KICKOFF

VS

ROUND 3 ILINDEN SPORTS CENTRE SUNDAY 25TH MARCH 2018 5PM

Today we welcome to the Ilinden Sports Centre Sydney United 58 FC.

Our boys come into this fixture following a disappointing loss on the road last week against Wollongong Wolves. The game was played in extreme conditions with the mercury nudging 40 degrees. Despite creating a number of chances, we did not capitalise and so drove away empty handed. Same goes for our lower grades who failed to capitalise on the chances they created.

This week's opponents are yet to register a win and no doubt will be desperate for the 3 points. It promises to be an epic clash and we will be calling on all of our wonderful fans to get behind our team as we look to return to the winners circle.

We wish all of our teams competing this weekend the very best for their fixtures including our SAP teams, our Youth teams (who did very well last week against Western Sydney Wanderers) and of course to our senior teams.

As always, we would like to thank and acknowledge our wonderful sponsors who are the lifeline of our club.

We would like to thank each of our sponsors for their support of the club. In particular:

Co-major sponsors:

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Rockdale City Suns will be out to add to Sydney United 58's woes with another defeat when the two sides clash this Sunday at Illinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

Paul Reid's side goes up against a United 58 team that has struggled in the opening two rounds with back to back losses.

Both teams were on the wrong side of 1-0 scorelines and the pressure to get their season back on track will surely be a driving factor in Sunday's match.

One of the key men for Rockdale in this game will be the ever industrious Blake Ricciuto who provides the link between attack and defense with his lung busting box to box runs.

Alec Urosevski and the returning Jordan Figon will also be players to watch with the pair always a good chance of getting their names on the scoresheet.

Sydney United 58's struggles so far have not come from a lack of trying and striker Chris Payne would be wondering what he has done to deserve the bad luck he has had in the past games.

Payne has been a constant presence for the Reds but has struggled to find the rewards for his efforts.

Shannon Cole provides veteran experience to United 58 this season, while talisman Panny Nikas remains the key to the side's success.

Matches between these sides rarely lack passion and with it being a must win game for both expect nothing less on Sunday.

Wollongong Wolves FC 1 – Rockdale City Suns 0 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves picked up their first win of the National Premier Leagues NSW season with a 1-0 victory over Rockdale City Suns at WIN Stadium on a sweltering Sunday afternoon.

Quivui Fowler's first-half strike proved to be the difference in a match somewhat hampered by the soaring 38°C temperatures.

The heat clearly affected the continuity of the game from the outset, limiting the ability of the teams to match the levels of movement required for a flowing game of football. The players however dug very deep to put on an entertaining display for the fans in between the necessary and merciful drinks breaks.

Sydney United 58 0 – Blacktown City FC 1 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Blacktown City FC has produced a stout defensive performance to claim their first three points of the National Premier Leagues NSW season as they triumphed 1-0 against Sydney United 58 FC at Sydney United Sports Centre.

A classy chipped finish from Blacktown midfielder Connor Evans was the difference as the visitors clung on despite a fast finishing United 58.

The Reds had a perfect chance to level the scores from the penalty spot just before half time but were denied but a spectacular save from Tristan Prendergast.

Sydney United 58 FC poured on the attack in the second half, straining for an equaliser but a resolute Blacktown City FC defence held firm to open their tally for the new season.

Sydney United 58 will aim to preserve their 100% winning record at Ilinden Sports Centre against Rockdale City Suns on Sunday afternoon.

The Reds have made a promising start to the year after back to back wins over Marconi and Blacktown City and with first placed Wollongong involved in a tricky encounter against Sydney FC the day before there's a good chance United 58 can gain an early lead of the competition with a win over the Suns.

Rockdale will be out to stop that from happening – the Suns drew 1-1 with Sutherland on the opening day but were defeated 3-1 by Wollongong in round two having led 1-0 at half time.

Stamati Glaros' side should be boosted knowing they defeated the Reds in both clashes last campaign as they search for their first three points of the year.
