

ROUND 14 CROMER PARK 7PM SATURDAY 9TH JUNE 2018

NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

CLUB WELCOME

#NPLNSW

Good evening and welcome to what promises to be an entertaining round 14 National Premier Leagues NSW Men's clash under lights at Cromer Park this Saturday.

Manly United return to play in front of their loyal fans - who will be hoping for one way traffic across 90 minutes.

The last time Paul Dee's men were on home soil in the league was last Saturday, with the end result a frustrating 0-0 stalemate against a stubborn Hakoah Sydney City East.

Tonight's opponents are league leaders Sydney Olympic FC, who are coming off a 1-1 draw versus APIA Leichhardt Tigers.

Abbas Saad has done a wonderful job in charge of the Belmore based club, who continue to impress despite a mounting injury toll.

Braden Cheng is the player to watch for Manly United.

The mid-season recruit from Marconi has pace to burn and loves running at fatigued defenders.

For the visitors, evergreen goalkeeper Paul Henderson will be fired up for a big performance.

'Hendo' doesn't seem to age and tends to produce big time between the sticks whenever he makes his way to the home of football on the Northern Beaches.

See you at the game, with kick-off 7pm.

As always, go you mighty Manly United FC!

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

Sixth placed Manly United are in touching distance of a finals spot but they must defeat league leaders Sydney Olympic on Saturday Night to break into the top five.

There was a shortage of goals last week as Manly settled for a scoreless draw at home against Hakoah Sydney City East.

Olympic were also forced to share the spoils as they failed to kill off a 10-man APIA Leichhardt side in a 1-1 draw in Round 13.

Manly Captain Brendan Cholakian was one player missing his shooting boots in round 13 but he will be fired up to lead his side to victory this time around. Cholakian is one of Manly's most dynamic players and he has the return of Scott Balderson to help share the load in attack.

Sydney Olympic striker Alejandro Sanchez has been an incredible addition to the side this season, but last week was one to forget for the Spaniard.

He will be fired up to deliver a bounce back performance and add to his season tally of eight goals.

Sydney Olympic will be favourites for the match but Manly at Cromer Park should never be written off.

Manly United 0 – Hakoah Sydney City East 0 at Cromer Park

Manly United and Hakoah Sydney City East played out a tight 0-0 draw at Cromer Park on Saturday night.

In a match which seemed destined for stalemate, clear cut chances were far and few between.

The hosts will feel hard done by after maintaining the majority of second half possession, but often failing with their final pass.

However if it were not for a couple of outstanding stops from Shaun Catlin, it may well have been Hakoah who travelled home with all three points.

Now sitting narrowly outside of the all-important top five, both teams will be looking to recapture their form in front of goal and return to the winner's circle next week.

Sydney Olympic 1 – APIA Leichhardt Tigers 1 at Belmore Sportsground

A last gasp Nathan Millgate header has helped a 10-man APIA Leichhardt Tigers snatch a 1-1 draw against Sydney Olympic at Belmore Sportsground on Sunday.

It was a heartbreaking result for Sydney Olympic who dominated the majority of the match and should've taken a six point lead at the top of the National Premier Leagues NSW competition ladder.

Jinya An gave the home side the lead in the 35th minute with a cool finish from inside the penalty area after a scrap for possession from a looping corner kick.

APIA were determined to fight back but were reduced to 10-men when Brandon Lundy was shown a second yellow and sent off in the 68th minute.

However, the visitors would find the equaliser they were ever so desperate for as Millgate jumped above two markers to nod home the equaliser.

The result means Olympic stay at the top of the competition with a three point lead over the second placed Tigers.

Manly United will be looking to continue their improving recent form against Sydney Olympic when they pair clash at Cromer Park on Saturday.

Adam Griffith's side moved into ninth position following a 4-1 win over Hakoah Sydney City East last weekend, a result that saw Mitchell Rooke claim a hattrick and comfortably stands out as the side's strongest result so far this campaign.

Manly have won three of their last five heading into the contest and although the side are eight points away from fifth position, the potential the Cromer Park outfit has shown over the past month should instill enough confidence in which to mount a serious assault on the finals positions.

They'll need to start with the visit of Olympic this Saturday however, and avoid complacency against the league's bottom club. The Blues are currently four points adrift at the bottom after last weekend's 0-0 draw with APIA Leichhardt Tigers but have offered up their fair share of promising performances in recent months, including draws with Sydney Olympic and Wollongong and a famous defeat of Sutherland Sharks.

Anthony Harb's men will be determined to resuscitate their campaign with nine rounds remaining, and they should be boosted by the fact they've done it before. Olympic were struggling on the competition ladder as late as round 18 in 2016 – before going on a sensational late season run to eventually claim the championship with a win over Manly.
