

KICKOFF

VS

ROUND 3 LILY HOMES STADIUM SATURDAY 24 MARCH 2018 7PM

Blacktown City FC (BCFC) welcomes its members, supporters, families and players to our first home game of the 2018 season. We would also like to welcome Bonnyrigg White Eagles FC to our home ground Lily's Homes Stadium for today's 3rd round match.

There has been some change on and off the field at BCFC in our NPL squads during the off-season but one thing remains constant is our commitment to football with quality.

1st Grade Coach Mark Crittenden and his team have worked hard to assemble a strong squad again this year. Returning to the field after a long injury lay-off is Danny Choi which is a welcome sight for the club and its supporters. A huge welcome to the returning families and also to our new 1st Grade players Devante Clut, Daniel Bragg (former BCFC junior), Charles Mendy, Stevan Savicic, Yianni Spyraakis & Mason Versi and their families.

BCFC would like to pay special mention to our 2018 Platinum, Gold, Silver & Bronze corporate partners. We welcome back LBF Concrete as our front of shirt sponsor this year along with CSG, Millars Doors & Timbers, Astro Electrical and Kennards Hire who also appear on our 1st Grade shirt. We also thank our U20's major sponsors Lily Homes & Tolson Plumbing & the U18's major sponsors Marvel Ceramics and Toro Scaffolding.

If you are looking for a drink or after match meal the club highly recommends heading to Lilys Restaurant Bar & Function Centre which is just a short walk from the ground.

Finally, best wishes for the season to all our NPL, Boys Youth, Girls Conference League and SAP teams that have been working hard during the off season.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

It's business as usual at Blacktown City with Mark Crittenden's side starting the season undefeated through their first two games.

The side will be determined to keep the streak alive when they host Bonnyrigg White Eagles on Saturday.

Rugged midfielder Connor Evans stole the show in his side's previous game with a sumptuous chip to score the winner against Sydney United 58.

Crittenden will expect more from his attackers this week as new additions Devante Clut and Charles Mendy get in sync with veteran club frontman Joey Gibbs.

Another positive sign for Blacktown City was the return of Danny Choi who played a 35 minute cameo in the second half.

Their opponents, Bonnyrigg come into the game on the back of a hard-fought 1-1 draw with Marconi Stallions.

It was the first competition point of the season for Brian Brown's team but they will need to find another level if they are to secure victory against Blacktown.

Jewook Woo once once again the main source of opportunity for the White Eagles and will likely shoulder the playmaking load once again.

David Bradasevic has looked like a shrewd signing by Brown and will make it difficult for the Blacktown strikers.

Games between Blacktown and Bonnyrigg never lack excitement and that is expected to continue on Saturday night.

Sydney United 58 0 – Blacktown City FC 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Blacktown City FC has produced a stout defensive performance to claim their first three points of the National Premier Leagues NSW season as they triumphed 1-0 against Sydney United 58 FC at Sydney United Sports Centre.

A classy chipped finish from Blacktown midfielder Connor Evans was the difference as the visitors clung on despite a fast finishing United 58.

The Reds had a perfect chance to level the scores from the penalty spot just before half time but were denied but a spectacular save from Tristan Prendergast.

Sydney United 58 FC poured on the attack in the second half, straining for an equaliser but a resolute Blacktown City FC defence held firm to open their tally for the new season.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 – Marconi Stallions1 at Bonnyrigg Sports Club

Bonnyrigg White Eagles have fought back to clinch their first point of the National Premier Leagues NSW 2018 season after a 1-1 draw with Marconi Stallions at Bonnyrigg Sports Club on Sunday night.

A Jewook Woo strike on the cusp of halftime ensured Brian Brown's side avoided a second straight defeat after Marko Jesic gave Marconi the lead from the penalty spot only six minutes into the match.

Unlike their first round victory, Marconi's early advantage wasn't enough to make it two wins from as many games as Bonnyrigg found their form in the later stages of the clash.

Bonnyrigg will be disappointed to have not found a winner after a dominant second 45 minutes but late heroics from Marconi's shot stopper Nenad Vekic kept the scoreline locked at the final whistle.

MALLIA THE MALTESE WARRIOR

Blacktown City FC are set to have a fully-fledged Maltese international on their hands as live-wire attacker Mitchell Mallia has won selection into head coach Tom Saintfiet's squad for two upcoming friendly matches later this month.

Mallia was called up by Malta for games against Luxembourg on the 22nd of March in Malta and Finland on the 26th of March in Turkey.

Currently ranked 185th on the FIFA World Rankings, Mallia isn't the first Australian with Maltese heritage to win a spot in the national team.

John Hutchinson and Manny Muscat were two other notable figures that donned the Maltese cross a couple of years ago.

Mallia will link up with former Melbourne City striker and the most decorated Maltese football in the history of the sport in Michael Mifsud. At 36, the striker has won an incredible 128 caps and has scored 40 goals.

The 25-year-old has had a memorable year thus far as he won himself a short-term contract with Hyundai A-League outfit Perth Glory where he made six appearances and scored a goal before returning to Lily Homes Stadium to take part in the 2018 NPL NSW Men's top tier competition.

A former Australian youth international who was also an Under 17's Joey and Under 23's Young Socceroo, Mallia will see this call up as an ideal opportunity to possibly pursue a career overseas in the not too distant future.

Blacktown City finds itself at the bottom of the table after two rounds and needing a win when Bonnyrigg White Eagles arrive at Seven Hills on Saturday afternoon.

After beginning the campaign with defeats to Wollongong Wolves and Sydney United 58 the pressure is on John Carnevale's side to get off the mark against the White Eagles but they'll have to overturn both a barren run of form and a poor recent history against Bonnyrigg to do so.

Blacktown's two defeats to start the year mean City haven't won a league fixture since round eighteen of last season, meaning another defeat may begin to send alarm bells ringing for one of the competition's heavyweights.

City have also lost their past four fixtures against Bonnyrigg over the last two seasons which will provide the visitors with a great amount of confidence heading into the contest.

With last Sunday's round two clash with Marconi postponed Bonnyrigg have had an extra week to recover from a gruelling opening day victory over Sydney Olympic in which Milan Parenta's penalty gave them a 1-0 win.
