikely victory after Bonnyrigg failed to turn their domination of the match into goals.

Former Socceroos shot stopper Ante Covic delivered an inspired performance for Rockdale making save after save to deny a relentless White Eagles attack.

Shervin Adeli gave the visitors hope when he struck from the penalty spot, but Bonnyrigg could not break down Covic and the Suns defence.

The win moves Rockdale into outright third on the ladder with only three rounds remaining until the playoffs.

Wollongong Wolves 3 - Sutherland Sharks 0 at Albert Butler Memorial Park

Wollongong Wolves kept their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's playoff push on track with a comfortable 3-0 win against a youthful Sutherland Sharks at Butler Memorial Park on Sunday.

The home side took charge early on with striker Peter Simonoski finding the net twice in the first twenty minutes.

A 60th minute penalty from star man Yuzo Tashiro wrapped up the result for the Wolves.

The win keeps Wollongong in a three-way battle for the competition's final playoff spot with three rounds to play.

MATCH PREVIEW

It's a must win game for Bonnyrigg White Eagles who will be looking to keep their finals hopes alive when Wollongong Wolves arrive at Bonnyrigg Sports Club on Saturday evening.

After a sensational mid-season run of seven wins in a row the White Eagles have suffered back to back losses to Sutherland Sharks and Rockdale and are now four points behind the fifth-placed Suns with only a fortnight of action remaining.

Opponents Wollongong have endured a consistent year and will be looking for their first win since a round 14 win over Manly United. The Wolves are currently in eleventh position and have little but pride and club championship points at stake but will relish the chance to bring an end to Bonnyrigg's top-five aspirations.
