FROM THE CLUB

After 2 straight wins and a return to the top 5, we are home again against a very good Sydney Olympic side.

This is a crunch game for both sides, a 6 pointer, and will have a bid bearing on the finals composition come seasons end.

We are looking forward to a tough entertaining encounter with thrills and spills.

Come on United!

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 could inflict huge damage on the top five prospects of Sydney Olympic when the two rivals clash at Edensor Park in round 20's final fixture.

The Reds have won three consecutive matches to go within striking distance of fifth-placed Rockdale and with the Suns handed the difficult assignment of Blacktown City an hour earlier United 58 will rate their chances of leapfrogging Rockdale on the ladder.

They'll have to come an Olympic side who have slipped away from finals contention having won just one of their last five fixtures. A 3-3 draw with APIA Leichhardt last Sunday represents improvement for the Blues but with only three rounds remaining and key matches against Hakoah and Sutherland to come, Olympic will have to muster one of their best performances in recent weeks to keep their finals hopes alive.

REVIEWS

Parramatta FC 0 - Sydney United 58 FC 5 at Melita Stadium

Sydney United 58 have re-entered the PlayStation®4 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's top five after easily accounting for 10-man Parramatta 5-0 in their round 19 clash at Melita Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

Mark Rudan's side struck twice in an eventful opening fifteen minutes with the Reds racing to a 2-0 lead thanks to goals from Panny Nikas and Matt Sim.

Parramatta were reduced to ten men after 13 minutes following a bizarre red card to Victor Anyimba who was dismissed for lashing out at Peter Markovic on the halfway line.

The striker's removal cut any hopes of an unlikely Parramatta comeback short, and although Marshall Soper's side battled diligently for the remainder of the contest, the visitors added three second half goals through Sim as well as substitutes Adrian Vranic and Yutaro Shin to leapfrog Sydney Olympic into fifth position.

Sydney Olympic FC 1 - APIA Leichhardt Tigers 2 at Belmore Sports Centre

APIA Leichhardt Tigers have sent a message to league leaders Blacktown City after a 2-1 win against Sydney Olympic FC at Belmore Sports Ground on Sunday, a loss that saw the Blues exit the top five for now.

APIA raced to an early lead through a David D'Apuzzo penalty before doubling their advantage early in the second half thanks to a Sean Symons goal.

A late to Jinya An strike gave the Tigers some heart palpitations late in the game, but in reality it was too little too late from the home side.

The win moves APIA only three points behind Blacktown City and busts the race for the Premiership title open with three weeks to play.

MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney United 58 entertain Sydney FC on Sunday with the visiting Sky Blues aiming to continue their premiership assault.

Sydney enjoyed a dominant 4-0 win over APIA Leichhardt a fortnight ago to cement their credentials as premiership contenders and have been playing some of the finest football in the competition over the past month.

Opponents Sydney United 58 are back in contention for a top five spot after a 4-1 victory over Wollongong Wolves in round seventeen but will need to recapture the form shown earlier in the season to match the Sky Blues on Sunday.

The visitors will have first grade coach Rob Stanton at the helm following David Zdrilic's departure to German outfit RB Leipzig.
