

ROUND 3 LAMBERT PARK SATURDAY 24TH MARCH 5.45PM

NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

Good evening everyone and welcome to this afternoon's match at Lambert Park.

After two rounds the signs are positive and I'm happy with the way we're shaping up in the competition this season.

A fantastic Round 1 win followed by a defeat in Round 2 that could have easily been a win, shows that we're progressing at a steady rate and we can give it a real shot this season in the NPL NSW Men's competition.

It's all about taking your chances at this level, we learnt that against the Sharks last week, and I'm expecting those lessons to be learnt heading into the game today.

I've got a lot of faith in this playing group to progress to the next level when called upon and I'm eager to see what they can produce.

I'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing during the this season and I'm looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands again today.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Sydney FC will be determined to return to winning ways when they host Wollongong Wolves on Saturday night.

Robbie Stanton's side was brought back to earth against Sutherland Sharks last week going down 2-1.

Against the Wolves the Young Sky Blues will be look to their comprehensive week one victory against Hakoah for inspiration.

Jeremy Cox will once again lead the line for Sydney FC with midfield maestro Andreas Agamemnonos pulling the strings in the middle of the park.

Wollongong come into the game on the back of a narrow 1-0 win against Rockdale City Suns in searing temperatures.

They will hope for much more comfortable conditions this time around with the experienced campaigners of Nick Montgomery, Takuya Nozawa and Yuzo Tashiro all imperative to the chances of Jacob Timpano's side.

While traditionally difficult to beat at home, Wollongong have also had a reputation in recent years of struggling on the road.

They will need to correct that this week as they play their first away game of the season.

It will be a battle of youth up against experience with plenty on the line for both sides.

Sutherland Sharks 2 – Sydney FC 1 at Seymour Shaw

Sutherland Sharks battled to their first victory of National Premier League NSW season after second half goals from Lachlan Hughes and Nick Olsen handed Grant Lee's side a 2-1 win over Sydney FC at Seymour Shaw on Saturday evening.

Hughes and Olsen each struck to give the Sharks a two-goal buffer early in the second stanza.

The visitors pulled a goal back through Hassan Jalloh midway through the half but it was who Sutherland held on for a hard-fought home triumph.

Sydney will rue both lapses that allowed Sutherland to strike and the Sky Blues' failure to capitalise on a dominant opening half display in which returning Sutherland product Jeremy Cox saw a string of opportunities go astray.

Wollongong Wolves FC 1 – Rockdale City Suns 0 at WIN Stadium

Wollongong Wolves picked up their first win of the National Premier Leagues NSW season with a 1-0 victory over Rockdale City Suns at WIN Stadium on a sweltering Sunday afternoon.

Quivui Fowler's first-half strike proved to be the difference in a match somewhat hampered by the soaring 38°C temperatures.

The heat clearly affected the continuity of the game from the outset, limiting the ability of the teams to match the levels of movement required for a flowing game of football. The players however dug very deep to put on an entertaining display for the fans in between the necessary and merciful drinks breaks.

Sydney FC have a great chance to remind the competition of their quality when they host in-form Wollongong Wolves at Lambert Park on Saturday afternoon.

The Sky Blues were hammered 6-1 by Sutherland Sharks last Saturday in a contest that saw Sydney play the majority of the counter with 10 players following the dismissal of goalkeeper David Malishev.

Despite their numerical disadvantage Sydney emerged from their heaviest ever NPL NSW defeat with a great amount of credit and will no doubt be eyeing the Wolves clash with a certain amount of vengeance.

Wollongong have enjoyed a flying start to the year after back to back wins against Blacktown City and Rockdale City Suns with Tory Musumeci, James Markovic and Jordan Nikolovski all among the goals.

The South Coast side only managed consecutive wins once throughout the entire 2017 campaign and with that feat already matched a third win in a row against a serious title contender would raise eyebrows around the competition.
