1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Nothing short of a win will be considered a good result when Hakoah Sydney City East host Sydney FC at Hensley Athletic Field on Sunday.

Hakoah come into the game after suffering their second loss in as many games, a 3-1 loss to reigning National Premier Leagues NSW Premiers APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Sydney FC on the other hand come into the game after halting a 10 game win less streak with victory against Rockdale City Suns.

Despite winning only three of eleven matches so far this season, Hakoah remain in the hunt for the finals sitting one win outside the top five. Victory against Sydney FC is vital to stay in touch with the pack.

Anthony Bouzanis has been the unspoken hero for Hakoah this season with the young glove man keeping the Eastgardens side in many matches with his incredible shot stopping ability.

Bouzanis will be put to the test against in-form Young Sky Blues striking duo Jeremy Cox and Hassan Jalloh.

Cox made his mark in round one with a hat trick against Hakoah and has continued his great play to notch seven goals going into Round 12. When Cox and Jalloh are on song, Sydney FC are very difficult to defend.

Both young sides are fighting to stay in the hunt for finals football but have failed to make the most of their determined displays so far.

A win this round does a lot for team confidence and could be the building block for something greater in coming weeks.

Hakoah Sydney City East 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 3 at Hakoah Sydney City East

APIA Leichhardt Tigers have maintained their challenge at the top of the NSW National Premier Leagues NSW ladder with a 3-1 win against Hakoah Sydney City East at Hensley Athletic

It was an important win for APIA as they kept their chances of a Premiership defence alive keeping the Lambert Park based side within three points of league leaders Sydney Olympic.

Both sides gave little way in a hard fought opening stanza before the gates opened in the second half.

Jordan Murray found the back of the net with a clinical finish at the resumption of the second half before Tasuku Sekiya stretched the visitors lead to 2-0 in the 70th minute.

Anthony Frangie gave the home side hope of snatching a point from the match with a goal from the penalty spot in the 84th minute.

However, it wasn't to be for Hakoah with APIA's Murray netting in added-time to wrap up the win and ensure the visitors went home with all three competition points.

Sydney FC 2 – Rockdale City Suns 0 at Lambert Park

Sydney FC has ended their 10 week winless streak with a comfortable 2-0 result against a disappointing Rockdale City Suns FC at Lambert Park on Saturday.

The Young Sky Blues were in control of the entire contest, and if not for their wastefulness could've finished the contest by half-time.

A rifled finish from Sam McIlhatton that sent Sydney FC into the break up 1-0 before Jeremy Cox confirmed the points with an arrowed finish in the second stanza to help his side fight their way off the bottom of the ladder.

Rockdale City Suns coach Paul Reid offered no excuses for his sides poor performance, despite playing three games in a short time-frame, they weren't at the races tonight and were dominated by a youthful Sky Blues side.

A big opportunity awaits Hakoah Sydney City East this Sunday with third-placed Sydney FC arriving at Hensley Athletic Field.

A victory for Hakoah will see the fourth-placed outfit leapfrog the Sky Blues in the table and firmly stake an outside claim in the premiership race. After a disastrous start to the season, Paul Hubbard's gritty Hakoah side has won six of their last seven and will no doubt enter the clash with Sydney in high spirits.

Hakoah's optimism should be buoyed further by Sydney's stuttering recent form over the past month, in which the Sky Blues have dropped points against bottom clubs Sydney Olympic and Rockdale City Suns. Sydney have also been less than convincing from a defensive standpoint this campaign, conceding seven more goals than their opponents and sharing the second-worst record alongside Marconi.

However, Hakoah will be equally guarded by Sydney's deadly frontline in Hamish Lamberton and former player Jordan Swibel, who lead the competition's top scorers with 12 and 11 goals apiece. Sydney's attacking prowess matched against Hakoah's superb organization will make for an intriguing and potentially crucial encounter at Hensley Athletic Field.
