PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

ROUND 6 CROMER PARK 7PM SATURDAY 14TH APRIL 2018

CLUB WELCOME

#NPLNSW

Good evening and welcome to what promises to be a bumper round six National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash under lights at Cromer Park this Saturday.

Manly United finally return to the Northern Beaches to play in front of their fans for the first time since their season opener on Saturday, March 10 against the APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Since then we have been on the road against Hakoah Sydney City East, Sydney Olympic FC, Marconi and Blacktown City FC.

Our premiership defence hasn't panned out as we hoped early on - but recent signs are promising.

Paul Dee's men salvaged a point in a 1-1 draw with Blacktown City last start, which followed wins against Marconi and Mt Druitt Town Rangers (FFA Cup).

Brendan Cholakian is the player to watch for Manly United.

He tends to produce his best football against Rockdale and his early season form has been encouraging.

Rockdale no doubt will come out with a point to prove after they were outclassed 5-0 by a ruthless APIA last weekend.

Consistently challenging for the semi-finals in recent years, they will look to the likes of Ante Covic and Blake Ricciuto to provide inspiration come kick-off at 7pm.

The two squads also played out a pulsating encounter in the semi-finals at Cromer Park last year, with Manly eventually winning in a dramatic penalty shoot-out.

See you at the game and go you mighty Manly United FC!

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Manly United are slowly finding their groove after a tough start to the campaign and will be focused on notching their second win of the season when they host Rockdale City Suns on Saturday.

It will be only the second home game of the season for Manly after four games on the road.

The chance to play in front of their passionate fans could be the missing formula for Paul Dee's team.

Dylan Macallister's injury time equaliser against Blacktown City is sure to be a morale booster which can lift the reigning Champions back to their best form.

Manly captain Brendan Cholakian has gone from strength to strength in recent weeks with his dribbling skills and defence splitting passes the key to their attack.

Their challenger this week is a Rockdale side which has gone off the boil and are in need of a win.

While they may not be firing on all cylinders, Rockdale is a team which can't be written off.

Alec Urosevski remains one of the best attacking players in the competition, Jordan Figon is a centre forward with a unique combination of size, skill and speed, while Ante Covic is arguably the best shot stopper in the competition.

The scene is set for a thrilling matchup with plenty on the line for two teams determined to play finals football.

Blacktown City FC 1 – Manly United 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

Dylan Macallister rescued a point for Manly United in their round five clash with Blacktown City after striking an injury-time equalizer to claim a 1-1 draw at Lily's Football Centre.

The veteran striker arrived off the bench midway through the second half and fired home a scrappy 91st minute effort to earn the reigning champions a valuable point away from home.

Blacktown looked set for their fourth win on the trot and fifth consecutive shutout after a brilliant first half opener from Mitch Mallia but were punished by Macallister at the death after failing to capitalize on a series of late chances.

As a result Mark Crittenden's side lose hold of the early competition lead with Sydney Olympic and APIA Leichhardt Tigers registering victories over Marconi Stallions and Rockdale City Suns in Saturday night's other fixtures.

Rockdale City Suns 0 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 5 at Ilinden Sports Centre

A brace and an assist from the scintillating Tasuku Sekiya set APIA Leichhardt Tigers up for a stunning 5-0 against Rockdale City Suns at Ilinden Sports Centre on Saturday.

APIA were at their very best as they bounced back from last round's defeat at the hands of Blacktown City to notch their fourth win of the campaign.

Sekiya started the rout in the 26th minute before adding his second eight minutes later with APIA heading to the half-time break two goals to the good. Josh Symons netted the third midway through the second stanza in a quite bizarre fashion before a delightful pass by Sekiya on the resumption set skipper Sean Symons in for the fourth with Corey Biczo wrapping up the result at the death.

For Rockdale it was another below par performance with Paul Reid's side paying the price for poor discipline in defence. The result was the Suns third defeat in four games dropping them outside the top five.

Manly United and Rockdale City Suns haven't been pulling up any trees with their performances so far this campaign but the opportunity for either to do so will arise on Saturday evening when the pair tussle at Cromer Park.

The hosts Manly enter the clash following a 2-1 defeat to Blacktown City in which the young United side offered glimpses of potential but were punished by lapses in concentration. It looks as though the viability of Marley Peterson and Gianni Stensness as first team regulars (who have scored four out of Manly's six goals so far) could be detrimental to the 20s side this season with the pair both turning in excellent performances for first grade in recent weeks.

Rockdale City Suns will be eager to banish a 5-0 loss to APIA Leichhardt from memory when they arrive at Cromer Park. The Suns have looked good in patches this year, particularly in 2-0 win over Bonnyrigg White Eagles but have been unable to garner enough consistency in the season's fledgling weeks.
