NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

CLUB WELCOME

#NPLNSW

Welcome to Bonnyrigg Sports Ground for round eight of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

Today we welcome our local neighbours Sydney United 58 in what promises to be a fantastic match like so many over the years.

After battling hard and coming so close to victory on various occasions this season, we finally picked up our first win of the campaign last week as we look to build on that this week against our great rivals.

We wish Sydney United's players, staff and supporters the very best in 2018.

The White Eagles would like to thank Major Sponsor Gentle Dentle Care, Diamond Sponsors Bonnyrigg Sports Club, Orthodox Funerals, Vesti Digital, Krispy Crème, Mini-Crete Concrete and the rest of our large sponsorship pool for their contribution and support for the 2018 season.

We would also like to thank our loyal fans who have continued to support their club over the last 50 marvellous years.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

There are always fireworks when Bonnyrigg White Eagles take on Sydney United 58 and it will be no different when the two sides go head to head on Sunday.

Bonnyrigg come into the match brimming with confidence after their first win of the season following victory against Wollongong Wolves in Round 7.

Against Sydney United 58, they will need to take their game up another level but they will need little inspiration to deliver their best performance with derby bragging rights on the line.

David Bradasevic has been a huge addition to the White Eagles side with the goalkeeper performing well despite the team's struggles.

Aaron Peterson returned to form with a goal last week and will again be one of Bonnyrigg's main threats going forward along with skipper Ray Miller.

For Sydney United 58, the match will be a chance to return to winning ways after a shock loss to Hakoah Sydney City East last round.

Jason Culina's side struggled to get out of second gear in that clash and will struggle once again if they deliver a repeat performance.

Patrick Antelmi is slowly finding his way in the team and he is a player that will surely take some beating once he hits his proper form.

Tom Manos has done his bit in producing a number of goal saving moments so he will need to be on his guard come Sunday.

These games are always tense and this match is sure to go down wire.

Wollongong Wolves FC 0 – Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 at WIN Stadium

Bonnyrigg White Eagles picked up their long awaited first victory of the season with a narrow 1-0 win over Wollongong Wolves on Sunday afternoon at WIN Stadium.

The crucial goal came in the second half courtesy of a delightful curled finish from outside the box by Aaron Peterson; a top quality strike that Bonnyrigg hope will kick start their 2018 National Premier Leagues NSW campaign.

Both sides had their share of chances on the afternoon as the White Eagles twice struck the crossbar while Wolves had two goals ruled out for offside and were repeatedly denied by a top notch performance from David Bradasevic between the sticks.

Jacob Timpano's men were left to rue what may have been while Brian Brown and co will look to build upon their result as they look to get their season back on track.

Hakoah Sydney City East 2 – Sydney United 58 FC 0 at Hensley Athletic Field

Hakoah Sydney City East have won a scrappy affair against Sydney United 58 FC 2-0 at Hensley Athletic Field

The result was three vital points for the home side who in recent weeks have been somewhat unlucky, while for losing side Sydney United 58 FC it was definitely one that got away.

A penalty from Mitchell Stamatellis 12 minutes into the contest and an Andre De Jong finish in the second half was the difference as Hakoah claimed a shock upset.

The home side were rewarded for their dogged defence and rapid counters as United 58 struggled to find a breakthrough.

BIG MATCHES SCHEDULED FOR ROUND 5

Forty NSW teams have found out their FFA Cup fate as round 5 of the prestigious draw was announced on Friday at Football NSW's headquarters.

Led by Football NSW CEO Stuart Hodge as well as Local FC and former Sydney United and Marconi Stallions star Chad Gibson, the duo had the task of drawing out each of the forty teams schedules with matches set to take shape either on the 2nd and 9th of May.

As many as thirteen Football NSW Association clubs from across the state including four Football South Coast Association teams (Albion Park White Eagles, Tarrawanna Blueys SC, Bulli FC, Wollongong Olympic), three Central Coast Football Association teams (Terrigal United, Berkeley Vale SC, Killarney District SC) as well as sole representatives from the Eastern Suburbs (Maroubra United), Gladesville-Hornsby (Gladesville Ravens), Sutherland Shire (Kirrawee Kangaroos FC), Manly (Belrose Terrey Hills Raiders SC), Football Wagga Wagga (Henwood Park FC) and Shoalhaven Association (Bomaderry SC) are all still in contention of a place in round 6 of the Preliminary round draw.

A few exciting clashes have been announced with two all NPL NSW Men's affairs taking shape, one at Seymour Shaw as the Sutherland Sharks take on Hakoah Sydney City East while at Cromer Park a massive encounter will feature 2017 Champions Manly United tackle red-hot Blacktown City who in recent seasons, have had fantastic runs in the FFA Cup Round of 32 and beyond.

It will be a tough task but Football Wagga Wagga's Henwood Park FC will travel to Edensor Park where they will face NPL NSW Men's outfit Sydney United 58 while Gladesville-Hornsby FA's Gladesville Ravens will travel to Sydney West where they will battle NPL NSW Men's side Marconi Stallions.

An all association affair will however dominate the headlines as Shoalhaven's Bomaderry SC will host Central Coast Football's Killarney District SC while giantkillers Kirrawee Kangaroos from the Sutherland Shire FA who recently knocked out State League Men's side Nepean FC, will hope they can inflict the same pain on the Balmain Tigers FC.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles and Sydney United 58 will both be desperate to win when the rivals face off in Bonnyrigg on Sunday afternoon.

The White Eagles haven't won since their opening day defeat of Sydney Olympic but have offered some strong performances in recent weeks despite their failure to turn draws into wins. Hamish Brown's side drew 0-0 last weekend against Wollongong Wolves following a narrow loss to Sutherland Sharks and a 5-5 thriller with Sydney FC.

This inability to capitalize on crucial moments has the potential to leave Bonnyrigg adrift but the side has notably raised their standards against the big sides this campaign and will need to do so again for the visit of Sydney United 58.

It could prove to be an ideal time to face the Reds who after a 1-0 defeat to Hakoah Sydney City East last round have now lost three in a row having started the season in a rich vein of form. The visitors know they will be in for a scrap and must be willing to edge out a gritty performance in order to avoid slipping down the table.
