MATCH PREVIEW

Parramatta FC host Sutherland Sharks on Saturday in the penultimate round of the season.

While neither side can make the playoffs, they will be determined to end their season with a win.

Parramatta has lost 14 straight matches coming into Saturday's clash and will be desperate to end their streak.

Sutherland will be out to make it two wins in as many games after a high scoring win last round.

Tomohiro Kajiyama of the Sharks leads the Golden Boot race on 13 goals and will be out to secure the scorers title.

Sutherland will be favourites for this clash but a desperate Parramatta team may be able to cause an upset.

REVIEWS

Hakoah Sydney City East 1 - Parramatta FC 0 at Hensley Athletic Field

Hakoah Sydney City East edged out a spirited Parramatta FC side 1-0 at Hensley Athletic Field on Saturday, with a controversial free kick midway through the second half settling the match.

After dominating the opening period of the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash without a breakthrough, Dean Bereveskos put the hosts into a deserved lead in the 74th minute with a free kick which was initially flagged for offside by the linesman, handing Parramatta FC their 14th straight defeat.

It was a disappointing result for Parramatta who felt they had done enough to end their run of losses but Hakoah's incredible fighting spirit did enough to wrap up the points.

Sutherland Sharks FC 4 - Sydney FC 3 at Seymour Shaw

Sutherland Sharks has edged out visitors Sydney FC 4-3 in a thrilling PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash at Seymour Shaw on Saturday.

It was a confidence building return to the winners circle for Sutherland as a Jeremy Cox, Josh Da Silva, Nathan Elasi and Tomohiro Kajiyama all struck to guide the boys from the shire to victory.

Inexperience got the better of Sydney FC with defensive lapses costing them despite them putting three on the scoreboard through Juan Zapata's double and a John Iredale goal.

VALE LES MURRAY

Football NSW is deeply saddened to hear the news of the passing of Australian iconic legend, 'Mr Football', Les Murray today.

Les was one of Australian Football's finest ambassadors and advocates and his countless hours and relentless efforts promoting football across Australia, from grassroots to the elite, will stand both unequalled and forever admired.

Les' love for football and his long legacy of contribution towards it will be long live in the memory of everyone not only at Football NSW, but the entire football community across Australia.

Football NSW Chairman Anter Isaac paid tribute to the man that put this sport on the map in Australia.

"To many people, Les was football.

"I, like so many football fans, grew up watching Les on SBS promote football, and especially Australian football, daily.

"And along with his good friend, Johnny Warren, continued to protect Australian football, its clubs, players and coaches, when others simply could not or would not.

"For his courage and unquestioned loyalty to football, we will be indebted, and Les has left us all an incredible benchmark to carry on his work and commitment in the years to come."

Football NSW would like to pass on its deepest condolences to the Murray family.

MATCH PREVIEW

Premiers elect Sutherland Sharks need a point to confirm the title when they travel to bottom-placed Parramatta on Saturday afternoon.

Nick Dimovski's side have long stood out as a clear favourites for the minor premiership and all but sealed the triumph last Saturday thanks to a 3-1 win over Sydney FC at Seymour Shaw.

Sutherland will relish the chance to flex their championship muscles against the struggling Eagles who conceded 11 against Hakoah Sydney City East last weekend.

The cellar-dwellers have lost 15 matches in a row and would need to produce the upset of the season on Saturday to delay Sutherland's coronation.
