KICKOFF

VS

ROUND 5 LAMBERT PARK 7.45PM SATURDAY 7TH APRIL 2018

Good evening everyone and welcome to tonight's clash at Lambert Park.

I've seen some promising signs from the squad in these opening rounds as we push each opponent each week.

The players are getting the feel for the level required in the NPL NSW Men's competition and are coming into their own, growing in confidence game upon game.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles tonight will be another stern test for the team, but one I and them are relishing.

I've got a lot of faith in this playing group to progress to the next level when called upon and I'm eager to see what they can produce.

I'd like to thank all our Members and fans for their backing during the season and I'm looking forward to seeing everyone in the stands again tonight

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

It will be back to basics this week for Sydney FC when they host Bonnyrigg White Eagles on Saturday night.

A week after conceding five goals to Sydney United 58, Robbie Stanton's side will be focused on fixing their backline and instilling a new level of discipline to their game.

However, it hasn't been all bad news this season for the Young Sky Blues with captain Sam McIlhatton one of the breakout players of the competition's opening rounds.

The goal scoring prowess of Jeremy Cox has been another standout point to their season so far with the young striker leading the golden boot race with five goals in four games.

The pair will play a big role if Sydney FC are to clinch all three points.

For Bonnyrigg White Eagles the game is a chance for them to rediscover the killer edge the club has been famous for.

Their unbelievable 4-3 loss to Rockdale last round after leading 3-0 was a bitter pill to swallow for Brian Brown's men and it should be the turning point of their season.

One bright spark for Bonnyrigg has been the form of new signing David Bradasevic who has been in inspired form between the posts.

The White Eagles will be without Mun So Gill who will serve his suspension after being sent off against Rockdale.

Both sides are desperate for the win so it expect an entertaining clash with the potential for plenty of goals.

Sydney United 58 FC 5 – Sydney FC 3 at Sydney United Sports Centre

A Panny Nikas hat trick has handed Jason Culina his first win at Sydney United Sports Centre after defeating a spirited Sydney FC 5-3 in a hugely entertaining round four National Premier Leagues NSW encounter at Edensor Park.

The see-sawing contest was highlighted by a breathless ten minute period in the opening half that saw Jeremy Cox give the Sky Blues the lead on two occasions before United 58 fought back to restore parity twice and eventually edged in front before half time courtesy of a Chris Payne effort and a pair of Nikas strikes.

Patrick Antelmi gave the home side breathing space early in the second half before Nikas all but sealed back to back victories for United 58 and claimed his treble with an audaciously struck penalty with fifteen minutes remaining.

Jerry Skotadis netted a fine stoppage time consolation for the Young Sky Blues, who despite their third match defeat in a row, will be buoyed after contesting toe to toe against a vastly more experienced United 58 unit with five former A-League stalwarts peppered throughout the team.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 3 – Rockdale City Suns 4 at Bonnyrigg Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns have pulled off one of the most spectacular comebacks in recent seasons to snatch an unlikely 4-3 victory against Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Bonnyrigg Sports Club on Saturday.

Two first half goals from David Vrankovic and a belter from Shervin Adeli had the White Eagles cruising with a 3-0 lead after the first 45 minutes despite Mun So Gil's red card mid-way through the half.

But the Suns rallied, as Blake Ricciuto got them on the board before Alec Urosevski levelled the scores and finally substitute Toufic Alameddine found the incredible winner.

It was a heartbreaking result for Bonnyrigg who have struggled for consistency this season and were in desperate need of a victory.

Sydney FC host Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Lambert Park on Saturday evening looking to keep pace with early frontrunners Sutherland Sharks and Sydney United 58.

The Sky Blues drew 2-2 with United 58 last weekend and despite a heavy loss to Sutherland in round two Sydney have looked in impressive nick with Giuseppe Tilio and Finn Ballard-Mcbride catching the eye.

Hamish Lamberton has also looked the part at the head of the Sky Blues attack after contributing four goals so far and will offer the central goal threat to a Bonnyrigg side who need to respond after turning in two poor performances in a row.

Hamish Brown's men have been beaten 2-0 by Blacktown City and Rockdale City Suns in their last two fixtures but will take heart from a fantastic 3-2 win achieved over Sydney at Lambert Park in 2017 as they look to turn around their form.
