1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

A stumbling Blacktown City could prove easy pickings for an inspired Bonnyrigg White Eagles when the two sides face off on Saturday night.

Bonnyrigg has slowly found their way this season and showed great fighting spirit to claim a 2-2 draw against Marconi Stallions in Round 13.

Their opponents Blacktown City are in desperate need of a win after two frustrating performances including last week's defeat at the hands of Sydney United 58.

The White Eagles had to play the majority of last week's clash without influential midfielder Ray Miller. If Miller is unable to recover the pressure will be on Jewook Woo and Dean Berevoskos to create chances against a formidable Blacktown defence.

For City it is a case of deja vu with their recent two game stumble familiar to a run of three games earlier in the campaign where nothing would go right for the Seven Hills based side.

Devante Clut was a shining light for Blacktown against United 58 but his efforts weren't enough to claim his side victory.

Third placed Blacktown would usually come into this match against ninth placed Bonnyrigg as the favourite, however recent form shows that Saturday's match could be the White Eagles chance to spring a major upset.

Blacktown will be desperate to fix up their recent stumbles but if Bonnyrigg play their cards right the White Eagles might become a hurdle too high for City.

Marconi Stallions 2 – Bonnyrigg White Eagles 2 at Marconi Stadium

Marconi Stallions and Bonnyrigg White Eagles were forced to share the spoils after playing out a hard fought 2-2 draw at Marconi Stadium on Saturday.

Bonnyrigg snatched a point from the result thanks to a clinical Shervin Adeli penalty in the 62nd minute.

It was another difficult result for Marconi who were in prime position to claim victory before conceding a second half equaliser.

Bonnyrigg captain Ray Miller gave the visitors the perfect start with a goal in the eighth minute which proved to be the only goal of the first half as the White Eagles went into the break with a 1-0 lead.

However, the home side hit back early in the second stanza as a 48th minute strike from Peter Pelekanos levelled the score before Sean Rooney put Marconi in front 2-1 ten minutes later.

But it wasn't to be for the Stallions as a handball in the box only moments later gifted Bonnyrigg an equaliser and an all important competition point.

Blacktown City 0 – Sydney United 58 1 at Lily Homes Stadium

It was a winning start for Miro Vlastelica as Sydney United 58 defeated Blacktown City FC by a 1-0 scoreline at Lily Homes Stadium on Sunday afternoon.

The new coach's first match at the helm resulted in three valuable points thanks to a decisive early goal from Matt Sim.

The result narrows third-placed Blacktown's lead over United, reducing the gap from a daunting seven points to a hope-instilling four as teams begin to jostle for positions as we push into the back half of the 2018 NPL NSW Men's season.

Blacktown City are searching for a win to keep the pressure on leaders Sutherland Sharks in their clash against Bonnyrigg White Eagles at Bonnyrigg Sports Club on Saturday.

John Carnevale's side returned to form after back to back losses with a 1-0 triumph over Sydney United 58 last weekend, a result that saw City move within three points of Nick Dimovski's Sharks.

Lachlan Rose clinched his eighth goal of the campaign in that match and will prove vital to City's chances of escaping one of the toughest away trips on the NSW NPL Men's calendar.

The traditionally arduous assignment of Bonnyrigg away will be made all the more challenging for the visitors by the stubborn form the White Eagles have captured over the past couple of months.

Hamish Brown's men may have lost 2-1 to Marconi Stallions in round thirteen, but outside that result the White Eagles have conceded a meagre two goals in six fixtures and are comfortably among the sides baying outside the top five for a finals position.

Bonnyrigg will also be buoyed by what has been an impressive record over City in the past two seasons. Although the White Eagles were comfortably beaten 3-0 in the reverse fixture at Lily's in round three, Bonnyrigg had won their previous four outings against City.
