

ROUND 15 CROMER PARK 5PM
SATURDAY 16TH JUNE 2018

NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

#NPLNSW

Good evening and welcome to what promises to be an entertaining round 15 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash under lights at Cromer Park this Saturday.

Manly United once again return to play in front of their loyal fans - who will be hoping for one way traffic across 90 minutes.

Paul Dee's men were on home soil last weekend, with the end result a frustrating 2-1 defeat against league leaders Sydney Olympic FC.

Tonight's opponents are Marconi, who won plenty of admirers last Sunday afternoon following their grinding 1-0 win versus APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Sam Wilson is the player to watch for Manly United.

The classy utility marked his return to the team following an injury lay off with a goal last start, and each time he steps out to play for Manly, impressive performances tend to follow.

For the visitors, Sean Rooney will be fired up for a big game.

The veteran striker knows how to find the back of the net better than most, and his duel with either Travis Oughtred or Daniel Alessi will be worth the price of admission alone.

See you at the game, with kick-off at the earlier time of 5pm.

As always, go you mighty Manly United FC!

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

The pressure is on Manly United to fight their way back into the top five and nothing but a win will be enough when they host Marconi Stallions on Saturday.

United have failed to hit the heights of last season's Championship winning team this campaign and inconsistent results has the Paul Dee coached team sitting in 7th position after 14 rounds.

Their opponent Marconi Stallions come into the game flying high on confidence after securing a shock upset against APIA Leichhardt Tigers last round.

Sam Wilson made a brilliant return from injury last week netting the Northern Beaches side only goal in what was a solid first hit out. He will be determined to replicate that form against Marconi.

Marko Jesic was required to move into the number nine role last round after the injury to Sean Rooney, but the former Newcastle Jets man proved he was more than up to the task.

Both sides are fighting to keep their seasons alive and the competition points will come at a premium.

Manly will be slight favourites at home but it would be no surprise if an inspired Marconi team made it two wins in as many weeks.

Manly United 1 – Sydney Olympic 2 at Cromer Park

Sydney Olympic snatched all three points late against a gallant Manly United in a 2-1 victory at Cromer Park on Saturday night.

The sides were separated by an 87th minute winner from Max Burgess.

The competition frontrunners had been quick off the blocks, taking the lead through Radovan Pavicevic inside ten minutes.

However while it initially appeared that Olympic would comfortably dictate proceedings, Manly struck back in the 28th minute through Sam Wilson.

Both sides experienced periods of dominance throughout the second half, however the visitors' class eventually shone through, as they punished a wasteful Manly performance.

APIA Leichhardt Tigers FC 0 – Marconi Stallions 1 at Lambert Park

An inspired Marconi Stallions have stunned APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1-0 in a fiery contest at Lambert Park on Sunday.

A poachers finish from Stallions striker Marko Jesic was the difference in a thrilling contest which went right down to the final seconds.

APIA held out wave after wave of Marconi attacks in the first half before Jesic found pay dirt early in the second stanza after keeper Ivan Necevski palmed the ball to the feet of the Stallions number nine.

The Tigers threw everything forward hoping to nab an equaliser but it wasn't to be as Marconi clung on for a huge morale boosting win against their historic rivals.

Manly United entertain a resurgent Marconi Stallions outfit at Cromer Park this Saturday looking to continue their excellent recent form.

Adam Griffith's side have won four of their last six matches, including a superb 4-0 rout of Sydney Olympic last weekend – and are only four points outside the top five.

It's been a commendable recovery for Manly after a stuttering start to the season, and has largely been underpinned by defensive improvement with the Cromer Park outfit leaking just three goals in their last six.

Manly's form will make for a finely poised encounter against the Stallions, who will be riding high after a fantastic 3-1 victory over APIA Leichhardt last Sunday. It's now two wins on the trot for Nahuel Arrarte's men, who will be hugely motivated for the clash knowing they can overtake their opponents on the ladder with a win.
