

ROUND 15 ILINDEN SPORTS CENTRE
5PM SUNDAY 17TH JUNE 2018

NATIONAL
PREMIER LEAGUES

KICKOFF

VS

We welcome all of our supporters, sponsors patrons, players and officials to the Ilinden Sports Centre for this Round 15 clash against Bonnyrigg White Eagles.

It's been a huge couple of weeks for the club. Last week we defeated Blacktown at home 3-2 to progress to the FFA Cup Round of 32. It is a fantastic achievement and even more pleasing is the fact that we came from behind against a highly fancied Blacktown side.

On the weekend we travelled to Edensor Park to take on Sydney United in the league. The boys made it three wins in a row with a deserved 2-0 win, goals courtesy of Brayden Sorge and a wonder strike by Alec Urosevski.

This week we will be looking to keep the momentum going against Bonnyrigg. Whilst the White Eagles have not had the best of starts to the season, they are a formidable team and games against them are always very difficult encounters. Both teams will be desperate for the 3 points so we hope you all thoroughly enjoy today's game.

Apart from the on-field action, we have plenty happening off the field with some exciting initiatives, including our off season 6-a-side competition, to be rolled out over the coming weeks.

We are also now selling tickets for our annual club raffle, an important fundraiser for the club.

Many thanks to the club sponsors who have kindly donated prizes including: Millenium Travel, Smartline Home Lending Centre at Bexley, Domayne Bedding at Auburn, Kingsford Smith Transport; Wild Weddings; to name a few.

As always, we hope you support our major sponsors, the lifeline of our club.

1ST GRADE MATCH PREVIEW

A three game winning run has Rockdale City Suns flying high and they will be out to make it four from four when they play host to Bonnyrigg White Eagles on Sunday.

Paul Reid's Suns have turned the corner in emphatic style after a shocking start to the campaign with a 2-0 win on the road against Sydney United 58 their latest victory.

It appears Rockdale finally has their act together and will be the team to beat down for the final eight games of the regular season.

Wet weather meant Bonnyrigg was given the week off last round after their match was postponed. The extra recovery time would've been music to the ears of White Eagles boss Brian Brown and his injury hit side.

Against United 58 it was Alec Urosevski who deserved the spotlight with a man of the match performance. The winger has been the one constant for the Suns this season and he looks as if he is only improving as the season goes on.

JeWook Woo has been a player to watch for Bonnyrigg this campaign and the young attacker could be a game changer for the White Eagles on Sunday.

At home and full of confidence after three straight wins, Rockdale will be the clear favourites when the two sides go head to head.

However, Bonnyrigg has claimed some big scalps this season when they've played to their potential.

Expect Rockdale's attack to lead the charge in what should be an exciting end to end contest.

Sydney United 58 0 – Rockdale City Suns 2 at Sydney United Sports Centre

Rockdale City Suns' incredible resurgence added another chapter on Saturday with an incredible 2-0 win against Sydney United 58 at Sydney United Sports Centre.

It was an impressive performance from the Suns who took control of the match from the opening minute and never looked back to notch their third straight win.

Brayden Sorge helped Rockdale off to the perfect start when he netted in the opening seconds of the match before an Alec Urosevski goal in the first moments of the second stanza wrapped up the result.

The result moves the Suns well into reckoning for a top five position and finals football leaving their early season struggles as nothing more than an afterthought.

Rockdale City Suns round out round 15 of the competition at home to Bonnyrigg White Eagles needing a win to regenerate their season.

The Suns have lost back to back fixtures against Sydney United 58 and Wollongong Wolves coming into the contest – which will frustrate the Rockdale side to no end, having defeated Sutherland and held Sydney FC to a draw in the previous two.

Rockdale have proven to be a better side than their lowly position on the ladder suggests, but time is running out for the Suns to keep themselves in the hunt for a top five position. They'll be targeting this Sunday's home fixture against Bonnyrigg as a must win.

Last weekends washout for Bonnyrigg has given Hamish Brown's side a chance to refresh and the White Eagles should be raring to go come the weekend. Bonnyrigg are currently eighth on the competition ladder and six points away from the top five, but with a match in hand and only one loss in their previous four, the White Eagles have a great chance to improve their standings with a win over the Suns.
