NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

Welcome to Bonnyrigg Sports Ground for round 10 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

Today we welcome the APIA Leichhardt Tigers in what promises to be a fantastic match like so many over the years.

After registering two straight wins, we went down on Sunday to Hakoah SCE in a tight game. We have fond memories of our last home match where we defeated Sydney United 58 and will look to get straight back to winning ways tonight.

We wish APIA's players, staff and supporters the very best in 2018.

The White Eagles would like to thank Major Sponsor Gentle Dentle Care, Diamond Sponsors Bonnyrigg Sports Club, Orthodox Funerals, Vesti Digital, Krispy Crème, Mini-Crete Concrete and the rest of our large sponsorship pool for their contribution and support for the 2018 season.

We would also like to thank our loyal fans who have continued to support their club over the last 50 marvellous years.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

A battle against competition front runners APIA Leichhardt Tigers will be a sure test for a resurgent Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

Despite a loss last week to Hakoah Sydney City East, Bonnyrigg has show solid improvement in recent weeks including a win against fierce rivals Sydney United 58.

Club captain Ray Miller has been one of the reasons for Bonnyrigg's improvement with the classy midfielder in fine form.

Against APIA, Miller will need to continue that run of form with his ability to create for strikers Aaron Peterson and Dean Bereveskos key to breaking down a solid Tigers defence.

APIA will be driven to bounce back after last week's shock loss to Sydney United 58 which allowed Sydney Olympic lead frog them into top spot.

After his incredible A-League grand final return with the Newcastle Jets, Ivan Necevski resumes his spot between the sticks for APIA which is a major boost for their defence.

Billy McColl's APIA team go into the match as clear favourites but with the support of their home crowd and a new found confidence could be enough to inspire Bonnyrigg to a memorable upset.

Hakoah Sydney City East 2 – Bonnyrigg White Eagles 0 at Hensley Athletic Field

A second-half revival from Hakoah Sydney City East has helped them claim a hard fought 2-0 victory over Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday afternoon.

Hakoah struggled to get it together in the first half but found their groove after the break with Michael Kouta netting a sublime free-kick to open the scoring for the home side.

Kiwi international Andre De Jong wrapped up the result with a headed finish as Bonnyrigg were unable to match their solid derby performance from a week earlier.

It was a key win for Hakoah who remain in the mix for finals football only two points outside the top five with 13 rounds yet to play.

Sydney United 58 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 0 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Patrick Antelmi's second half strike helped Sydney United 58 topple competition leaders APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1-0 in a fierce battle at Sydney United Sports Centre on Saturday evening.

The former Wollongong striker clinched his fourth goal of the season twelve minutes after half time when he pounced on a long ball over the top before firing past APIA goalkeeper Blake Tuxford.

NPL NSW frontrunners APIA Leichhardt had scored 15 goals in their previous four matches before the clash at Edensor Park but were unable to muster a response following Antelmi's opener and were held scoreless for just the second time this campaign.

Despite enjoying the more goal scoring opportunities Sydney United 58 were not at their clinical best, however the Reds will be buoyed enormously by what was a resolute defensive performance and all-round committed showing in the wake of back to back defeats to Hakoah Sydney City East and Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

A third consecutive loss would have mounted concerns for United 58 who parted ways with head coach Jason Culina during the week but now find themselves four points behind the leaders after nine matches played.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles are looking the bounce back from last weekend's 1-0 defeat to Hakoah Sydney City East in their home fixture with APIA Leichhardt Tigers at Bonnyrigg Sports Club this Saturday afternoon.

The narrow defeat at Hensley Athletic Field followed an impressive string of performances for Hamish Brown's side, who salvaged a point from Sydney FC and came close to doing so against leaders Sutherland Sharks before a goalless draw with Wollongong and a 2-0 win over Sydney United 58 in their last four fixtures.

Having battled credibly against these four sides who currently make up the top five, Bonnyrigg should be primed for another big showing at home for the visit of APIA Leichhardt Tigers, whom the White Eagles can join on 12 points with a victory.

And although the visitors APIA defeated Sydney United 2-0 last Saturday the Tigers haven't won back to back matches all season and haven't quite managed to muster the required consistency for Franco Consentino's side to be considered genuine title challengers. However, last season's Grand Finalists undoubtedly boast one of the most talented rosters in the competition and will have an eye on making a statement when they arrive at Bonnyrigg.
