KICKOFF

VS

ROUND 2

LAMBERT PARK 4.15PM SUNDAY 18TH MARCH 2018

On behalf of the Club, we would like to welcome to Lambert Park the Sydney Olympic FC players, supporters, sponsors and administration staff, to a Round 2 nail biter between two old adversaries of the game.

Our Tigers Den and all APIA supporters will need to roar as one today, and support our players to the maximum, give respect to our opponents of course, but make no mistake, the focus should be on our boys, to cheer them on to another victory today, and make it two in a row.

On this note, the Club would not be successful without the support of all our sponsors. Our sponsors are the life blood of the club. They are vital to maintain cash flow. Without our sponsors we would struggle to host such a challenging match as today.

As such, we dedicate today to our Sponsors.

Firstly, to our major sponsor, Wests Ashfield Leagues, who has sponsored the Club for nearly a quarter of a century! Yes, this is true. We try to give back to them by encouraging all of you to become members of Wests Ashfield Leagues, as they do so much for us, to the point, that APIA will be eternally grateful to them.

MATCH PREVIEW

#NPLNSW

APIA Leichhardt Tigers had a perfect start to the season and a return to home ground Lambert Park is sure to inspire them to another great performance.

Striker Jordan Murray and midfielder Tasuku Sekiya were the main stars for APIA in last round's comeback win and will be tasked with doing the same against their inner-west rivals.

After conceding an early goal against Manly, APIA had to get their game on track. They will be focused on firing from the opening whistle this time around.

Sydney Olympic were also round 1 winners with the departure of their coach ahead of the season proving to have limited impact on their form.

The club's new Spanish import, former La Liga player Alejandro Sanchez Lopez caught the attention of many at Belmore, and will be one to watch at Lambert Park.

New Olympic boss Abbas Saad had the Belmore based team firing on all cylinders in their victory over Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

APIA will be a bigger challenge for Olympic but neither side will be making it easy for their opposition.

Manly United 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 2 at Cromer Park

APIA Leichhardt extracted sweet revenge for last year's grand final defeat, opening their 2018 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's campaign with a 2-1 come-from-behind victory over reigning Champions Manly United.

The Tigers had been forced to work by a resolute Manly defensive unit, which included a Howard Fondyke spot kick denied by a flying Dylan Mitchell mid-way through the first period.

However second half strikes in the 64th and 77th minute from Jordan Murray and Sean Symons proved decisive for the visitors, cancelling out Nikola Taneski's opener inside five minutes.

In a classy affair both sides enjoyed extended spells of dominance, however it was Billy McColl's men who held on for the three points with relative comfort.

Sydney Olympic FC 2 – Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 at Belmore Sports Ground

Alejandro Lopez scored a debut goal to give Sydney Olympic a hard fought 2-1 victory over Bonnyrigg White Eagles in their National Premier Leagues NSW Mens opening round clash at Belmore Sportsground on Sunday afternoon.

The Spanish recruit struck ten minutes from full time to gift new head coach Abbas Saad the first triumph of his managerial tenure and ensure the Belmore club continue their strong recent form over the White Eagles.

Having gone ahead early on through a Jason Madonis penalty Olympic were on the receiving end of large periods of Bonnyrigg pressure and eventually cracked when Jewook Woo planted a header past Paul Henderson midway through the second half.

But while Olympic lived dangerously at times Bonnyrigg were unable to capitalise on their dominance and the Blues eventually nicked the winner through Lopez late on.

SHARKS HUNGRY FOR BETTER SUCCESS IN 2018

Unfinished business will be the driving force behind APIA Leichhardt's 2018 season, legendary Tigers' midfielder Franco Parisi has revealed.

The Lambert Park club ended a 38 year premiership drought last season, but defeats in the grand final and Waratah Cup final has left APIA hungry and determined to make amends.

While the club will be without former coach Danial Cummins this season, Billy McColl has returned to lead the side for this campaign with his sights set on making 2018 APIA's most successful season to date.

After tasting Premiership success last season, Parisi admitted the squad are more driven than ever to achieve success in every competition.

"The message is quite simple – we are driven to win every game we play," Parisi said.

"I think it would be fair to say we have moved on from our grand final defeat last season but it is definitely going to be something which will inspire us to improve.

"Billy has brought his unique approach back this season and it is different to how Danial had us playing but i'm confident we will be in a strong position to compete for titles once again."

It has been a busy offseason for APIA in the transfer market with Howard Fondyke, Zach Mackenzie, Lachlan Roberts and former Melbourne Victory striker George Howard joining McColl's side

Luke Turnbull, Adrian Vlastelica, Matthew West, Dominic Cox and Sean O'Connell have all departed the club season.

However, it's the return of young striker Jordan Murray for his third season with APIA which Parisi believes fans should be the most excited about.

"Jordan has been great for us ever since he joined the club and every season he has developed into a more complete player," Parisi said.

"He has been really impressive so far this preseason and I think he will once again be a key contributor."

Although going short of saying APIA will be the favourites for the title this season, Parisi was adamant his side would definitely be in the mix for back to back Premiership wins.

"To win in this league you need to compete on every level and APIA will be treating each match like it is a grand final," he said.

"We won a title last season but we also lost in two finals so there is still plenty of room to grow for us.

"This season we want to make amends and go better once again."
