FROM THE CLUB

It is with great pleasure we extend a warm welcome to the players, officials and supporters from Sydney FC tonight. This clash will highlight some of the up and coming younger players in the PS4 NPL NSW Men's competition. Although both teams are in the lower half of the table it will be in the very near future that the experiences of this year will bear fruit. The Sharks have young guns like, Cox, Brown, O'Shea, McStay, Loe and Fitzpatrick who have shown great promise and are showing the benefit of playing with and against experienced NPL 1 players.

Sydney has a flavouring of ex-sharks players who were identified as potential Sydney F.C. Hyundai A-League players. Former Shark's Coach Robbie Stanton will hope players like Curtis and Malfara will do the job against their former club. The Sharks will be looking to experienced players like Steve Kayes, Matthew Gordon, Nathan Elasi and Wade Oostendorp to lead the way for the younger brigade.

The under 20s appeared to have emerged from a "rocky period" to press on in their goal to reach the "holy grail of the premiership." Presently they are four points clear of nearest rival Blacktown City with Sydney in third spot.

It will be a big game for both teams tonight. Jake Borromeo has signalled he's back to his goal scoring ways. Christian Torelli, Harry Sutherland and Adam Massoud have hit top form at the right time and with Pappa & Everett to guide the ship they are looking like a very solid outfit.

The under 18s unfortunately went down narrowly last week against Wolves in a game that would have seen the Sharks enter the top five in the race. The team has developed well and steadily climbed the ladder after a slow start to the season. If they can convert a small proportion of the chances they have created they will continue to trouble any team in the competition.

The Junior Association Under 9s teams from Engadine Eagles, St John Bosco, Engadine Crusaders and North Sutherland Rockets will tonight provide the full time/halftime entertainment by showing their skills in small sided games.

Everyone can look forward to a great night with some highly entertaining football.

Go the Sharks!!!!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will host Sydney FC on Saturday night with both teams out to end their season on a high note.

While the finals are out of reach, there will be still plenty to play for as Grant Lee's Sharks and Robbie Stanton's Young Sky Blues battle it out.

Tomohiro Kajiyama has been a bright spot during a tough season for Sutherland and the Japanese midfielder will want to add to his league leading 12 goals.

Sydney FC has had their playing stocks stretched in recent weeks with players backing up from matches with the A-League squad as they step up their preseason program.

Players such as Chris Zuvella and Charles Lokolingoy have impressed this season and are on the cusp of making an A-League breakthrough. With three rounds to go Sydney FC will be giving it their all to finish their maiden season in the competition as high up the ladder as possible.

REVIEWS

Wollongong Wolves 3 - Sutherland Sharks 0 at Albert Butler Memorial Park

Wollongong Wolves kept their PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's playoff push on track with a comfortable 3-0 win against a youthful Sutherland Sharks at Butler Memorial Park on Sunday.

The home side took charge early on with striker Peter Simonoski finding the net twice in the first twenty minutes.

A 60th minute penalty from star man Yuzo Tashiro wrapped up the result for the Wolves.

The win keeps Wollongong in a three-way battle for the competition's final playoff spot with three rounds to play.

Sydney FC 1 - Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Lambert Park

Sydney FC and Hakoah Sydney City East shared the points on a frosty night at Lambert Park, settling for a 1-1 draw after exchanging goals in the first half of the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition clash.

Hakoah's player-coach Gavin Rae opened the scoring early, albeit for the opposition, with an own goal, before Hakoah pegged their opponents back with a Neil Jablonski header a little under twenty minutes later.

A goalless second half wasn't for the want of trying, but a draw would have appeared the fairest result – and so it ended.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sutherland Sharks will have a firm grasp on the 2017 Premiership if the leaders can defeat Sydney FC at home on Saturday afternoon.

Nick Dimovski's side have led the competition outright since the opening round and will fancy their chances at driving home their title charge and ending the faint premiership hopes of the third-placed Sky Blues when the two heavyweights meet.

The Sharks have recovered admirably following a mid-season wobble that threatened to hamstring their campaign with four wins from their last five matches. With three rounds of the regular season remaining Sutherland hold a four-point advantage over Blacktown City and are six points ahead of Sydney FC.

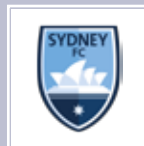

The Sky Blues have proven their quality throughout the campaign but will need to steel themselves for one of the biggest meetings of the year as they search for a victory that would reignite the premiership race in a big way.
