VS

ROUND 5 MARCONI STADIUM 7PM SATURDAY 7TH APRIL 2018

Marconi Stallions will be out to come back from the Easter break on a positive note with victory against Sydney Olympic FC. Peter Tsekenis' side have had a mixed start over the opening four rounds and will be determined to make it a win after disappointing losses against Manly United FC and APIA. Sydney Olympic FC who beat Manly United FC when they met in Round 3, but also lost to APIA Leichhardt FC will no doubt be on their best game knowing Marconi will not want to have another loss at home.

You can count on these two clubs to put on a show with some high quality football coming our way.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Round 5 of the National Premier Leagues NSW season is all about bouncing back for Marconi Stallions.

A 4-2 loss at the hands of Manly United last week was Marconi's first loss of the campaign and how they respond to their first major hurdle will be telling as to where this team is at.

The Stallions will be ruing the defeat especially as they lead twice in the match but conceded easy goals against a fired up opposition.

Mateo Poljak's experience in the heart of midfield has been influential for Marconi while fellow A-League alumni Michael Beauchamp, Peter Triantis, Marko Jesic and Sean Rooney all give Peter Tsekenis' side experience and star power their rivals would envy.

Their opponents this week is an in-form Sydney Olympic outfit riding high on the back of three consecutive home wins.

Olympic looked as if they were set to struggle at the start of the season when coach Gorka Etxeberria departed the Belmore club.

However, it has been anything but bad times at Olympic with new coach Abbas Saad employing an entertaining style which encourages his players to attack and show off their individual flair.

Jason Madonis and Will Angel provide great width to Olympic's attack, while Chris Gligor in midfield is one of the side's unheralded stars.

Olympic are scoring freely and testing opposition defences which will surely have Marconi on the back foot on Saturday night.

But if Marconi's big name attacking stars can fire this game could go any direction.

Marconi Stallions 2 – Manly United FC 4 at Marconi Stadium

Manly United FC showed their championship spirit fighting back twice to claim a 4-2 victory against Marconi Stallions on Saturday at Marconi Stadium.

In a highly entertaining first half, Marconi Stallions led twice. Firstly through a Marko Jesic penalty then a sublime piece of skill from former Wanderer Matteo Poljak. Twice though, they were pegged back by Manly United as Brendan Cholakian and Travis Oughtred sent both teams to the break 2-2.

After the break Manly United underlined their club spirit to 'never give up' as they struck two decisive blows from Nikola Tanevski and Kye Conna to finally get themselves off both off the bottom of the ladder and the duck egg.

Peter Tsekenis lamented some regrettable errors that cruelled the Stallions in the second half as they now have to pick themselves up for a mid-week catch up against APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC.

Sydney Olympic 2 – Hakoah Sydney City East 1 at Belmore Sports Ground

Sydney Olympic fought their way to a hard earned 2-1 victory over Hakoah Sydney City East at Belmore Sports ground on Good Friday.

All three of the afternoon's goals came as a result of set pieces with George Timotheou and Alejandro Sanchez-Lopez scoring either side of Oliver Green's equaliser to give Olympic their third consecutive home win of the season.

Play was often scrappy throughout the match as the bobbly pitch made it difficult for both sides to generate continuity and create chances, allowing dead ball situations to take centre stage and inevitably decide the result.

With the win, Olympic continues their bright start to their 2018 National Premier Leagues NSW campaign with three victories from their opening four matches

Marconi Stallions and Sydney Olympic have endured stop start openings to the new campaign so far but both will be eyeing two wins a row on Saturday afternoon at Marconi Stadium.

The Stallions got their season up and running thanks to a 2-1 win over Manly United last weekend which saw James Andrew and Martin Fernandez get on the scoresheet.

It could spell trouble for Olympic if the former Blacktown City speedster features against the Blues on the weekend however the visitors should be buoyed by an excellent 3-0 win over Hakoah Sydney City East in round four.

Olympic largely had Radovan Pavicevic to thank for breaking their 2018 duck after contributing a brace against Hakoah while a first clean sheet of the season will bolster the visitors' confidence against menacing attacking potential in Brandon Stojcevski and Martin Lo.
