NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

CLUB WELCOME

#NPLNSW

Welcome to Bonnyrigg Sports Ground for round 11 of the National Premier Leagues NSW Men's competition.

Today we welcome Manly United to the West for our second of three straight home games.

Two defeats in a row have put us on the back foot once again but we'll be looking to change our fortunes as early as tonight and start our climb up the ladder.

We wish Manly's players, staff and supporters the very best in 2018.

The White Eagles would like to thank Major Sponsor Gentle Dentle Care, Diamond Sponsors Bonnyrigg Sports Club, Orthodox Funerals, Vesti Digital, Krispy Crème, Mini-Crete Concrete and the rest of our large sponsorship pool for their contribution and support for the 2018 season.

We would also like to thank our loyal fans who have continued to support their club over the last 50 marvellous years.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Bonnyrigg White Eagles suffered a major fall from grace last round as they went down 5-1 to a relentless APIA Leichhardt attack.

The Brian Brown coached White Eagles had begun to show solid signs of improvement in recent weeks but suffered a regression of sorts against APIA.

Bonnyrigg conceded three goals in the second stanza which would have been a major concern to Brown,

They will attempt to bounce back against Manly United this week with key man Je-Wook Woo the centre piece of the White Eagles attack.

For Manly the game is a must win after they were held to another draw last round.

United sit one point outside the top five and will be desperate to break into finals contention with a win.

Captain Brendan Cholakian will lead the attack for Manly with his passing and skilful dribbling vital to unlock the Bonnyrigg defence.

After conceding late equalisers twice in as many weeks, the boys from the Northern Beaches will be focused on closing out the win with a 90 minute performance.

At home Bonnyrigg stand a chance of claiming an upset, but with a finals spot on the line Manly won't be east to beat.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 5 at Bonnyrigg Sports Ground

APIA Leichhardt have returned to winning ways in emphatic style with a comprehensive 5-1 domination of Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Bonnyrigg Sports ground on Saturday night.

Jordan Murray was the star of the evening, picking up a hat-trick while winger Corey Bizco scored a brace.

Murray struck twice in two minutes mid-way through the first half before Bonnyrigg's Korean import Jewook Woo fired for Bonnyrigg to ensure the home side trailed 2-1 at the interval.

However, Woo's goal turned out to be nothing more than a consolation as APIA raced away in the second stanza with Bizco netting twice before Murray claimed his third.

The match was a tale of two teams, a magnificent and free-flowing Tigers and a disappointing White Eagles.

It was the perfect response from APIA after last week's shock 1-0 loss to Sydney United 58 as they fight to regain top spot on the National Premier Leagues NSW ladder.

Manly United 1 – Sydney United 58 1 at Cromer Park

Manly United and Sydney United 58 fought out a tight 1-1 draw at a soggy Cromer Park on Saturday night.

The contest sprung to life in the second half after a dour showing from both sides in the opening stanza.

United 58's second half substitute Glen Trifiro's 70th minute effort cancelled out Dominic Ferguson's strike after 56 minutes, while a penalty save from Thomas Manos ensured the spoils were shared.

It will be the hosts who view the stalemate as two points dropped, as they maintained possession for extended periods early on, and engineered more clear-cut sights on goal late.

Regardless, Manly's unbeaten run now stretches to seven matches, while Sydney United continue to whisk aside their off-field concerns to sit in fourth place on the ladder.

Two of the competition's improving sides face off at Bonnyrigg Sports Club on Saturday night with Bonnyrigg White Eagles hosting Manly United.

Both teams have come roaring back into the top five complexion in recent weeks and sit seventh and eighth respectively ahead of the contest, with a win for either side likely moving them within a few points of fifth position at the end of the round.

The hosts Bonnyrigg will be in a buoyant mood after a great 1-0 victory over APIA Leichhardt last weekend, with the White Eagles keeping their third clean sheet from their last five against the Tigers. After conceding five against Sydney FC, Hamish Brown's side have been the best defensive outfit in the competition - conceding just the one goal in defeats to Sutherland and Hakoah Sydney City East.

Bonnyrigg's improved discipline and organization should provide visitors Manly with a big test - although United themselves will be in a high spirits after claiming back to back victories for the first time this campaign following a 2-1 win over Sydney United 58 last Saturday.
