1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

A huge bounce back performance is what Hakoah Sydney City East will be out to achieve when they take on APIA Leichhardt Tigers on Sunday.

The Gavin Rae coached Hakoah side went down 3-0 to a fired up Rockdale City Suns outfit last week and the threat of APIA's high scoring attack could mean another one sided result if the boys from the Eastern Suburbs aren't at their best.

Hakoah has been solid at home this campaign and it should provide them with that little bit extra against the reigning National Premier Leagues NSW Premiers.

Andre De Jong has been the main man in attack for Hakoah and that should remain the case this weekend.

Combined with the composure and experience of Mitchell Stamatellis as well as talented shot stopper Anthony Bouzanis, Hakoah have the players to go toe to toe with APIA.

For APIA they will be out to avoid a repeat of last season's shock Waratah Cup defeat to Hakoah.

The memory would be fresh in the minds of many of the Tiger's players and should fuel them with inspiration for a big performance.

Jordan Murray scored a hat trick last round and will be full of confidence. Corey Bizco also struck twice and the skilful winger will prove a handful for his marker.

Hakoah have a strong reputation of putting up a good fight when they're up against it and so they shouldn't be underestimated despite APIA's impressive form.

Rockdale City Suns 3 – Hakoah Sydney City Suns 0 at Ilinden Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns have roared back into form with a solid 3-0 win against Hakoah Sydney City East at Ilinden Sports Centre on Sunday.

It was a rampant Rockdale performance with a Jordan Figon brace and Harris Gaitatzis poached goal at the death enough to secure a much needed three competition points for the Paul Reid coached side.

Figon netted after only five minutes to settle the nerves of a shaky Suns side, but they weren't going to have it all their way with an injury ravaged Hakoah side putting up fierce resistance.

Indeed, the visitors would probably have counted themselves unlucky to go into the half-time break a goal behind after profligate finishing left them scoreless.

Rockdale wrapped up the win late when a Gaitatzis strike and a solo Figon ensured Hakoah would go home empty handed.

Bonnyrigg White Eagles 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 5 at Bonnyrigg Sports Ground

APIA Leichhardt have returned to winning ways in emphatic style with a comprehensive 5-1 domination of Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Bonnyrigg Sports ground on Saturday night.

Jordan Murray was the star of the evening, picking up a hat-trick while winger Corey Bizco scored a brace.

Murray struck twice in two minutes mid-way through the first half before Bonnyrigg's Korean import Jewook Woo fired for Bonnyrigg to ensure the home side trailed 2-1 at the interval.

However, Woo's goal turned out to be nothing more than a consolation as APIA raced away in the second stanza with Bizco netting twice before Murray claimed his third.

The match was a tale of two teams, a magnificent and free-flowing Tigers and a disappointing White Eagles.

It was the perfect response from APIA after last week's shock 1-0 loss to Sydney United 58 as they fight to regain top spot on the National Premier Leagues NSW ladder.

Hakoah Sydney City East can finish the first half of the regular season comfortably in the top five should they beat APIA Leichhardt Tigers in Sunday afternoon's meeting at Hensley Athletic Field.

After propping up the table for the first four rounds, Hakoah clinched fourth on the ladder last round with a 3-2 win over Rockdale City Suns and have raised eyebrows around the league with a series of excellent performances.

Paul Hubbard's side have won five of their last six and have kept three clean sheets during that time, proving themselves tricky customers no matter the opposition.

Opponents APIA Leichhardt are yet to find any consistency so far this season and have lost two matches in a row coming into the contest with Hakoah. With a host of sides improving around them in the table, the Tigers will need to find a confidence building victory soon to remind last year's Grand Finalists of their quality.
